PRD SB Chairman Dumancic: SB will keep working professionally	RHB – Following the session of the Police Reform Directorate Steering Board which failed to reach a consensus on future model of organization of police forces in BiH but instead adopted an opinion according to which the police would be organized at two levels, PRD SB Chairman, Vinko Dumancic , stated for RHB: "In any case we will move on, we will act as professionals, the Steering Board of the Police Reform Directorate will keep doing its job. I know that certain political structures will not be pleased, however we have been appointed in accordance with a decision of the BiH Council of Ministers and we will work" .
BH Foreign Minister expresses concern over call-off of EU talks with SiCG on SAA	RTRS – Mladen Ivanic , BH Foreign Minister, has expressed concern over call-off of EU talks with SiCG on SAA, because this opens, as he said "doors for deeper crisis, that is not desirable at this moment" . Being a guest at Greek state TV in Thessalonica [where he attends SEECF summit], Ivanic stressed that any extreme solution for Kosovo and Metohija would not be good, adding: "Any long-term solution must have assent of Belgrade and Pristina." Ivanic also said that EU has been making promises for a long time now that it would introduce visa relaxations to SEE countries, while the real life sees the opposite of this, since the way in which citizens get visas is getting harder and harder every day.

PRD Steering Board adopts opinion on future joint police: organization at two levels, state and local; state competence over legislation, budget; local level not defined	RTRS late news broadcast by Momcilo Ostojic – The Steering Board of the Police Reform Directorate [PRD SB] ended its session late Wednesday night, after 10-hour session, without reaching a consensus on future model of BiH police structures due to the objections of PRD SB members from the RS. Instead of a decision, the PRD SB voted and subsequently adopted an opinion on the module of future joint police structure in BiH. Under this opinion, police structure would be organised at two levels, state and local, while the state would have sole competencies for legislation and budget. The Board Chair Vinko Dumancic stated that the authorities of the local level have not yet been determined, i.e. whether the local level would be entity, canton or any other area. He said after the session that certain political structures will not be pleased that the Board decided to adopt the opinion but added they were guided by three EU principles of state competencies for police legislation and budget, organization on the basis of technical criteria and a system protecting police from political interference. Oslobodjenje pg 5 ‘Instead of decision, adopted opinion on police structure in BiH’ by Az.Kalamujic Inset ‘No agreement on number or definition of police regions’ – Dumancic stated that PRD SB did not discuss either number or a definition of the local police region. He also confirmed the police regions would be proposing a budget, which would than be adopted at the state level. The adopted opinion will be forwarded to the PRD executive body in charge of drafting relevant legislation. The next session of PRD Steering Board is scheduled for May 24. Police restructuring is one of the pre-conditions for signing of the Stabilisation and Association Agreement with the EU. BHT1 late news, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 ‘Opinion on model of BiH police structure passed’ by E.Sarac, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 ‘Two regions in RS’, announced on cover ‘Proposal that RS is divided into two police regions’ by D.Risojevic also reported.
Media: Acting RS Police Director Smajlovic voted against opinion, SIPA’s Novic abstained	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 ‘Opinion on model of BiH police structure passed’ by E.Sarac – DA learns that seven members where in favor of the Opinion, while RS official Nijaz Smajlovic voted against it and the SIPA Director Sredoje Novic abstained from voting. Daily learns EUPM Commissioner prepared compromise plan on police regions: RS would be divided in 2 regions, Sarajevo with have special status	Nezavisne Novine pg 2 ‘Two regions in RS’, announced on cover ‘Proposal that RS is divided into two police regions’ by D.Risojevic – Daily learns from highly positioned official of the international community that the IC has prepared a compromise plan for territorial organisation of police, according to which RS would be divided into two police regions. Source from diplomatic core claims that the plan has already been presented to the RS top officials and was allegedly approved by them. The EUPM Commissioner Vincenzo Coppola is mentioned as the author of the plan regarded as one of possible solutions for territorial organisation of police. Source adds: “While RS would be divided into two police regions one east and one west, the status of Sarajevo would be specially defined. The regions would not be crossing IEBL, bar Sarajevo case and perhaps some other locations, where it would be necessary owing to functionality of police.”

