| BH Foreign Minister Ivanic for Standard: progress of region depends on ICTY cooperation | BH Radio 1 – In the interview for Austrian daily ‘Standard’, BiH Foreign Affairs Minister Mladen Ivanic stated that Austria has contributed a lot to development of the Western Balkans, during its presiding over the EU, but progress of the region depends on the arrest and extraditions of ICTY indictees Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic . When it comes to signing of the Stabilization and Association Agreement, Ivanic said that it is possible for BiH to sign it by end of the year, but added that “political restrains” still exist. These “ political restrains ” refer to ICTY cooperation, which is the huge obstacle, and on the other side it refers to police reform, which is the condition for signing of SAA. |
| Another incident takes place in Mostar  | RHB – Another incident happened in the central zone of Mostar. Yesterday during long break about 30 hooligans threatened students of Mostar Grammar school and the school principal was forced to request police protection and lock up the school. Students’ parents requested that the principal suspend school until an investigation into the incident has been conducted.  |
| Ivanic welcomes Sarajevo commission, deems RS Govt should assist RS members             | SRNA news agency – The president of PDP Mladen Ivanic welcomed the appointment of the Commission for determination of truth about crimes against Serbs, Croats, Bosniaks, Jews and others in Sarajevo during the war. Ivanic deems that three members from RS in the Commission cannot do anything alone and that the Government must form the team that would be at their disposal.   |

| RPM mtg in Sarajevo: EC officials not satisfied with pace of reforms implementation | FTV by Zeljko Tica - Following the Thursday's fourth meeting of Reform Process Monitoring team, within the Stabilization and Association Process towards EU, EC's officials concluded that although BiH has made certain progress in reform processes, it has still not achieved enough. Last two days, BiH and EC officials summed up the implementation of reforms necessary to sign the SAA with the EU; according to FTV reporter, EC is mostly concerned with the implementation of the police reform, but also with the slow improvement in other reform processes. "EC did notice certain progress has been made, but - to be completely honest - we would like to see much more... And that is why we appeal to the authorities in this country to take up those reforms with more dynamics than before", stated Director of the EC's General Directorate for Enlargement Reinhardt Priebe. "Since the [SAA] negotiations...are going well, BiH has a chance to complete them by the end of the year. It depends on the implementation of those reforms when BiH will sign the SAA", added Director of the BiH Directorate of European Integrations Osman Topcagic. EC officials deem that it is finally time to adopt remaining laws and to start the reform of the Public Broadcasting System; according to FTV reporter, more dynamics is expected in the reform of public administration. Dnevni Avaz cover splash, pg 3 'Pre-elections campaign must not stop reforms' by T.Lazovic - Priebe told daily: "I am especially addressing parliamentarians, as on its way to Europe BiH needs great number of laws. They cannot be allowed to slow down their work four months before the elections just because of the forthcoming elections." Oslobodjenje cover splash, pg 3 'October is deadline for implementation of launched reforms' by M.K.S. - Priebe stated: "I do not understand why it is so hard to adopt such important laws such as laws on obligations, banking supervisions, medicines and other very important laws for this country's economy." Daily carries that RPM concluded that ICTY cooperation is runs with no significant difficulties, adding that this obligation remains as long as the Tribunal exist. RPM also noted progress in field of security. BHT1 - EC will assess the progress BiH has made in its annual report, which would be published in October and signing of the SAA would depend on this report. RHB, RTRS, Hayat, PINK, Dnevni List, pg 4 'Conclude negotiations by end of year', by E. | EC's Priebe: SAA could be suspended because of police reform; Daily: Priebe warns RS Mol Cadjo to return RS officials to PRD | Hayat - Reporting of the Reform Process Monitoring team meeting, all media noted the special concerns of the EC officials in regard to the implementation of the police reform. Hayat commented that the RS Interior Minister Stanislav Cadjo has also been in Sarajevo on Thursday, but was unavailable for the comment. Dnevni Avaz cover splash, pg 3 'Pre-elections campaign must not stop reforms' by T.Lazovic, inset 'RS must return to Steering Board' - Daily learns that EC's General Directorate for Enlargement Reinhardt Priebe warned Cadjo that RS Government must return to work of Police Reform Directorate [PRD] in its full capacity: "Experts should be allowed to finish the job according to the three established EU principles on police reform." FTV - "I'm not here to establish who is responsible. BiH has to carry out those reforms... When it comes to the police, it is clear that there is hesitation in RS, and there is no point in hiding this fact", Priebe told reporters. Hayat - Priebe stated: "EC has stressed it very clearly that in case the political agreement on police reform is questioned or if the work of Police Reform Directorate