	Constitutional changes
Talks on constitutional changes continued on Friday in Sarajevo	BH T 1 - The talks on Constitutional changes have been continued in Sarajevo on Friday. Reporter stated that the progress has been achieved in regard to reaching possible agreement related to changes at the BiH Council of Ministries, while there is still no progress achieved in regard to changes at BiH Presidency. SDS Leader Dragan Cavic stated that regarding CoM basically they have agreed on 12 Ministries and one President that will not be rotated. "We have discussed this issue into details and we are left only with trivialities about which we have different opinion" concluded Cavic. In regard to BiH Presidency, PDP Leader Mladen Ivanic stated that the opinions still vary drastically. Reporter stated that no agreement on Constitutional changes is expected to be achieved on Friday, though there are beliefs that a joint statement will be signed similar to Washington one but more detailed. Beriz Belkic from SBiH stated no amendments will be adopted but only political stances would be defined. He added that he is not optimistic that any agreement will be signed. SDA Leader Sulejman Tihic expressed expectation that the US Institute for Peace would prepare some compromise solutions for the session. "If the proposal ensures BiH to be more functional and efficient than we would get the consensus otherwise, not, at least for SDA party" said Tihic. Late news update - During the break, Tihic told Fena that no consensus has been reached regarding the issue of CoM. The talks were ongoing and announced to be finished by midnight .

DA: 2 new Ministries, one of Agriculture, second one still to be determined	Dnevni Avaz pg 4 "Agreement on CoM reached", announced on cover 'Human rights embodied in Constitution' by A.Malagic - Daily learns that the representatives of political parties have reached an agreement regarding BiH CoM' structure with 11 Ministries in total (with increase of two Ministries). Daily notes political representatives agreed to increase the number of Ministries for two - one would be Ministry of Agriculture, while second is still to be determined. According to daily, agreement has also been reached in regard to embodying the text of human rights protection into BiH Constitution. Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash 'BiH gets Premier' by M.Cubro - Reports on agreement reached regarding BiH CoM and Premier.
Tihic: Agreement reached in regard to human rights	NTV Hayat, TV PINK - Namely, the Chair of SDA Tihic said that the leaders have agreed on a group of issues related with human rights. Tihic said that 5 pages of text, which guarantee human rights, had been adopted. The Chair of SDP Zlatko Lagumdzija said that he found the talks successful due to the fact that agreement in terms of human rights had been achieved. The Chair of SNSD Milorad Dodik said that BiH needed Ministry of Economy, since it was necessary in terms on negotiations with the EU. The U.S Ambassador to BiH Douglas McElhaney said that the USA welcomed the fact that the participants of the meeting agreed in terms of human rights. FTV - According to the participants, CoM will be lead by President with more authority. RTRS -According to unofficial information, talks on constitutional changes might continue on Saturday as well. RHB- Talks on constitutional changes are also attended by representative of the US Institute for Peace Donald Hays, US Ambassador to BiH Douglas McElhaney, British Ambassador to BiH Mathew Rycroft and Head of the European Commission Delegation to BiH Michael Humphreys also took part in the talks. Glas Srpske cover pg splash 'They always want more' by Z.D. -Z.D. - Reports on agreement reached in the field of human rights, carrying statements of Cavic, Ivanic, Dodik. Vecernji list pg 5 'Hays tells politicians: Speak of progress!' by zk - reports no progress has been reached on constitutional reached as of Friday afternoon.
McElhaney says parties working hard to realize the joint commitment signed in Washington	RHB, TV PINK - US Ambassador to BiH Douglas McElhaney stated on Friday that the parties are working hard to realize the joint commitment signed in Washington , which is the beginning of a longer process. He said that all participants have shown a cooperative and serious attitude.
BiH CoM confirms steps in case of successful constitutional talks	TV PINK - During the session, held on Thursday, the BiH Council of Ministers has confirmed steps which are to be undertaken in case of successful constitutional talks. "The talks are being led on chairs of political parties' levels and agreements, and if reached, they will have to be analyzed, namely, the Constitution will be changed in line with the regular procedure", said Advisor to the BiH CoM Chair Bojan Zec Filipovic. Filipovic added that the BiH CoM tasked Legislative Office, within the BiH CoM, to be ready to start issuing amendments on the agreed texts.
Weekly commentary by RHB editor Ivica Simunovic - constitutional changes	RHB - Ivica Simunovic - Subject of regular Friday's commentary was the issue of constitutional changes talks and question is it too late for Croat parties to form and hold a joint position in these negotiations. Simunovic first talked about Donald Hays activities (see the first story). The biggest obstacle in the negotiations is issue of the organisation of the State and middle level of authorities. Simunovic brings up the question are the Croat parties late with their talks and wonder is it inappropriate to talk about something that is not realistic at the moment. He believes that, in talks on constitutional changes, only Croat representatives don't have strong opinion on what they want.

