Cilic, Nezavisne Novine pg 6, announced on cover '20 years prison term to Miroslav Bralo' by S.Karic - Bralo sentence in ICTY - The Hague Tribunal sentenced a Bosnian Croat/ former HVO soldier who had pleaded guilty to charges including murder, rape and torture of Muslims to 20 years in jail on Wednesday. Miroslav Bralo, also known as Cicko, changed his pleas to guilty earlier this year on eight counts of war crimes and human rights abuses committed during the 1993 Bosniak-Croat war in central Bosnia. Judge Iain Bonomy said the crimes were of such a serious and brutal nature that the sentence would have been 25 years if it had not been for mitigating circumstances including Bralo's guilty plea, his remorse and voluntary surrender to the court. Bralo, 38, belonged to a Bosnian Croat special forces unit known as the Jokers which attacked Muslim/Bosniak villages in Bosnia in 1993. It subsequently imprisoned civilians and forced them to dig trenches and serve as "human shields". Bralo repeatedly raped a Muslim woman, who was kept prisoner for about two months and also made Muslim prisoners perform Catholic rituals and murdered others.
ICTY requests new trial against Tihomir Blaskic; new evidences prove he had commanding authority over 'Jokers'?	Hayat by Boris Grubestic - The Hague Prosecution requests a new trial against former HVO commander in Central Bosnia Tihomir Blaskic. Blaskic was originally sentenced to 45-year prison term, but the sentence was reduced to nine years imprisonment after the completion of the appeal procedure. The request for the new trial is based on new, previously unknown witnesses and evidences, which, according to The Hague Prosecution, should prove that Blaskic is responsible for the crimes committed in Ahmici in April 1993. According to BHT reporter, new protected witnesses are probably among the HVO indictees who are currently in The Hague detention unit. "Three new things are mentioned in a document, including two new protected witnesses. That's all I can see from those documents. I cannot talk about the dates, because they depend on how the Appeals Council will treat this request", stated ICTY spokesperson in BiH Mathias Hellman. Blaskic's defence attorneys few months ago contested ICTY Prosecution's request for re-opening of this trial. "There are deadlines only for prosecutor and defence attorney in the Hague rule-book, there is no deadline for judges. Therefore, judges will take all the time they need to make a decision. But Prosecution and Defence have already done their job", stated Blaskic's attorney Anto Nobilo. Dnevni List, pg 7, mentioned on front 'There is no ground for new trial to general Blaskic', by D. Kozina - Nobilo believes there is no ground to renew the process, however Nobilo says the ultimate decision rests with the ICTY.