is continued to be obstructed, EC will consider suspending the signing of SAA". PINK- "I believe that all BiH structures of power showed readiness to implement the police reform. However, previous efforts are not satisfying. EC indicted clearly that the Police Reform Directorate and Steering Board of the Police Reform Directorate should continue with their work and that all members of the Directorate should participate in its work in full capacity", Director of the BiH Directorate of European Integrations Osman Topcagic. EuroBlic pg RS2 'Priebe: police reform worries us' by D. | BiH HoP Chair Milojevic writes CoM Chair Terzic expressing concerns over the police reform process                           | FTV - BiH House of Peoples Chair Goran Milojevic has sent a letter to the BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic, expressing concern over the process of police reform in BiH. Milojevic stressed that the police reform process in BiH was threatened by deeply-rooted disagreements over the harmonisation of the decision on establishment the Police Reform Directorate [PRD], with the regulations of the very agreement on police reform. HoP Chair asked Terzic to urgently bring this issue before the BiH CoM, since "the silence as an answer to serious remarks on PRD's modus operandi does not guarantee successful completion of this process; especially since the police reform is of a great importance for BiH, and for the completion of the talks on Stabilisation and Association Agreement with the European Union in particular," concluded Milojevic in a letter to CoM Chair Adnan Terzic. RTRS- BiH Foreign Affairs Minister Mladen Ivanic and BiH Security Minister Barisa Colak are informed about the content of the letter. Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Discordance in police reform are worrying' not signed, Dnevni List, pg 5 'Milojevic worried about police reform process', by NINA, Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 15 'Take police to 'workshop'', by B. | CoM establishes Sarajevo Commission with year mandate to gather information on murders, rapes, tortures, deportations, etc in all SA pre-war municipalities | BHT1 by Marina Martinovic – At its Thursday's session BiH Council of Ministers appointed members of the BiH Commission for Establishing the Truth about the Suffering of Serbs, Croats, Bosniaks, Jews and Others in Sarajevo, during the period between 1992 and 1995. The members of the Sarajevo Commission are Smail Cekic, Enes Pelidija, Amor Masovic, Ivica Marinovic, Anto Zelic, Mirko Prskalo, Zeljko Rasevic, Miroslav Jankovic, Dobrislav Planojevic and Danilo Nikolic . The main task of the Commission, which has a one-year mandate, is to establish the exact number of people killed in Sarajevo, in order to avoid any kind of manipulation with numbers. "As a representative of RS Association of Inmates, I can say that – according to our information – 5,436 civilians have been killed in Sarajevo", Branislav Dukic told BHT. CoM also suggested establishing of the state commission, which would investigate the suffering of all people in the whole country. FTV – The task of the Commission, which has a one-year mandate, is to collect information on mass and individual murders, mass and individual confinements, tortures in camps and prisons, rapes and sexual harassments, deportations, persecution and all other way of violating of international conventions in the area of all pre-war Sarajevo citizens. Hayat- Marinovic has been appointed as the first Chairman of the Commission while Deputies are Cekic and Rasovic. CoM suggested rotation on the chair at every four months, but left it up to the commission to decide. RHB, PINK, RTRS, Oslobodjenje pg 2, mentioned on cover 'Appointed members of Sarajevo commission' by A.T. , Dnevni Avaz pg 2 '10 members of Sarajevo Commission appointed' not signed , Dnevni List , pg 3 'All pre-requisites for continuation of work of Parliament created', by D. | SNM 'Choice is Ours' gathers 300 young people, asking for secession of the RS and referendum   | FTV - The Serb National Movement 'Choice is Ours' organized a rally on Friday in Banjaluka, demanding the referendum for secession of RS from BiH. According to FTV, approximately 300 persons – mostly secondary-school pupils and students – participated in carrying Serbian flags and posters saying 'This is Serbia' and 'Srpska above all', also singing "cetniks" songs. RHB - Deputy Head of the "Choice is ours", Dane Cankovic, is also a head of SPONA which launched an initiative to gather signatures for RS succession from BiH, claims they have managed to get more than 50.000 citizens to sign the initiative up to now. BHT1, RTRS, Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Chanting Serbia, Karadzic, Mladic and referendum' by Fena, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Praising Karadzic and Mladic, calling for secession from BiH' not signed - carried reports.   |
| DA op-ed: Although Banja Luka pro-referendum support was consequence of his 'opinion', RS PM Dodik did not react                                       | Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Where was Dodik yesterday?' op-ed by Edina Sarac - Commenting Thursday's protests in Banja Luka supporting referendum on separation of RS from BiH, organized by NGO SPONA, editorial questions: "Where was [RS Prime Minister Milorad] Dodik, proclaimed fighter for ICTY cooperation yesterday? ... He did not make public statement, although this happening was direct consequence of his 'opinion' on referendum for RS self-determination." Noting that it does not matter this is part of pre-elections' campaign, author stressing that it should have certain limits as well: "Fear is key pre-election's weapon in Dodik's hands, because, after all of his announcements, and now the meeting, it is not pleasant to be non-Serb in the RS." Sarac concludes that the referendum story is Dodik's wining card, which should secure him next four years of power.  |
