LATEST NEWS OF TODAY

| Official marking of DPA starts in Washington | RHB, RS Radio – Official marking of the 10 th anniversary starts in Washington today (Monday). Unofficial marking started on Sunday when a BiH delegation, led by Chairman of BiH Presidency, Ivo Miro Jovic , and Presidency members Borislav Paravac and Sulejman Tihic , met with US Institute for Peace and US and western diplomats engaged in the Balkans related issues. They talked about proposal of new BiH constitution, which was prepared by the Institute. Results of the Washington talks, which resumed today, should be made known on Tuesday when BiH delegations are to meet with the US Secretary of State, Condoleezza Rice . |
|---|--|
| | SRNA – Bosniak member of the BiH Presidency and SDA chairman Sulejman Tihic has walked out of the Washington talks on constitutional reforms, SRNA has learnt unofficially from members of the RS (political parties) delegation at the talks. A number of participants in the talks said on Sunday that Tihic was dissatisfied with the debate on constitutional reforms in Bosnia-Hercegovina and that his hardline stance was preventing an agreement from being reached. The SDA headquarters in Sarajevo has not confirmed the report on Tihic leaving the talks. |

| RS Radio – SRNA reports that the EU has today decided to launch talks with the |
|---|
| BiH on SAA asap. Referring to EU official, agency reports that talks may start at |
| the end of November, or beginning of December at latest. The conclusion |
| passed at the meting reads that: "The BiH course towards Europe has now |
| commenced. The commencement of talks marks a historic moment in BiH |
| development and it is the first important step towards establishing constructive |
| relations with the EU." |

| Interviews with HR | Dnevni Avaz cover pg splash 'Historical day for BiH' by Sead Numanovic - |
| Paddy Ashdown: Historical day for BiH | carries a lengthy interview with HR Paddy Ashdown saying that the decision |
| | on launching SAA talks with BiH, which is expected to be reached today in Brussels, is a historical day for BiH and he says the start of SAA talks would |
| | |
| | encourage foreign investors, open new jobs, improve life standard etc. With |
| | regard to the visa regime, HR said it is time to deal with this issue as well. Vecernji List, front pg splash 'One does not defend interests of Croats by |
| | boycotting', and pg 3 'State will be signed, not constitutional changes!', by |
| | Zoran Kresic – Carries an interview with the High Representative, Paddy Ashdown, in which he confirms that BiH politicians will be offered, during the |
| | forthcoming talks in the US, to sign a statement that will oblige them to carry |
| | out constitutional reforms. Asked whether the political parties will reach a |
| | consensus about the constitutional reforms during the talks in the US, HR |
| | Ashdown says the matter is entirely down to the parties, not down on him or |
| | the IC. Asked to comment on the Croats' complaints that the framework of |
| | constitutional changes are leading into a centralized BiH, HR Ashdown notes |
| | that those who stated that should be taking part in the talks, however the HR |
| | argues that a boycott is not the best way to express yourself. Inset 'Cardinal |
| | Puljic, Covic and Zubak's place is in Dayton' – the journalist asked the HR |
| | whether the decision of Dragan Covic, Cardinal Vinko Puljic and Kresimir |
| | Zubak not to take part in the talks was not a mature one, to which the HR |
| | replied: "Those are your words () I do not think that they are helping interests |
| | of the Croat people by not taking part in the talks on future of BiH". |
| | Dnevni List , pg 4 'Continuation of reforms is of vital importance', not signed – |
| | In an interview for the France Press, HR Ashdown stated that the reconstruction |
| | of BiH after the war has been miraculous, however the HR stressed that further |
| | reforms were of vital importance for the future progress. |
| | Nezavisne Novine pg 2, announced on cover 'BiH will not get a new |
| | constitution through pressures' by V. Popovic and D. Raduski - In an interview |
| | to NN, HR Paddy Ashdown has stated he thinks the Dayton Agreement was an |
| | excellent agreement since it was strong enough to bring peace and, at the |
| | same time, it was flexible enough to enable implementation of necessary |
| | reforms. On Washington talks, HR stated BiH will not get a new Constitution in |
| | Washington since development of a constitution is a time-consuming process. |
| | He said the Washington talks are important because BiH politicians must |
| | understand that developing of a new constitution is a priority and added: 'they |
| | need to realize this is something they need to do, not the international |
| | community', noting they must understand they need to reach consensus on this |
| | issue. 'They must understand this process must be launched now, although |
| | major part of the process will need to wait until after 2006 elections are held', |
| | HR said. Inset 'A statement will not arrest Karadzic and Mladic' – Asked to |
| | comment on the announced signing of a statement of political and religious |
| | leaders, by which they would invite Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic to |
| | surrender, HR replied this statement perhaps would help in its own way and he |
| | thinks if RS politicians are willing to express their willingness to bring these two |
| | before the face of justice, this would improve political atmosphere. However, HR |
| | stated this statement would not represent their arrest, but will help in the |
| | campaign to arrest them. |
| | EuroBlic RSpg 2 'Ashdown: There is a model of new BiH' – Paddy Ashdown , |
| | HR to BiH, has stated that BiH ahs managed to overcome politician and |
| | economic collapse of ten years ago, adding: "The model through which we have |
| | been trying to implement efficient reforms was the creation of key institutions |
| | at the state level." |

