SDU Tokic accuses IC, Serbia of working against BiH	Dnevni Avaz cover splash 'International circles are working with Serbia against BiH', pg 2 'Tokic: Tihic's compliments to Dodik are unexplainable' by L.Sinanovic - SDU leader Sejfudin Tokic stated that BiH is in the deepest crisis since Dayton Agreement, considering the constant disputes of its statehood. Commenting the "vicious map" published by the London Times [according to which the European in 2020 would have about 20 new states, including Herceg Bosna and the RS, but without BiH], Tokic said: "It is obvious that this is about synchronization of moves of certain international circles with nationalistic political structures of Serbia and RS" , adding that this is a reason why reform processes are in delay. Tokic added he doesn't understand why there is no appropriate reaction, and underlined his party has asked from the SDA and SBiH to withdrawn support to current RS Government. Inset 'Crisis and disorientation in the SDA'- "Compliments that in last few days [SDA leader Sulejman] Tihic gave to the RS Government and entirely opposite warnings by the Prime Minister Adnan Terzic that this same Government has blocked reforms in BiH, demonstrate the depth of a crisis insideSDA" said Tokic. Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Sulejman Tihic lost a state compass' not signed – also carries SDU's criticism of SDA leadership.

Comments on RS PM	Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Kadric: Support to Dodik should be withdrawn immediately' by A.Malagic- Commenting a statement of the BiH Council of Ministers Chair, Adnan Terzic, given to Sarajevo daily Dnevni Avaz on 4 June [for more details of him	see BiH Round-up June 4] in which he said that the support to the RS Government lead by Milorad Dodik should be withdrawn immediately since all the reforms have been delayed since the establishment, the Chair of RS Council of Peoples and member of SBiH Remzija Kadric said that he support this initiative adding that he was against Dodik's Government from the beginning.
	SDA Presidency member Sadik Ahmetovic said that he warned about Dodik obstructing reforms on several occasions. "There is a some more time until his mandate expires and what we can do at this moment is to talk to RS PM and if there are no signs that he would change his current arrogant stance toward the reforms we should also reexamine our stance toward him" said Ahmetovic. SDP' deputy in RSNA Zekerijah Osmic said that it is disgrace that SDA and SBiH Ministers are still in that Government. NHI' Dobrica Jonjic said that Dodik's statements are 'complete nonsense', but that he 'wouldn't like to get involved into personal disputes of Terzic and Dodik'.

	Expansion Commissioner, he has demanded that proposals coming from RS are also analysed. According to him, the essence of those proposals is that police reform includes transfer of some serious criminal acts onto SIPA, while general security of citizens should remain under entities' jurisdiction. He also commented that all international institutions in BiH must finally take an equal stance towards everybody in BiH and to warn those demanding abolishment of RS equally as RS warned over referendum statements. He said: " If such pressures continue and politicians from Sarajevo keep talking RS is a genocide issues, especially police reform. He has also said that BiH must be a state at the measure of all its citizens, or otherwise RS should secede, adding that if international community allows secession of Kosovo, RS will have a right to independence as well, adding: "The orchestrated assaults against RS demanding abolishment of RS were made by F BiH following statement of RS PM Dodik on referendum, but international representatives have not condemned it." He is of the view that IC must have equal standards fir all in BiH, adding it should also equally sanction those demanding abolishment of RS.

	He has also said that Police Reform Directorate is working illegally and in line of outvoting principle. He also criticised RS Mol for having failed to identify perpetrators of numerous murder cases in RS.

Asked to comment on the process of constitutional changes in BiH, Ivankovic says the changes should foresee strengthening of state authorities and reduction of the oversized administration in BiH. He insists that the Constitution is the fundamental document, in which the citizenry should have a bigger say, explaining that political leaders should reach a consensus and come up with a referendum question to the citizens as to what kind of BiH the citizenry want.

"If going to the Europe means abolishment of RS then we'll say a good bye Europe," said Dodik. GS op-ed supportive of RS PM's statement on referendum	Glas Srpske op-ed pg 2 'Signs through political life' by Tomo Maric – Writing about the recent statement of Milorad Dodik , RS Premier, regarding referendum, the author notes that Dodik has noted referendum is crown of democracy and that people of RS will not run from it in protecting its interests when the time comes. The author says that speaking of referendum, Premier Dodik has chosen future between future and past, showing political determination and courage not seen so far and which most of the Serb politicians so far did not have. world	Glas Srpske op-ed pg 4 'Beyond the entire world' by Boro Maric - Commenting onrecent statement EU High Representative for the Common Foreign and Security Policy Javier Solana gave following RS PM's Milorad Dodik statement on referendum (Solana said that " International Community has a clear stance: Dayton Agreement recognized BiH as sovereign and independent state. RS is part of that state, which is also clearly defined by DPA" ), the author raises the issue as if RS is obligated to behave within constitutional framework, the others are also obligated to act instead of constantly changing the DPA. The author notes the DPA has been changed through many reforms and is still being changed through police reform. The author notes that while autonomy options are being strengthened in other parts of the world (like Flandreau in Belgium , Catalonia and Basque in Spain ), it is being suppressed in RS and F BiH.
HDZ concerned with election of Croat Presidency member	Oslobodjenje pg 8 'Croats are electing member of the presidency alone' by A.O. - After 12 parties announced that they would nominate their candidate for a Croat member of the BiH Presidency, high-ranking HDZ officials met with the Apostolic Nuncio Alessandro D'Errico to share their concern with the Vatican. D'Errico didn't want to talk about details of the meeting and told daily that he "has nothing to add to what was already published in the media" . According to Central Election Commission, parties that nominated their candidates for a Croat member of the Presidency are SBiH, SDP, HDZ, BOSS, HNZ, SDA, Radom za Boljitak, SDU, HSP Djapic-Jurisic, HDZ 1990, Croat Block and independent candidate Irena Javor Korjenic. Member of HDZ Presidency Marinko Cavara said that problem is not in the party that the candidate comes from, but in who is voting for him. "And then it is the question whether it is good for BiH if one people elects two members of the Presidency. That is dangerous for Serbs as well" said Cavara.