| RS PM Dodik: I informed Russian Foreign Affairs Minister on demands of EC and int. organisations aiming at deprivation of RS of all of its competences | Vecernje Novosti pg 2 'Russia is protecting Srpska' by D. Vujanovic - In a short interview to Vecernje Novosti, RS PM Milorad Dodik said Russian Foreign Affairs Minister Sergei Lavrov supported the idea on abolishment of the High Representative's Bonn powers in next several months and added Lavrov told him the Russian Federation is dedicated to preservation of Dayton Peace Agreement, which means it strongly advocates for preservation of RS as an entity. Asked whether he had informed Lavrov on dangers that are jeopardising the existence of RS, Dodik replied: 'Of course. I informed him with various EC demands and various international organisations that are trying to turn RS into an empty shell by depriving it of all competences'. He reiterated his stance regarding the referendum and was asked to comment on HR's threat with a penalty if he [RS PM] fails to stop advocating for the referendum, upon which Dodik replied: 'I do not know what kind of a penalty he was talking about', and said he strongly supports everything he had said, including the statements on the referendum. |
| SDU leader Tokic invited OHR to impose sanctions against those who are advocating for RS referendum on secession                                       | Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'Present atmosphere reminds me on naiveté of BiH officials before the aggression', mentioned on cover 'BiH political situation is destabilised' by Lana Sinanovic - In an interview for daily, SDU leader Sejfudin Tokic invited OHR "to perform its duty and sanction all who are acting against sovereignty of our country." He claims that reason for such decision should be destabilisation of BiH, caused by frequent statements of RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik and other RS officials on referendum and inadequate response of International Community to this announcement. Tokic is of opinion that whole issue was not incidental statement of a political adventurer, stressing it represents intended project of Serbian nationalists and parties gathered around SDS and SNSD.   |
| GS op-ed by DSS's Kovacevic: BiH has future only as federal state  | Glas Srpske op-ed pg 5 'A wave of nationalism threatening' by Predrag Kovacevic [Note: author is the president of DSS party] - Kovacevic says BiH has the future only if it is organised as a federal state and any uniting of BiH, which would represent a violation of Dayton Peace Agreement, would bring new troubles and 'might lead to tragic events that occurred in 1992'. He emphasised RS must have all competences as any federal unit that exists in the world and, as such, RS would be a guarantee of BiH's statehood.   |

| Former RS PM Bukejlovic leaves SDS, joins DEPOS for upcoming elections                           | RTRS by Stela Jungic – Former RS Prime Minister Pero Bukejlovic left the SDS and joined DEPOS, explaining he would be DEPOS candidate for the position of the RS President or Serb Member of the BiH Presidency at the upcoming elections. Bukejlovic stressed that he was fighting against all kinds of corruption and crime and added that some SDS members were bothered with that. He believes present SDS methods and policies are not in like with the party's statute and goals. Bukejlovic reported that he pointed out to SDS Leader Dragan Cavic and SDS high-ranking officials to danger of such policy. Bukejlovic also reported that he could not make agreement and harmonize stances with the SDS officials and for that reason he left. DEPOS reported on Thursday that Bukejlovic accepted to candidate as DEPOS member for one of the highest positions at the upcoming elections. Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'Pero Bukejlovic will be DEPOS candidate at forthcoming elections' by Srna , Glas Srpske pg 5 'To elections with Bukejlovic' by D. Member of SDA Presidency Bakir Izetbegovic commented this is normal in pre-election time, rejecting to confirm the media speculations that he should be the holder of the SDA's list for the state level. Commenting speculations on "shaken relations" within the SDA, Izetbegovic said: "I saw what Adnan Terzic [Council of Ministers Chair] said, but he probably heard something on the field. I haven't noticed that there are special problems within the party." Denying that he is in dispute with SDA leader Sulejman Tihic , Izetbegovic said: "God forbid! Tihic is leader of my party," and added that he hasn't noticed that members of SDA, who haven't supported Tihic at the last Congress, are in less favorable position. Daily, concluded that it will be known whether the speculations on Tihic's "revenge" are truthful or not, after the cantonal list are completed [NOTE: May 14, Dnevni Avaz published that Tihic is trying to push party members loyal to him at the influential places and that his opponent at the last party's elections Elmir Jahic on the other side fights for the position in SDA by winning places in elections lists.] |