| Washington to continue talks on constitutional changes | RHB, BHT, Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Oslobodjenje pg 3, mentioned on cover 'No one likes Dayton Constitution', FENA – The leaders of eight parliamentary parties from BiH met in Washington on Sunday to continue the talks started in Brussels last week on possible changes to the BiH Constitution. The talks have been organised on the occasion of the tenth anniversary of the Dayton Agreement and with the mediation of the US Institute for Peace led by former Principal Deputy High Representative Donald Hays . There are high expectations in BiH that Hays could force changes to the BiH Constitution out of the eight leaders of BiH political parties, just like US diplomat Richard Holbrooke was able to do with the leaders of warning parties in Dayton ten years ago when they signed an agreement on ending the war. Hays proposed the abolishment of the three-member BiH Presidency and the strengthening of the state parliament and Government. Such a proposal was rejected in Brussels because RS leaders saw it as a way for abolishing the RS, which they oppose. The announced involvement of US Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice in the talks in Washington is widely interpreted as additional pressures on the participants to accept Hays's proposal. |

| | Oslobodjenje pgs 4-5, announced on cover 'Changes to BiH Constitution must not be purely cosmetic' by S. Sehercehajic – The author notes the 10 th anniversary of signing of the Dayton Agreement is important, among other things, because representatives of IC have initiated negotiations among BiH politicians on constitutional changes. One of participants in development of DA Haris Silajdzic thinks the changes must not be only cosmetic. Kresimir Zubak , another participant of the Dayton talks, agrees DA should be changed, while SNSD's Milorad Dodik says DA should be a foundation to all future solutions developed in this area. RS NA Chairman Dusan Stojicic says foundations of DA – BiH consisting of two equal-righted entities, three constitutive peoples and mechanisms for protection of the three peoples – cannot be changed in a new Constitution. Inset 'BiH with two entities is not sustainable' – HDZ's Dragan Covic reiterated before his departure to Washington that such BiH, consisted of two entities, is not sustainable. Dnevni List , pg 4 'Nothing spectacular in Washington', by NINA also carried Stojicic's statement. |
| DA on Washington talks: Nothing agreed as yet, tensions raising | Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Tension in Washington is raising' by Sead Numanovic – Writing about Washington meeting, the author notes that the political representatives from BiH are today expected to meet with Nicholas Burns , the US Sub-Secretary for Political Affairs. According to author, the meeting should at elast result in a statement that political leaders accept changes of the Constitution. As daily learns from participants of the meeting, the atmosphere is tensed, there are some periodical tones and sometimes are organisers blamed for having failed to prepare a document on which participants would negotiate, but instead expect from politicians form BiH to reach an agreement by themselves. Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'The greatest problem is the establishment of one President' by S.N. – Daily learns that negotiations of the eight political leaders from BiH have Sunday distanced from any agreement, since the representatives of Serb parties do not accept the establishment of State President and instead offer gradual establishment of the President with two Vice Presidents. The issue of election and number of delegates at the BiH HoP also remains unclear. The issue of BiH COM' composition was not even on agenda Sunday. |
| Peoples should be more flexible, show more | Vecernji List , pgs 4-5 'It brought peace as well as injustice', by Tihomir Begic – Carries a lengthy commentary about the 10 th anniversary of the DPA and the forthcoming talks in the US in which the author argues that the DPA brought peace to BiH, however it also brought injustice, which was taboo until recently. Regarding the future developments, Begic , among other issues, notes that all three peoples in BiH should be more flexible and show more understanding for each other. The most stressed Begic's claim is that, should the Bosniaks insist on a centralized and unitary BiH, a possible consequence would be a formation of an informal alliance between the Croats and Serbs, who would in that way protect each other from the outvoting by the Bosniaks. As for the Croats, Begic says if they keep insisting on the establishment of the third entity, it could cause instability in the country. |