PRD SB Chair Dumancic: decision would not be voted without consensus	PINK, Glas Srpske cover pg splash 'No decision without consensus' by Z.Domazet, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'To solution via consensus', announced on cover 'Dumancic: To solution via consensus' by M.C., EuroBlic RSpG 2 'No progress' by R.Radosavljevic/D.Stanisic – Prior to the Wednesday's session of the Police Reform Directorate Steering Board [PRD SB] in Sarajevo, PRD SB Chair Vinko Dumancic stated that the decision would not be voted without the consensus. RHB – FBiH Police Director Zlatko Miletic told journalists that there was an effort to reach a consensus on certain issues. Miletic added the PRDS SB members from FBiH were willing to bring decision while RS members disagreed with single police structure, as it was defined at previous SB's session held on April 26. BHT1 by Mirela Cosic – Most SB members agreed with establishing single police authority with a single budget on the state level, regulated by the common law. However, RS representatives in the strongly opposed this proposal. RTRS by Branka Kusmuk – EUPM Commissioner Vinzenzo Coppola is also in favour of decision made by consensus. Reporter comments that during the session break, the Board members were given the letter by the HR Christian Schwarz Schilling who reminded them of three EC principles, but also the letter by the RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik who repeated his dissatisfaction with the way members of the PRD SB are appointed and stressed the importance of decision making through consensus. The members of SB from F BiH reject this solution. Glas Srpske cover pg splash 'No decision without consensus' by Z.Domazet – Milenko Milicevic, Brcko District Police Chief, has stated that he would support a single Law on Police, adding when discussions on technical principles and regions are on agenda, he will maintain his stance (i.e. that Brcko District should maintain territorial organisation).
Daily: RS would not be pleased with adoption of opinion	Oslobodjenje pg 5 'Instead of decision, adopted opinion on police structure in BiH' by Az.Kalamujic – Commenting the fact that the PRD has adopt the opinion on future police structure instead of the decision, article notes "the fact that opinion on police structuring model was adopted against the will of RS representatives would not please RS officials."

Members of RS NA Board for Defence and Security: RSNA to discuss police reform, Board deems Agreement on restructuring is violated	RTRS by Momcilo Ostojic – Members of the RS National Assembly Board for Defence and Security issues held a session on Wednesday prior to the session of the PRD Steering Board concluding that the RSNA deputies must be briefed about the course of the police reform especially since they Board deems that the Agreement on police restructuring in BiH adopted in September 2005 has been violated. The RS National Assembly is expected to discuss the issue on 10 and 11 May. The Chair of RS NA Board Velimir Sakan stressed any document reached without consensus would not be accepted in RS NA. The RS NA Speaker Igor Radojicic feel that opposed stances of FBiH and RS representatives on police reform does not necessarily mean that police reform is being obstructed. The SDS Chair and the RS President Dragan Cavic stressed every solution includes preserving the RS Police is acceptable for the party. “Police regions that cross inter entity lines are not acceptable for SDS,” emphasises Cavic. Chair of the RSNA SDA Caucus Tarik Sadovic on the other hand says that SDA does not support the survival of RS Police. Doris Pack: I believe BiH politicians would agree on PBS Law and police reform	Dnevni Avaz cover splash and pg 5 ‘There would be no sanctions for BiH’ by Nadja Diklic– In interview for DA, Chair of EP’s Delegation for South-Eastern Europe Doris Pack stated that EU would not change standards for BiH and that failure to carry out any of 16 conditions from the Feasibility Study will result in calling off SAA talks with EU. Pack stressed that IC pays special attention to police reform and passing of the Law on PBS. Asked what if consensus is not reached on these issues, Pack said: “Failure to fulfil these standards could endanger BiH’s European future. When it comes to that we will not cut any slacks. We expect these issues to be solved, agreed and signed at the end of negotiations...”. Commenting on police reform, Pack expressed her belief BiH authorities would find compromise, adding that solution is hiding in three EC principles passed by BiH parliaments. “Prime Minister Milorad Dodik agreed with that as well, but I still think that his proposal to exempt budget is not possible”, said Pack adding that RS and FBiH would find the solutions. BHT1 – Pack stated that the police reform in BiH means establishing of state police authority that can act fully independently. In this way, explained Pack, any kind of political influence or ethnic domination can be avoided. 	EU calls off SAA talks with SCG