| Head of Srebrenica Municipality Malkic: Election lists in Srebrenica carry illegal streets' names along with those from 2002 | Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Streets are carrying names of criminals', mentioned on cover not signed - Srebrenica Municipality publicly protests against initial voters' list claiming they carry illegal names of the streets. Municipality claims lists carry names of streets determined right after the genocide in 1995, which have been written along with the names of the streets, changed back in 2002. Because of this, Head of Municipality Abdurahman Malkic is asking for this problem to be solved, otherwise he would suspend the support in all election related activities, which includes the boycott of election activities. Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'There are still streets in the CIPS data base, which offend the victims' by A.Malagic - Malkic told DA that names of streets include Karadzic's street, street of Greece Friendship, street of the Serb Liberators etc.  |
| Hayat: incident with Croat child and homework happened in September; why HDZ and Cardinal Puljic are reacting now?           | Hayat By Asim Beslija - Based on the writings of Croatian daily 'Vecernji List', reporter investigated the situation with a young Croatian student that was allegedly forced to attend religious classes on Islam at the Sixth Primary School in Sarajevo settlement Stup. According to the VL, "the student was forced to say that his God is Allah and that all Croats are Ustasas while attending the Islamic school which presents evidence on position of Croats in BiH" . Reporter says he discovered above-mentioned "incident" took place in September 2005, but because of the "political manipulation it was used in June 2006" . Director of abovementioned school [of Croat nationality] in a written statement [to Hayat] said this entire whole issue was politicized and taken out of the context. Beslija argues entire issue is used only as the political propaganda as surveyed Croats in Stup claim not to have problems with their neighbours of different ethnicity. Reporter added this issue was finalized for all but HDZ BiH and Cardinal Vinko Puljic who reacted nine months after it took place, and concludes by wondering why the reaction took this long. |

| RS Govt to publish tender for privatisation of RS Telekom in July; privatisation plan to be discussed by RSNA                                   | RTRS by Sandra Zrnic - At Thursday's session, the RS Government accepted the rebalance plan on business activities of the RS Telekom until 2008. Privatization plan for the RS Telekom will be sent to the RS National Assembly to discuss it on its following session. Tender for privatization of the RS Telekom will be probably announced early next month [July]. RS Minister of Traffic and Communication Nedeljko Cubrilovic stated that smaller investments in RS Telekom would not endanger the development concept of this company. "Rebalance of capital investments will not influence change of balance statement and total income in the amount of 342.740.000 KM and total expenditures in the amount of around 280 million KM will not change", said Cubrilovic. Commenting the statement by Hamdija Katica, BH Telekom Director, in which he said that the planned privatization price of the RS Telekom would endanger sale of BH Telekom and HT Mostar, Cubrilovic said that does not know on which information Katica based his statement. "If Mr. Katica is ready to give 1,5 billion KM for the RS Telekom, we are ready to negotiate with him", said Cubrilovic. RS Government believes that right now is the best moment for sale of the RS Telekom. RS Government decided to remind BiH Council of Ministers about the establishment of the air space control in Banja Luka since this should have been done in January. PINK, Hayat, Oslobođenje pg 13 'Market will set price of Telekom Srpske' not signed, Dnevni List, pg 4 'Conclude negotiations by end of year', by E. The Proposal was supported by the HDZ 1990 and SDS MPs, whilst SDA and SNSD MPs were against. (according to the Proposal, MPs will be entitled to big salaries and favourable pensions once they have retired, which caused many polemics in public)   |
| Daily: RSNA's top issue is law on rights of MPs entitling them to big salaries, pensions                                | Oslobodjenje pg 4-5 'Additional KM2.8 million for deputies' pensions' by O.Vukovic - Commenting the law proposal which regulates salaries, pensions and benefits of the MPs in RS National Assembly which caused "fuss" in the public, daily carries this issue was the "main subject" of all unofficial conversations in hallways of the RS National Assembly taking session Thursday. Some MPs have criticized the journalists for politicizing this issue and Head of SDS Caucus in the RSNA, Borislav Bojic, reminded journalists that 78 MPs signed the petition to pass this law. He also noted journalists aren't judges or prosecutors concluding there are more important issues in the RS then this one. Daily reminded that the proposal of the law would allow MPs to retire with 20 years of service and 55 years of age. At the same time, RS Finance Minister Aleksandar Dzombic, in name of the RS Government, stated this legislation is unacceptable, as it would be necessary to find additional 2.8 million KM for this.  |
