Intl press: Milosevic hailed as national hero by his supporters and reviled as tyrant by his victims/Mass grief for Milosevic worst message to West	International Press covered confused feelings in Serbia with regard to return of Slobodan Milosevic 's body back to Belgrade, where " he was hailed as a national hero by his supporters and reviled as a tyrant by his victims, " as Daniel McLaughlin writes for Guardian . Describing possible dangers that international justice could face after death of Milosevic, Guardian columnist Marcel Berlins writes: " Milosevic has left disastrous legal legacy, one which has already been of immense help to one of his principal beneficiaries, Saddam Hussein. He has shown the world that a defendant accused of the greatest crimes can play with the criminal justice system, make it look foolish, and by doing so undermine the very principles of international justice. " New York Times article 'Funeral a Political Issue' by Nicholas Wood reads that it is expected thousands of supporters to pay last respect to Milosevic, adding: " Scenes like that are something the Serbian government is hoping to avoid. For the last six years Serbia has struggled to convince the West that it wants to integrate with European and Atlantic institutions after years of war... A mass outpouring of grief for the man widely blamed for the loss of as many as 250,000 lives and the destruction of Yugoslavia would be the worst message to the West. " BBC, Telegraph, Independent, Times, Washington Post and World Street Journal also covered the issue.
ICTY Chief Prosecutor Del Ponte in Belgrade on March 27	Oslobodjenje pg 2, mentioned on cover 'Milosevic tricked us' - ICTY Chief Prosecutor Carla del Ponte announced her visit to Belgrade for March 27, stressing once more that death of Milosevic will not influence SCG cooperation with ICTY, carries French daily Le Mond. BiH Prosecutor Jurcevic confirms that they are investigating on writing of NN/ RS President Cavic denies all accusations saying that if they were true he would be imprisoned	BHT1 – BiH Chief Prosecutor Marinko Jurcevic confirmed that the BiH Prosecution launched investigations on several persons from the RS who are suspected of organised crime and providing help to fugitive ICTY indictees, but he refused to comment on concrete names. Some media speculated that RS President Dragan Cavic is also subject of this investigation. Cavic rejected such speculations and announced that he would seek protection by a court. RS Minister of Interior Stanislav Cadjo confirmed that some internal controls are going on in RS Mol, but like Jurcevic, he also refused to provide more detailed information. RTRS – Cavic called on Jurcevic to take stance on ‘Nezavisne Novine’ allegations on the aforementioned issue. Jurcevic condemns the fact that NN were talking about names. “The articles started dealing with names which the Prosecution still has not defined” , said Jurcevic. On the other hand, Cavic claims that the allegations are false and added that journalists had the right to write and speak whatever they want, but that they had to bear responsibility for what they were doing and he added that he is going to ask for protection through court. Nezavisne Novine pg 4 ‘Jurcevic should give stance on investigation’ by N.N. , EuroBlic RS pg 2 ‘To get to the truth even at the Court’ by R.R. Dnevni Avaz pg 10 ‘Cavic: If allegations on investigation are true, I should be in prison’, Glas Srpske pg 2 ‘Court is the right address’ by M. RS PM Dodik met Serbian president Tadic and Serbian PM Kostunica: Cooperation with ICTY main topic	RTRS - The RS delegation, led by the RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik met with the Serbian President and Prime Minister, Boris Tadic and Vojislav Kostunica respectively, in Belgrade. They discussed the issue of cooperation with the ICTY. Dodik said that it was agreed that the issue should be solved as soon as possible and they are going to do all in our power to complete the cooperation. Dodik also said that the RS Government was not supporting the lawsuit BiH filed against SCG for aggression and genocide before the International Court of Justice in The Hague, finding it illegal and illegitimate. "BiH was probably recognized by several states, but it was not state in legal sense; we cannot interfere in the court process but we believe that it will definitively divide BiH in mental and political sense. We believe that those who made the lawsuit made great damage to BiH and its self-sustainability in the future" , said Dodik. Main hearing in IJC continues/ SCG team questions evidence on existence of concentration camps	FTV - The trial in the case of the BiH lawsuit against SCG continued before the International Court of Justice in The Hague. 'Civil war in BiH' created inhuman conditions for all peoples, Bosniaks, Croats and Serbs, and it is impossible to claim that only Bosniaks or non-Serbs have been exposed to inhuman conditions that could have led to their extermination, stated member of SCG lawyers' team Xavier De Roux . During continuation of the process, SCG representatives tried to question the evidences, presented earlier by BiH representatives, about the existence of concentration camps on the SCG territory. All those alleged camps, such as those in Uzice or on Mount Zlatibor, were either extradition centres for Bosniaks or refugee camps, stated SCG representatives. BiH Parliamentarians sent letter to CoE asking for their involvement in constitutional changes in BiH	FTV- Sead Avdic, Azra Hadziahmetovic, Ivo Lozancic and Martin Raguz , representatives of the BiH Parliament in the Council of Europe's Parliament, have sent an open letter to the CoE's Political Committee, asking for their urgent involvement in the constitutional changes negotiations in BiH. The letter said: 'We believe that your involvement is absolutely necessary, because it's the only way to create the Constitution that would assure the future of BiH' . Sead Avdic stressed: 'The situation in BiH now clearly shows that there are a lot of controversial issues, that there is no political unity, and that political parties are radically divided... In that context, the involvement of the CoE, and especially the Political Committee, would be desirable.' Also reported by PINK, BHT1, Hayat, Oslobodjenje pg 8 'To conduct systematic reform of BiH Constitution' by A.Omeragic, Dnevni List , pg 5 'Europe in constitutional changes', by D. SP RS Gligoric says Silajdzic is behind letter four delegates addressed to CoE	Glas Srpske pg 5 'Silajdzic's handwriting' by Z. Markovic referring to the letter 4 members of the BiH Parliament in the CoE Parliamentary Assembly sent to Political Committee of CoE, inviting it to actively engage in the process of development of constitutional changes, SPRS delegate and deputy member of the delegation Tihomir Gligoric said he was offered to sign the letter, but he refused to do so, adding he believes Haris Silajdzic and Party for BiH were behind this letter since they want to gain their political goals through constitutional changes, i.e. they want to have BiH without entities.
