RS MPs boycott BiH HoR; Sarajevo Comm. update

RS MPs boycott BiH HoR session due to CoM's failure to establish Sarajevo Commission; FBiH MPs claims real reasons are different	Hayat - Session of the BiH House of Representatives scheduled for Thursday to discuss the VAT effects was not held as the RS representatives decided not to attend it due to the fact that the BiH Council of Ministers failed to establish the Sarajevo Commission. "The RS representatives came, but they do not want to attend the session until they are introduced with reasons as to why the BiH COM has not completed its work regarding the Commission", said HoR Deputy Speaker Nikola Spiric. "The CoM has absolutely no responsibility for today's [Thursday] situation and Mr Spiric, in his speculative way, uses information so to make it looks like the CoM is responsible for it", commented BiH CoM Chair Adnan Terzic. He explained that the BiH CoM has approved establishing of the Commission members on time. The FBiH representatives criticized their RS colleagues, saying that they are responsible for delays in the work of the key institution of the authority. MP of RS Socialist Party Thomir Gligoric said the Sarajevo Commission should be established as soon as possible. "It is obvious that we are faced with a serious campaign, which started with the issue of RS secession, blockade in numerous reform process, etc", said MP in BiH HoR REImir Jahic. BHT1- Terzic claims the real reasons for boycott of BiH HoR have nothing to do with the establishment of the Sarajevo Commission. RS deputies believe Terzic is responsible for failure of governments to submit the candidate lists on time, because he has not expressed enough interest. Gligoric said that Terzic didn't even make a single phone call to entity Prime Ministers, which clearly shows that he wasn't interested in solving of this problem. Most BiH HoR deputies believe the boycott by RS deputies is a tool in the service of the election campaign and an attempt of destabilisation of the state. SDA demands from OHR and PIC to prevent the blockade of state institutions by RS politicians. FTV - SBiH MP Beriz Belkic said that no issue or problem could be a reason for stopping the work Inset 'Boycott because of VAT'- Council of Minister Chair Adnan Terzic concluded that one of the reasons for the blockade of the BiH Parliament is the content of the information which should have been discussed – on effects of VAT considering that some, as BiH HoR Co-Chair Nikola Spiric have asked "for differentiated rate". "CoM isn't nor can be responsible for the current situation as is alleged", said Terzic. Inset 'Blackmails are anti-constitutional activity'- Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Serbs failed to appear in parliament' by H.Orahovac – Before he would leave the Parliament, the BiH HoR Chair Martin Raguz asked Spiric to stay and hear explanation that he and Terzic gave, but Spiric ignored this and left. "I am convinced that there are no procedural reasons because of which the session couldn't be held. I will repeat again that responsibility for this position, in which BiH HoR is brought to should be taken by those that aren't present here," said Raguz.