| BiH Presidency Chair | Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'To create a functional community', FENA – BiH Presidency |
|-------------------------|---|
| Jovic: Dayton did not | Chair Ivo Miro Jovic thinks that the Dayton Agreement's greatest achievement |
| create a functional | is that it stopped the killing and bloodshed. However, jovic claims that today, |
| community | ten years since its signing, it has not establishes a functional community and |
| communicy | developed something it should have – a community of equality for all citizens |
| | and peoples living here. "It did not ensure implementation of something |
| | |
| | (principles) the modern Europe has paid in blood – the development of a society |
| | such as in multicultural and multiethnic communities similar to Switzerland and |
| | Belgium", Jovic told FENA. He thinks that BiH has not been defined as a state, but as a structure "one state, two entities, three peoples" that could not |
| | properly function. The BiH Presidency Chair reminded that this agreement has |
| | been changed so many times, "especially by those who were given the powers |
| | of a monarch, king or tsar, an undeniable ruler in the shape of the High |
| | Representative, who were dismissing who ever they wanted and for whatever |
| | reasons, but in most cases who only were just controlling the crisis and not |
| | resolving it". He thinks that as a result of such actions more than 1.400 BiH |
| | citizens lost their basic human rights, they were taken the right to participate in |
| | public political life, the right to be elected or vote and the right to have a job. |
| | jovic thinks that the most important thing in BiH at this moment is to implement |
| | the reformed laws and to ensure the return of people to their homes. He added |
| | that this is what he expects from his trip to Washington where he will attend on |
| | November 19-22 the commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the Dayton |
| | Agreement and speak before the Institute for Peace. "We need to create a |
| | functional community in BiH which has to reflect its multileveled social |
| | community, but to the benefit of all, and at no one's expense. This means |
| | creating a prosperous country with a future, primarily through political, but also |
| | economic solutions", jovic said. |

| the country's future | Agreement has an exceptional importance for the contemporary history of BiH. |
| | "Dayton is something very important for us, because it stopped a difficult war, |
| | the suffering and destruction, and, of course, it provided a framework for the |
| | establishment of a decentralised, complex, democratic state. During these ten |
| | years we have shown that it is possible to build a state within that framework, a |
| | state accepted by all its peoples and entities, and as such acceptable for Euro- |
| | Atlantic integration. Reforms that we have implemented so far are the best |
| | proof for this", Paravac said. "Fully supporting this framework I think that all |

| | told FENA that if we look at the implementation of the Dayton Agreement, then |
| | we must say I am dissatisfied with the level of its implementation reached, |
| | noting: "I am of the view that this story on the European path led by BiH CoM has actually placed the issue of Dayton Agreement on side. The fact we insist |
| | on European standards says that we support implementation of DA, since it is |
| | one of key European standards to respect international duties." He also said |
| | that the DA in the form as it is not an obstacle to anything, noting Agreement |
| | itself stipulates that anything within it can be changed with the consensus of |
| | politicians in BiH, adding: "Hence, politicians are obstacle. However, the |
| | constitutional framework does represent an obstacle." |