SDA leader Tihic: Talks on const. changes to continue on Saturday	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Talks to continue in Sarajevo on Saturday' by A.M. - SDA leader Sulejman Tihic said for DA that talks on constitutional changes will continue in Sarajevo on March 18, Saturday. He said: "At this meeting, I think we will solve, i.e. agree on the remaining issue of election of BiH President and two Vice Presidents." Tihic repeated that although, his party support direct election of BiH President, it would be acceptable for SDA if indirect election would be conducted in BiH HoR, where every candidate would have to have support of at least one third from each caucus.
HDZ-HD- HNZ Caucus in FBiH HoR: We will not support constitutional changes that legalize current role of entities	FTV - The HDZ-HD-HNZ Caucus in the FBiH HoR and Chairman of this Caucus Ivan Madunic stated that they would not support the constitutional changes that legalize the current role of the entities in BiH. "We, the representatives of the HDZ-HD-HNZ Coalition Caucus in the FBiH HoR, oppose any kind of verification and signing of constitutional changes in BiH by negotiators on behalf of the Croat people, which are on track of enhancing and legalizing the existing entities, maintaining the entity voting and the Serb-Bosniak deal to the disadvantage of Croat people" , stated Madunic. Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Madunic: We will turn backs to Covic if he signs' by Ad.H. - Madunic stated that their further political engagement would depend on course of the negotiations, meaning that if HDZ leader Dragan Covic signs the agreement on constitutional changes "we would turn our back to him" . SD interview: Cardinal Puljic says it is unfair Bosniaks, Serbs, IC neglect Croats	Slobodna Dalmacija pg 7 'It looks as though BiH Croats do not belong for IC' by Veso Vegar carries a brief interview with Cardinal Vinko Puljic in which he reiterates his earlier opinions that the Croats are not equal in BiH, be it at the entity or state level. Puljic criticizes the practice of summoning leaders of two peoples (Serbs and Bosniaks) to talks on constitutional changes without inviting the Croats too, claiming it is unfair both from the two peoples (Serbs and Bosniaks) and the IC to do such a thing and he especially criticizes the IC because it neglects the smallest-in-number people in BiH. All in all, Puljic expects wisdom and equal right will prevail.

German Ambassador to BiH fears politicians might abuse constitutional changes for pre-election campaign	Dnevni List , pg 9, mentioned on front 'Constitutional changes must not become victim of pre-election campaign' by Arijana Beus carries an interview with the German Ambassador to BiH, Arne Freiherr von Kittlitz , in which he talks, among other issues, about the constitutional changes process. According to the Ambassador, the initial stage of the negotiations looked to be very successful, however it seems the process could be halted altogether if the first part of the negotiations is not completed, which would make impossible the organization of second part of negotiations. The Ambassador fears that the process of constitutional changes and the overall political climate and the SAA negotiations could be abused by politicians for their pre-election campaign, which is something that should not be happening.