	SAA / Other political issues
Possibility for political manipulation of SAA talks	BH T 1 - Report features the brief summary of Stabilisation and Association Agreement. Presenter stated that BiH will officially start the SAA talks on 25th January adding that BiH will be obliged to form the negotiation team by then. BiH MP Azra Hadziahmetovic reiterated that SAA represents commercial contract between EU and BiH. Reporter stated that the problem rises from the fact that state will have to be responsible for the activities that are not in its power. Deputy Chair of BiH House of Representatives Martin Raguz stated that regarding the issue of defence they were able to react properly but only when the transfer of authorities to state level was insured. Reporter stated that Commission of Foreign Affairs at the BiH HoR expressed the concern with the existence of state and negotiation team. BiH HoR MPs believe that SAA talks could be politically manipulated for pre-election campaign since the team is consisted of Ministers from Council of Ministers that are highly positioned political leaders. Director of the BiH Directorate for European Integration, Osman Topcagic rejected the possibility of SAA negotiations being politically manipulated. Reporter concluded that the adoption of set of laws needed for the SAA talks can be painstakingly slow process due to numerous and unnecessary business trips of the delegates. Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'They appointed themselves without Parliament certification' by ONASA - reports on criticism of BiH parliamentarians, including Raguz.
EC is not going to issue additional SAA terms, says Humphreys	TV PINK, NTV Hayat, FTV - The Head of the European Commission Delegation to BiH Michael Humphreys said on Friday that the EC was not going to issue additional Stabilization and Association Agreement terms, such as for example change in constitution, but he pointed out that the Constitution had to be changed in order for BiH to meet all the necessary terms for joining the EU.
BiH Negotiation Team is about to be established, says Topcagic	Dnevni Avaz pg8 'Each negotiating team will have one or two experts' by S.T., NTV Hayat, TV PINK, FTV, RTRS - BiH House of Representatives will soon have to organize debate on coordination of activities in terms of Stabilization and Association Agreement talks, as the Foreign Affairs Commission within the BiH HoP concluded at the session held on Friday. Director to European Integration Directorate Osman Topcagic attended the debate as well. During the discussion, numerous misunderstandings regarding appointment of the SAA state delegation have been pointed out. "On December 20th, we will be given the text on SAA talks and I hope that by that time we will have the BiH Negotiation Team established. Members of the team, who are at the same time chiefs of work groups, have been proposed by Ministries in charge", said Topcagic.
Knauss critical of British proposal for EU budget, noting it has bad impact on BiH and SICG	Dnevni Avaz pg 5, announced on cover 'Governments of EU state say one thing, and do another' by S.Turcalo - In a statement to daily, Gerald Knauss, Director of ESI (European Stability Institute) says that British proposal on long-term budget (2007-2013) closes EU doors to Balkans states, since that proposal stipulates that foreign policy provisions financing pre-admission programs are reduced for 40%. Namely, he explains this would mean that BiH and SiCG would not have the same treatment as Croatia, Romania and Bulgaria have. On appointment of Christian Schwarz Schilling to the position of new HR to BiH, Knauss says: "It is of extreme importance that Schwarz Schilling makes a transition from post-ware engagement of HR with his powers towards efficient engagements of EU in BiH. Such actions demand pre-admission perspective for your state, which requires appropriate EU budget. I am convinced Schwarz Schilling would in Germany pledge for that."

Schwarz-Schilling says economic issues, cooperation with the ICTY will be his priorities	RTRS, RHB - Newly appointed High Representative to BiH Christian Schwarz-Schilling announced that priorities in his work will be economic issues, cooperation with the ICTY, functionality of the institutions and transfer of authorities from the OHR to the Office of the EU Special Representative. He said that large investments should not be forgotten, but that focus in the next period should be on small and medium enterprises and agriculture.
NN op-ed on Schwarz Schilling: Statements are encouraging	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'A Scorpio' by Dragan Risojevic - Commenting on one of the recent statements Christian Schwarz Schilling gave (when he said since he is Scorpio in horoscope, he knows how to prick), the author notes his statements are somewhat encouraging since he said his main priority would be economy. Hence, author concludes nobody would hold it against him to prick as long as necessary in order to ensure better life to BiH citizens.
Terzic says there are breaches of all guaranteed human rights in BiH	Dnevni Avaz pg5 'Kebo: Returnees are the most vulnerable category', Nezavisne Novine pg 6 'The most vulnerable categories are inmates, raped women...' by R.Cengic . TV PINK, RHB, BH T 1, NTV Hayat, FTV - Office of the UN Human Rights High Commissioner and OSCE mission to BiH have introduced BiH authorities with a document on review of situation with human rights in BiH. As he was opening the conference, the BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic said that BiH authorities had to improve communication with citizens, in order to have new as well as the existing laws transparently defined and harmonized in terms of protection of human rights. "We have achieved progress in terms of legislative, institutions, reports to international institutions, but we are still faced with certain political obstacles for having umbrella laws, which would provide basic human rights, brought at BiH level" , said BiH Minister for Human Rights Mirsad Kebo .

