

Lajčák Discusses Role of Religion in Reconciliation with Religious Leaders

The High Representative and EU Special Representative, Miroslav Lajčák, met with representatives of religious communities at his home in Sarajevo today to discuss how religion and religious leaders could help build trust between communities and assist the reconciliation process.

Ambassador Lajčák met with Reis-ul-Ulema Mustafa ef. Cerić of the Islamic Community, Metropolitan Nikolaj of the Serb Orthodox Church, Monsignor Mato Zovkic of the Catholic Church, and Mr Jakob Finci of the Jewish Community.