downtown	RS National Assembly, Zekerijah Osmic, commented a planned construction of Croat and Bosniak monuments in Brcko District stating that the discussions on this remind of the pre-war atmosphere when SDS offered Bosniaks to move to a certain part of the town left of river Brka, so that Serbs could get the centre of the city. "The Law on monuments and symbols of Brcko District foresees placing of monuments on the location between Sava' Mosque and Catholic Church, the area that genocidal SDS in Brcko intended only for Serbs" said Osmic further noting that the Chair of Brcko Assembly, Milan Tomic , is against the construction thus obstructing the process. Osmic further claims that the process of ghettoizing and division of Brcko continues, noting that this has been demonstrated by the allocation of the property in Brcko downtown only to Serbs and preventing any others. At the end, Osmic warns BD Assembly, major Mirsad Dzapo, OHR and Supervisor Susan Johnson to prevent the started process of ghettoizing and division of Brcko. RTRS - Croat and Bosniak Brcko on high education law	Dnevni List , pg 7 'No agreement on higher education?!', by T. C. – Member of the working commission that harmonized the working version of the Draft law on higher education, Mirko Banjac , believes the BiH Ministry of Civil Affairs changed the provision of the Draft law related to the accreditation of higher education institutions in an illegal manner. According to Banjac, the initial agreement was that the Agency for development of higher education that is to be formed at the state level is to control the application of European standards in the area of higher education, whilst the accreditation would remain at the entity level, which was changed by the Ministry, which vested the said authorities in the Agency.

expect Law on Higher	Hayat by Semsudin Skejic – Last week, BiH Council of Ministers has finally adopted the Law on Higher Education; however, Ministers of Serb nationality voted against the proposal due to disagreement over the future Agency for licensing and accreditation. At the same time, Sarajevo Cantonal Assembly failed to pass the Law on Higher Education, because Croat Caucus launched a vital national interest procedure. The guest of the news, Rector of Sarajevo University professor Hasan Muratovic , commented he does not expect Law on Higher Education to be adopted in the BiH Parliament, "because there are certain political forces in BiH that do not want any kind of institutions on a state level. I don't think that [RS Prime Minister Milorad] Dodik 's Government will allow strengthening of any state institution". Muratovic explained that the Law on Higher Education would help students who graduate on some of BiH universities to be 'competitive'; Universities would have to work on the basis of Bologna Declaration, which would shorten the studies, and make them much easier for students. Muratovic accused authorities on all levels for not being ready to accept the autonomy of universities, because authorities want to govern universities and faculties, as well as funds intended for those educational institutions. Asked to say if there is any kind of penalty for university professors who print their own mimeographed notes and sell them to students for 30 or 40 KM, Muratovic said that those professors would have to face Ethics Committee, but only if somebody denounces them.

Asked what would happen to the HTV Mostar (Hercegovacka TV, whose status is being contested by Bosniak councillors in City Council), Lasic insists the HTV Mostar will not be shut down, adding that his party is trying to find a model that would enable the survival of the TV outlet. Asked to comment on speculations that the Old Town in Mostar could lose its protected status in UNESCO, Lasic notes one should not allow it to happen, however he warns of several issues, such a return of pre-war users to business premises in Old Town and garbage disposal in the city.

Head of this Commission Zeljko Obradovic stated that when the maps prepared in line with the agreement were supposed to be signed, SiCG refused to do so forwarding a request for correction of the borders. Sead Avdic , BiH House of Representatives (HoR) delegate, stated that the request was received in 2004 which stressed a need for revision of the annexes to the agreement. "Nevertheless, the negotiations must be resumed no matter how painful this issue seems to be" added Avdic. According to the reporter, the annexes included the correction of the borderline for 50 km <sup>2</sup> in BiH territory. Mladen Potocnik , BIH HoR delegate, stated that BiH officials couldn't reach the agreement on the issue. "Unfortunately, this situation pleased some of the politicians that enjoyed watching BiH losing its money and energy" added Potocnik. On the other side, Obradovic said that BIH team of experts had reached the agreement but the misunderstandings occurred during the negotiations with SiCG within the Commission. Reporter stated that Montenegrin independence would mainly affect this issue adding that the political trading should be excluded as the option.