Debate on referendum initiative

FBiH HoR submits	BHT1 - The Speaker of the FBiH House of Representatives, Muhamed Declaration urging	Ibrahimovic, submitted the Declaration on anti-constitutional activities and sanctions against RS	attempts for destruction of state sovereignty and territorial integrity to the BiH PM Dodik and SNSD to	Central Election Commission (CEC), OHR, OSCE and BiH Presidency. This Election Comm, OHR,	Declaration was adopted at Wednesday's session of FBiH HoR, as response to OSCE, BiH Presidency	the statements of RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik on referendum on status of
	RS. The Declaration demands from BiH CEC to penalize Dodik and his party (SNSD) for insisting on referendum on separation of RS from BiH. SNSD deputies in FBiH Parliament condemned the Declaration, claiming that it is not based on arguments. SNSD deputy Velimir Kunic stated that the FBiH HoR has overstepped the legislative framework of its authority and started to deal with daily political needs and interests of certain political parties and individuals, which is a true sign that the election campaign has started. Hayat – Kunic claims that neither SNSD nor Dodik have ever supported idea on RS' secession and that the only thing they did was to state their opinion on referendum without saying that it was going to take place. "The issue of referendum has gained unnecessary political dimensions and connotations which are being abused in terms of daily politics", says Kunic. SNSD members claim both the party and its leader have not violated of the provisions under the BiH Election Law. FTV - Kunic argued that expressing one's opinion is not an anti-Dayton act: "We said what we think about referendum, but we didn't say that we would organise a referendum. These are two different things." He stressed that SNSD's opinion on referendum is a reaction to demands for abolishment of RS.
	SNSD deputy Dragan Puzigaca stated that Dodik's statements have been misinterpreted, adding that the demands for reaction by HR are not based on arguments. RTRS- SDA deputy Semsudin Mehmedovic reminds that the Declaration demanded from the OHR and BIH CEC to penalize anti-Dayton activities of certain political circles in RS. Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Ibrahimovic take Declaration seriously	FTV- Commenting the Declaration adopted by FBiH House of Representatives which urges for sanctions against him, the RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik stated he didn't take it seriously adding that while the High Representative is entitled to take decision on issues regarding the Dayton Peace Agreement, this case was not of such nature. Dodik stressed this case was only a matter of freedom of speech. RTRS – SNSD stance is that referendum is a response to those parties who want RS to be abolished. "If there are any actions by OHR and Election Commission, it would only mean that they are under the influence of politics from Sarajevo" , says Dodik. Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Dodik: Declaration is a result of pursuit in F BiH' by V.Popovic, Glas Srpske pg 3 'Declaration of city gossip' by Z.Markovic , EuroBlic RSpg 3, announced on cover 'Dodik: I do not worry too much' by Rajna Radosavljevic , Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'One must not be influenced by politics lead in Sarajevo' by Srna – also carried Dodik.

	FTV- President of the BiH Central Election Commission (CEC) Branko Petric stated that the Declaration passed by the FBiH HoR was not relevant for the CEC. He explained all parties and candidates registered for the elections must sign a statement stating they are not to violate the Dayton Peace Agreement. However, said Petric, the Election Law didn't determine which institution should monitor implementation of this statement, investigate cases of possible violations and impose sanctions in case something like this occurs. Petric also added the law fails to even indicate which acts can be considered anti-Dayton acts. RTRS – Petric stated that the CEC members addressed the issue and concluded that SNSD is verified for elections in accordance with the law. Hayat – Any violation of the Dayton Peace Agreement has so far been penalized by the HR to BiH. Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Pressure has no legal basis', Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Dodik and SNSD will not be penalized' by M.K.S. – also carried Petric.

	aggression, Slobodan Milosevic is dead, JNA [Yugoslav People's Army] fell "peculiar"	apart, and thought of Greater Serbia ended in dump of history where it belongs, for it was grounded on ideology of blood and evil. This country today has institutional possibilities to defend itself from such attacks and every similar effort would be prevented. Every further discussion on referendum only damages BiH and deviates from its European path It is time for responsible politics. Sharp language, recently used by most politicians, cannot bring any profit, before all not to BiH citizens." Terzic noted the time would show that some political parties from Sarajevo still supporting Dodik's Government, did not make a good choice: "I have to admit that such support is product of group of people, not party's [SDA] bodies." Inset 'Peculiar behaviour of OHR' – Noting P.Klincov – Sulejman Tihic, SDA President, stated on Thursday [without referendum story	unnecessary level of attention to the statements related to possible referendum in RS, adding the cause for current developments is the failure to adopt constitutional changes in the BiH Parliament and activities related to the so called Patriotic Block led by Party for BiH. Tihic said: "If constitutional changes had been adopted, these sorts of situation could not have happened. The stories that changes to Constitution would facilitate secession are ungrounded.

	As no abolishment of RS can be voted at referendum, so its session can be voted either." He reiterated he views all statements and initiative on possible referendum unserious and haste. He also said that future support to RS Government will depend on results of its work, but also statements RS Premier, Milorad Dodik, gives, noting: "It does not mean we have withdrawn support to Tihomir Gligoric from SP RS, stated: "We should think of a message voiced Inset 'Police reform is precondition for EU' – Underlining that the police reform is the key precondition for signing Stabilisation and Association Agreement [SAA], Terzic said: "Tactics of RS politicians is to involve Europe again in political talks on police reform. But political talks are finished long time ago, and on that basis we started the SAA talks What is going on now is strong political pressure on experts and yet another proof that police must be reformed in a way that politicians cannot run the process."