EU calls off SAA talks with SCG, says this would not have consequences for negotiations with BiH	BHT1 Elvir Bucalo – The European Union has called off talks on closer ties with Serbia because of its failure to arrest war crimes suspect Ratko Mladic. The EU enlargement commissioner, Olli Rehn, made the announcement after consulting the ICTY Chief Prosecutor Carla del Ponte. The deadline set by the EU for Mladic's arrest expired on Sunday. Rehn stated in Brussels that the EC has decided to postpone negotiations on SAA with Serbia and Montenegro because Belgrade still had not achieved a full cooperation with the Hague Tribunal. Rehn expressed his disappointment over the fact that SCG didn't manage to fulfill its obligations and fully cooperate with ICTY. He added that the Commission is ready to resume talks as soon as SCG meets the obligations under the full cooperation with the ICTY: "Serbia must show that nobody is above the law and that all indictees are going to face the justice". Nicholas Whyte from the International Crisis Group stressed that this issue can't be negotiated. EC officials agree that the suspension of negotiations with SCG won't have any direct consequences for negotiations with BiH. However, nobody denied possible indirect consequences. Doris Pack: there is no possibility for BiH's negotiations with the EU to be suspended because of ICTY cooperation	Dnevni Avaz cover splash and pg 5 'There would be no sanctions for BiH' by Nadja Diklic - Asked if BiH could end as SCG [i.e. that negotiations on SAA are called off over ICTY cooperation] Chair of EP's Delegation for South-Eastern Europe Doris Pack said: "I believe that there is a political will in BiH for this issue with the ICTY to be solved once-and-for-all...In BiH, there is still no possibility for lack of cooperation with the ICTY to lead to suspension of talks on signing of the SAA, because situations in your state and neighboring one differ."
EU suspended negotiations with the SCG; General Weber deems that RS and BiH authorities are doing the best they can	Oslobodjenje cover splash and pgs 4-5 'EU suspended negotiations with Belgrade' by Branislav Boskov - Inset 'General Weber disappointed with SCG relation' by A.P. - Commander of NATO HQ in Sarajevo Brigadier General Louis Weber stated for daily that he is disappointed with the fact that SCG authorities haven't arrested Ratko Mladic until the deadline. "Naturally the situation is not positive. We have to overstep this chapter and close it. Peoples of BiH are prevented from proceeding on their way toward progress by that...International Community hoped that Mladic would finally be extradited to The Hague. However, those responsible haven't accomplished that..." said Weber. Commenting on the cooperation of the RS after Milorad Dodik became the Prime Minister, Weber said: "Overall, considering the situation it can be said that everybody is doing the best they can in order to solve the issue" .
DA op-ed: RS uses warning from Brussels used to gain support; DL op-ed: It is clear destiny of Serbia depends on arrest of Mladic	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Why is Cavic worried by messages from Brussels' op-ed by Lana Sinanovic - Commenting the decision of the EU to suspend SAA talks with the SCG, Sinanovic comments that also open an issue whether BiH would also be punished. Author notes the RS President Dragan Cavic is aware of this and therefore rushed to warn that RS authorities should pay special attention to cooperation with the ICTY. Sinanovic comments that this is now used as mean for gaining of political points, considering that indictees could have been arrested, while BiH can now only wait to Europe's reaction. Dnevni List pg 2 'Suspension of negotiations' by D. Kozina comments on suspension of EU negotiations on SAA with SCiG and the author says: 'Perhaps, after such harsh stand of the EU, Serbs would take their task seriously and finally arrest Ratko Mladic since it has become completely clear that destiny of Serbia depends on him.'

Meeting of BiH and EU parliamentary delegations ends in Banja Luka	RTRS by Biljana Knezevic – Meeting of BiH and EU Parliament delegations ended in Banja Luka on Wednesday. BiH and EU Parliamentarians called upon concrete progress towards legislative framework and administrative capacity in BiH as well as full implementation of police reform and cooperation with ICTY. Chief of EU Parliament delegation Doris Pack stressed that police reform is no longer an issue since in her opinion support for it exists. EU parliamentarians on the other hand stressed the importance of ICTY cooperation for BiH. EU parliamentarians are encouraging BiH to continue ICTY cooperation as well as BiH politicians to continue negotiations on constitutional amendments. They feel that constitutional amendments and law on high education should speed up BiH's path towards the EU. They also pledged support to better visa regime for BiH. Ambassador Rycroft: it is possible to annul election results as Dayton Agreement is not in accordance with EU Convention on Human Rights	Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Elections could be invalid' by S.Numanovic- UK Ambassador to BiH Matthew Rycroft said to DA that there is a chance for results of the upcoming elections [to be scheduled on May 4] to be challenged through an appeal submitted to the European Court for Human Rights. "Considering that BiH is member of Council of Europe and that Protocol 12 VE emphasizes that Dayton Agreement is not in accordance with the European Convention on Human Rights it is possible for someone to show up and asks for the opinion of highest legal authorities" said Rycroft, adding that this is why Venice Commission has supported the constitutional reform. Ambassador stressed that hence it is possible for the BiH Court or the European Court for Human Rights to simply annul the election results. "It is up to leaders of the parties and BiH Parliament to decide what would happen. Personally, I hope it is possible to preserve as much of the package that was before the MPs. It is not perfect, but it is a few step ahead the current status," said Rycroft.