| SNSD leader Dodik says Washington talks reversed to beginning following Tihic' arrival Party for BiH founder | Nezavisne Novine pg 3, announced on cover 'Tihic reversed talks on beginning' by A.Sekulic – Milorad Dodik, SNSD President, told daily from Washington that the first day of talks of BiH politicians had some initial results – however, Sunday's arrival of SULejman Tihic , SDA President, reversed talks to the beginning, since Tihic insisted on one president of BiH, for which there is no assent amongst three peoples of BiH, according to Dodik. Dodik also said that certain level of agreement has been reached in regard to the issue of BiH Presidency's powers, noting that the issues of selection and mandate of BiH Presidency are still disputable. | Silajdzic: Constitutional changes should not be cosmetic | of the participants in the creation of the Dayton Agreement Haris Silajdzic thinks that constitutional changes being discussed by leaders of BiH political parties should not be cosmetic and superficial. Silajdzic thinks that ten years was enough for conducting experiments and that these talks on constitutional changes should not be missed as an opportunity for achieving concrete results. This is a corrective exam and if no concrete agreement is reached the worldwide interest in BiH and this region could diminish, he said. |
| | Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Creators of war became builders of peace' by Fena – Deputy President of SDU Miro Lazovic , who was BiH Assembly Chairman between 1992-96 and also participated in the Dayton talks, has stated the best achievement of DA was the fact it stopped the war but its bad side was that it transformed creators of war in builders of peace. |
| Tadic (HSS) sceptical of Washington talks | Dnevni List , pg 5 'Sceptical towards Washington talks', not signed – The President of HSS (Croat Peasants Party), Marko Tadic , says the party is disappointed with what happened in Brussels, expecting more of the same from the Washington talks. Tadic reckons that the Croats could be damaged one more time, foremost because of the fact that no Croat party presented respective positions about the constitutional changes. He adds that 'cosmetic' changes are unacceptable to HSS. |
| Dayton Agreement/ Washington talks in RS/Serbian press | EuroBlic RSpg 2, announced on cover 'A peaceful Bosnia, immature politicians' by Nedeljka Breberina-Rajna Radosavljevic – Daily carries comments of local politicians onto DA anniversary and constitutional changes. Dragan Cavic , RS President, said: "Our obligation now is to preserve a stable state, with preserved identity of all three peoples, but also to improve functionality of Constitution." Mladen Ivanic, BiH Foreign Minister, stated that the greatest achievement of DA is that BiH has entered the phase of normalization of relations, adding demands for changes logical – still crucial changes cannot be achieved. Milorad Dodik , SNSD President, is of the view DA is not just a document that stopped war in Bih. Safet Halilovic , President of the Party for BiH presidency, says that the state structure established through DA is "irrational, expensive and is not in the function of citizens." Sociologist Ivan Sijakovic does not dispute that the DA brought peace, stressing that over the last ten years, BiH has been lagging behind in economic development.He blames politicians for this. Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Stopping the war was the greatest achievement' by Agencies – carries statements of Ivo Miro Jovic, Sulejman Tihic, Borislav Paravac, Adnan Terzic, Ahmet Hadzipasic (it is time we consider the issues of expenditures' reductions and favourable options referring toe economic sector), Sahbaz Dzihanovic (saying DA has cemented status of divisions), Slavko Matic (DA has resulted in negative aspects, bar stopping of war) and Dusan Stojicic. | Cantonal PMs unhappy with court verdicts in war reparations cases | Dnevni List , pg 5 'Judiciary that is being reformed by the OHR is gravely violating laws', by Danka Polovina-Mandic – Ten cantonal PMs from the FBiH complained to the Chairman of BiH CoM, Adnan Terzic , and FBiH PM, Ahmet Hadzipasic , that they are having problems with court decisions, by which sentences in the so-called war reparations cases are automatically taking money from the respective budgets. The cantonal PMs tasked Terzic to have talks with members of the High Judicial and Prosecutorial Council (HJPC) in order to find a way through which the courts will treat these cases as war damages i.e. that the money is not taken away automatically from the budgets, which in turn endangers and makes more difficult the functioning of authorities. "We have heard about incredible cases in which 105.000 KMs were taken from a cantonal budget owing to a verdict about a Yugo 45 () I think it is unacceptable and untenable" , said Terzic. According to the HJPC President, Branko Peric , the solution to the problem is enactment of a corresponding law at the state level. | |