Defence Reform Commission held its final session	BH T 1, TV PINK - BiH Defence Reform Commission held its final session on Friday. Financing the defence reform in BiH was stressed as one of the crucial issues. 278 million were planned for the Defence reform which is less than needed. Co-Chair of the Commission Raffi Gregorian said that BiH is left with ICTY cooperation challenge. "Second one is ethnical and national parallelisms in terms of military forces while the third one is abuse of religion in military forces, and the forth one is to provide necessary means in order for the reform to be carried out" added Gregorian. BiH Defence Minister Nikola Radovanovic said that the reform process will be a long-term one, with next year as the crucial one. Fifteen days after the law on defence starts being effective, Transition Office is going to be established. Glas Srpske pg 2 'Commission completed its work' by SRNA, Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'Radovanovic: There was no loser in defence reform' by I.Sinanovic, Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Authority to continue with defence reform', announced on cover 'Closer to NATO' by A.Sisic - also report
Public debate on higher education held in BiH Parliament	Glas Srpske pg2 'In line with Bologna' by Z.D., NTV Hayat - Constitutional Commissions, within BiH Parliament, held public debate on higher education on Friday in Sarajevo. According to survey, carried out by WUSS organization, small number of BiH professors has been introduced to Bologna process, which means that a lot more has to be done in terms of development of education system. Text of the draft law of new law on higher education has been recently harmonized. Due to the fact that the whole process lasted for years, BiH youth states that they were the ones who lost the most in terms of quality of education. They pointed out that they were not competitive, that they had no possibility to go to some other states and universities, etc. BiH Professors agreed that BiH politicians could have done a lot more for students in BiH. Professor Ejup Ganic said that stances between professors and students had to be harmonized and that both, students and professors, lacked seriousness. The participants of the debate agreed that the law on higher education had to be added; it was said that the law did not regulate the issue of scholarship, financing University, etc.
Bukejlovic says RS Govt. has not received official info. from BiH COM regarding establishment of Pol. Ref. Directorate/Terzic claims it did	Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'Republika Srpska lagging behind F BiH' by N.Diklic - Pero Bukejlovic, RS PM, told daily that RS Government has not as yet received official proposal neither final decision of the BiH COM regarding the establishment of the Police Reform Directorate. Terzic: VAT introduction would be postponed	Dnevni Avaz cover pg splash, pg 2 'VAT introduction would be postponed?' by S.Numanovic - Adnan Terzic, BiH COM Chair, has appealed on delegates at entities' Parliaments to adopt budgets for 2006 by New Year - otherwise, the VAT implementation will most likely be postponed. As Terzic told daily, such a decision would be inevitable unless resources for social funds accompanying VAT are provided. Daily also notes that it is not possible to adopt VAT by 1st January unless entities' budget are passed. Terzic also said that "if entities' budgets are not adopted by New Year, BiH Parliament should schedule extraordinary session and change VAT Law, which would postponed VAT implementation."

F BiH HoR to discuss budget for 2006 next week	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Briga: More resources should be allocated for social programs' by A.Dedajic - Muhamed Ibrahimovic , Chairperson of the BiH HoR, announced session of the F BiH HoR, which is to discuss budget for 2006, for beginning next week. Ismet Briga , from S BiH, said that prior to adoption of the budget, it is necessary to allocate more resources for social programs.
I think that there is no other way out but to adopt the budget for 2006, says Bukejlovic	TV PINK, BH T 1 - While addressing the participants of public debate on draft economic politics, held in the RS Chamber of Economy the RS Prime Minister Pero Bukejlovic said that budget and economic politics for 2006 had to be adopted by the end of the year, since these are two extremely relevant documents. Bukejlovic also said that if the budget was not to be adopted, it could endanger adoption of the BiH budget, which would also endanger the VAT introduction. Bukejlovic added that politics had to be harmonized, but that no one had right to endanger the RS economic development. "I think that there is no other way out but to adopt the budget for 2006. By not adopting it, we will endanger about 100,000 citizens who depend on it" ; said Bukejlovic.
Bosanski Brod oil refinery workers on strike	Glas Srpske pg4 'Strike to fulfillment of demands' by B.T. , Dnevni Avaz pg 9 'Workers to go in front of RS Government and Parliament on 22 December', Nezavisne Novine pg 8 'They demand launch of production and salaries' by R.Segrt , RTRS, BH T 1, TV PINK, NTV Hayat - Employees of the Oil Refinery Bosanski Brod have started a general strike. They says the strike will last until 11 of their late salaries are not paid, until their contributions are not paid and until refinery status is solved. They also want those who are responsible for such a difficult situation in this company to be identified. President of the Strike Board, Danilo Brocilo , announced that protest of the employees in oil and energy industry, organized by RS Energy Trade Union, will be held on December 22 in front of the RS Government building in Banjaluka. Refinery's management claim that new strike could have impact on new strategic partner and cause their withdrawal from the partnership.