Peric explained that other reports would be passed in few days and submit all to the BiH Parliament.
SDHR Bas-Backer: Serbs have the right to be informed about destiny of Serbs from SA	Hayat by Igor Pozgaj (ATV) - SDHR to BiH Peter Bas-Backer visited Banja Luka on Wednesday, where he told the RS officials that he supported them in investigating destiny of missing Serbs from Sarajevo. FBiH Government has to implement BiH Constitutional Court's decisions, said Bas-Becker. He expects the FBiH Government to solve the issue as soon as possible. "We have to see that the Commission is established and that the job is done; Serbs have been waiting for that to happen for a long period of time; they have the right to be informed about destiny of their beloved ones", said Bas-Backer. Unless the issue is to start being solved by the end of May, families of the missing Serbs are going to organize protest in front of the OHR building. RTRS also carries SDHR's statement that the FBiH must respect the decision and form a Commission for missing Sarajevo Serbs. Bas-Becker also met with RS National Assembly Speaker Igor Radojicic. Glas Srpske pg 2 'Srpska showed readiness' by G. Dakic, Nezavisne Novine pg 9 'F BiH must establish Commission for missing Sarajevo Serbs' by D. DL: 'It is being worked on establishment of anti-Covic's coalition'	Dnevni List pg 4 'It is being worked on establishment of anti-Covic's coalition' by D. Pusic – According to the latest information it is being worked on establishment of a big coalition of Croat parties led by HDZ 1990. Apart from HDZ 1990, this coalition would be made of People's Party Working for Prosperity, HKDU, HD and HSS. HKDU President Ivan Musa confirmed that the talks on this issue have been underway. President of HSP Djapic-Juriscic Zvonko Jurisic said that they will not form coalitions with HDZ 1990 and HDZ BiH at the FBiH and state levels, while it is possible to form the coalitions with these parties at the Cantonal level especially in the Cantons where it is hard to expect that any Croat party will pass the election threshold.
Danas: HDZ President Covic to form coalition of Croat parties	Danas cover pg splash and pgs 14-17 'Covic invites in coalition Zubak and former HDZ members' by Z. Jukic says that HDZ President Dragan Covic and the HDZ BiH leadership intend to form a big coalition of Croat parties that would amortize negative effects caused by establishment of HDZ 1990. Sources close to the HDZ top says that, first of all, Covic would offer former HDZ BiH members who formed new parties (Kresimir Zubak (NHI), Miro Grabovac Titan (HDU) etc.) to join this coalition. Danas also says that as far as this coalition is concerned Covic can count as always on support Milenko Brkic and his party, HNZ, as well as on the Croat Block of Ivic Pasalic . According to the weekly, Covic will also invite to this coalition UHSP, HSP, HPB and HKDU.
Danas sources: Many HDZ BiH of Mostar members to join HDZ 1990 including Mayor Beslic?	Danas , pgs 22-25, mentioned on front 'Who is leaving Covic's HDZ in Mostar?', by Zvonimir Jukic – According to Danas' sources close to HDZ 1990, the party has tasked Josip Merdzo to organize its branch in Mostar. The weekly also speculates that many current and former members of HDZ BiH will be joining HDZ 1990, including some of the councillors in the Mostar City Council. Inset 'Mijo Brajkovic does not mind new HDZ either' – sources close to ' Danas ' reveal that the CEO of 'Aluminij', Mijo Brajkovic , is also close to HDZ 1990, however he cannot openly support them because the President of HDZ BiH, Dragan Covic , is controlling the 'Elektroprivreda of Herceg Bosna', which would make the position of the company more difficult when it comes to electricity supplies. Danas , pg 6 'Beslic started 'flirting' with HDZ 1990', not signed – Magazine also claims that even the Mayor of Mostar, Ljubo Beslic , could be joining the HDZ 1990.