PIC communiqué: PIC expects agreement on constitutional changes	Nezavisne Novine pg 3, announced on cover 'PIC expects agreement on Constitution' by M.C. – The communiqué released after Wednesday's session of the Peace Implementation Council (PIC) reads that PIC expects to see the final agreement on constitutional changes reached in the upcoming week, urging BH authorities to meet "this urgent timetable is essential to putting agreed changes in place for the 2006 elections. If the timetable is not met, the next opportunity for many changes to come into effect will be the 2010 elections" . PIC communiqué further reads: "The Steering Board re-emphasized the pressing need for full cooperation with the ICTY. This remains a fundamental requirement for Euro-Atlantic integration. The Steering Board regretted that there has been no progress in 2006, and urged the BiH authorities, and in particular the RS President and new RS Government to work jointly to fulfil their obligations and take decisive and rapid action to ensure that all remaining indictees, and in particular Mladic and Karadzic, are transferred to The Hague and brought to justice without any further delay." Understanding that the EU is prepared to build on its current engagement in BiH, the Steering Board expressed its view that the time for transition from the OHR to an EUSR Office is approaching.
HR Schwarz-Schilling at PIC mtg: My priorities would be transferring of authorities from IC to BiH institutions and support to negotiations on SAA	RTRS – After the meeting of the PIC Political Directors, High Representative to BiH Christian Schwarz-Schilling said in Vienna that his priorities would be transferring of authorities from the International Community to BiH institutions and support to negotiations on Stabilization and Association Agreement (SAA). BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic took part at the meeting, as well, where he spoke about reforms in BiH and progress in terms of SAA talks. Also reported by BHT1 , Dnevni List , pg 3 'Priority is to give support to BiH in talks with EU', by NINA .
Chair of CoM Terzic: We presented current progress BiH has made in reforms	Hayat - Commenting on the meeting of PIC Political Directors [in phone statement] the Terzic stated that this was the most positive meeting with PIC he has attended adding that they have presented the Board with current progress made regarding the reforms. "BiH Minister for Treasury of the Institutions of BiH, Ljerka Maric, presented the report on results of VAT implementation and the Chief BiH Negotiator in Stabilization and Association Agreement talks Igor Davidovic presented progress made regarding the negotiations on SAA with the EU" said Terzic. HR Schwarz-Schilling: To encourage BiH authorities in carrying out of reforms/Terzic: Tempo for carrying out police reform would have to be adjusted to desire for BiH to become NATO member by 2008	Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'To encourage BiH authorities in carrying out of reforms' by S.Numanovic - OHR Chief Spokesperson Irena Guzelova stated that HR Christian Schwarz- Schilling has presented his two main goals to the PIC and those are continuance of reforms necessary for signing of SAA and association with the EU. Guzelova stated that HR would continue with further transfer of authorities to BiH institutions and she emphasized that PIC has dealt with issue of ICTY cooperation and it was noted that no progress was made in this year and PIC hopes that new RS Government would be able to fulfil its obligations. In statement for the daily Terzic expressed his satisfaction with the meeting. Inset 'Three years for police'- Terzic stated that tempo for carrying out of police reform would have to be adjusted to desire for BiH to become NATO member by 2008, which means that deadline could be shortened from 5 to 3 years. Inset 'Conversation with Schussel'- Terzic met with Austrian Chancellor Wolfgang Schussel who promised continuance of help to BiH in process of SAA. Also reported by Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Mladic and Karadzic to The Hague immediately' not signed - Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Austria promised help to BiH'
Oslobodjenje op-ed: HR Schwarz-Schilling has better vision than Ashdown	Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Better vision' op-ed by Senka Kurtovic - Commenting on the Wednesday's meeting of the PIC, the editorial reads that this was the first time when Terzic was not sitting across to, but next to HR Christian Schwarz-Schilling , who was presiding the meeting. The author said that this actually showed how the OHR should treat state officials in the future - as an equal, not adverse partner. The editorial comments that economy and business were subject of the meeting, concluding that this was another reason why should we not regret departure of former HR Paddy Ashdown , for Schwarz-Schilling has a better vision.
FBiH HoR passes the Law on FBiH PBS with few amendments	Hayat - The FBiH House of Representatives adopted the law proposal on FBiH Public Broadcasting Service (55 votes in favour, 6 abstained from voting) at the session held in Sarajevo on Wednesday. The HDZ-HD-HNZ Coalition representatives left the session again, reiterating that the state laws, with which law proposals on FBiH PBS were to be harmonized, were destructive in terms of Croat vital national interests. FTV - According to the adopted Bill, the founder of the FBiH PBS is the Federation BiH, and not the Parliament, as it was originally proposed. "The Parliament is a legislative body, and the legislative body cannot be the founder... it can only act on behalf of the founder, which is the FBiH in this case" , stated FBiH Minister of Traffic and Communication Nedžad Brankovic . According to BOSS representative Mirnes Ajanovic , FBiH HoR also decided that the sessions of the FBiH Parliament should be broadcasted live on FTV, and also passed the SDP's amendments that RTV subscription should not be paid by those who have bad reception. Also reported by RHB, PINK, BHT1, Oslobodjenje pg 6 'Law on FBiH PBS assed' by S.Se. Vecernji List , pg 7 'Law on RTV adopted', by E.
