

Miroslav Lajčák stresses that Bosnia and Herzegovina's first priority is its European Union agenda

The High Representative and EU Special Representative, Miroslav Lajčák met Javier Solana, EU High Representative for the Common Foreign and Security Policy, in Brussels today.

“The first priority for this year is the country's EU agenda” said Lajčák. “BiH must now meet the requirements.”