

High Representative Inzko Visits Suljic Family to Express Condolences

The High Representative, Valentin Inzko will visit the family of the late Mayor of Srebrenica, Osman Suljic in Tuzla, and express his sincere and deepest condolences for their loss.

With Osman Suljic's passing, Srebrenica has lost an individual who has dedicated his life to the town, and the people who live there, to those who would return, and to the families of those who lost loved ones.

Rahmetli Osman Suljic played a significant role in overcoming the differences and building a common future for the people of Srebrenica and was well respected and admired by citizens of all nationalities for his efforts at reconciliation.

Suljic's exemplary efforts will always be remembered by all.

May he rest in peace.