RS Government and RSNA mark 100 days; RS PM Dodik: none Government had such good results in 100 days	RTRS by Sinisa Mihailovic – RS Government marked its 100 th working day. RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik stated that none of the Governments so far had such good results in the first 100 days. He stated that audit of privatisation and adoption of new laws and regulations related to fight against organised crime are of great significance for the work of RS Government. Dodik stressed that among many good things his special pleasure is directed at the announced "slaughter" of negative regulations. "We will eliminate all regulations that might create problems to business community", says Dodik. SDS representatives on the other hand do not share Dodik's enthusiasm. RS President Dragan Cavic stated that the most important thing is that key political parties in RS are united. RS National Assembly Speaker Igor Radojicic also marked RS NA 100 th working day. He stressed that RS NA is working more efficiently and communicates better with citizens and NGOs, Trade Unions and Associations. Former RS NA Speaker Dusan Stojicic disagrees. He feels that Radojicic is favouring Dodik in RS NA benches. Reporter comments that pre-election campaigns are about to start which will show the relations between position and opposition. Ljubic further notes that out of 18 parties with Croat prefix, there are three blocks of Croat parties (NB : one led by HDZ BiH, one by HSP Djapic-Jurisic and NHI and one by HDZ 1990) that could go together in the elections and in the same time Ljubic says the number could go down to two blocks, which is his personal wish in order to prevent squandering of the Croat votes, especially when it comes to the election of Croat member of BiH Presidency. Asked whether he is in contacts with some Serb and Bosniak parties about forming of possible coalitions, Ljubic says there are no such talks, however the party is ready for cooperation with any party that acknowledge BiH as their state and support equality of peoples in BiH. He noted: "When two agree against the third, it is evident there is a problem in Bosnia, it is an invitation, it is a war" He also commented the disputable poem published by a Sarajevo high school and which insults Jesus Christ (which was condemned by Catholic and Orthodox Church). Ceric noted that one should be asking for an apology from the author of the 'The Da Vinci Code', Dan Brown , because the poem was inspired by Brown's book. NN op-ed by PDHR Butler: reasonable politics means reasonable salaries for parliamentarians	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Pensioners ahead of politicians' by Lawrence Butler – Writing the op-ed, the PDHR Butler notes that there are finally signs showing BiH economy has headed upwards (some of indicators are increasing investments and tax incomes, Moody's rating, opening of new posts). According to him, it is an imperative for the political leadership not to waste opportunities surfacing, stressing they must ensure they are developed and heading towards sustainable prosperity. The author is also critical of the intention of BiH parliamentarians to increase their salaries and other benefits (which would provide them higher pensions than for average citizens), concluding that reasonable policy equates with reasonable wages for parliamentarians. He also urges the Finance Ministry to complete preparations for the adoption of the Law on wages in BiH institutions.

BHT1 by Svjetlana Todorovic – Council of Europe issued its latest report on illegal CIA arrests and transport of prisoners suspected of terrorism in several European countries. The report mentions BiH as one of these countries, and the Chair of BiH Council of Minister Adnan Terzic has acknowledged the importance of solving the problem of "Algerian group" already in 2005 [in 2002, six Algerians living in BiH were accused of plotting an attack on the U.S. Embassy in Sarajevo. No evidence of the alleged plot was made public, and competent BiH court dismissed the charges and ordered the men are to be released, however they were taken to Guantanamo]. The report also notes that, despite of all adopted resolutions and promises, the initiative to free "Algerian group" hasn't yet been launched. Commenting the report, Terzic said that the report mentions his name only because he takes seriously BiH's full membership in CoE. He also stressed that the letter he sent to the US State Secretary Condoleezza Rice calls for release of "Algerian Group" members, who are also BiH citizens. He added that was all he was able to do within his authorities. Terzic explained that BiH Presidency must make further steps. Chair of BiH Presidency Sulejman Tihic on the other hand claims the Presidency couldn't make any steps without the official stance of BiH CoM. Neither Terzic nor Tihic wanted to comment the speculations on possible illegal flights over BiH. BiH Ministry of Security refused to comment the CoE report, claiming that the Ministry has not yet received the report. Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Algerian group
