must be changed	Ashdown commented to the situation in BiH by stating that the important thing is to realize the country is at the end of the first phase of its road to the EU.
	"Thanks to the reforms that we carried out, especially in the last year, BiH is now prepared to join NATO, when Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic are finally apprehended and to join the EU," said HR adding this will lead to the second phase of transition. "In order for BiH to be functional and efficient state, decentralized, which will serve citizens not politicians – BiH now spends 70% from taxes on administration and only 30% on health, education, pensions – so we have to change Dayton. How can we do that? First of all, we are not months already'	Oslobodjenje , pg 3 'Talks on Constitution for eight months already', by Fena – Fena news agency reports that while leaders of BiH political parties deny participation in the development of proposals of constitutional changes, Donald Hays , one of the key players in this process, in a letter to the Balkan Research Networks unveiled that parties from BiH have been involved in these talks for eight months no and that their representatives have proposed the "contentious" changes. "In March, eight political parties with representatives in both houses of the BiH Parliament selected their delegates to work on behalf of the parties in the Working Group for dealing with constitutional changes. The aim of the Working Group was to find solutions to the contentious issues from the Venetian Report. The Working Group first met in March and has since met once a month in Sarajevo until October", Hays said. In his letter Hays further unveiled how the talks on the key issue for the future of BiH were initiated and conducted and how they would conclude in Washington this weekend. They discussed the status of BiH Croats in BIH. Washington talks: new constitution to be adopted in Washington	Feral pgs 28 and 29 'Frame for empty heads' by I. Lovrenovic carries that it is well known that a new BiH Constitution would be adopted in Washington on the ground of the US pressure and the purpose of this pressure is to avoid instability in BiH during the negotiations on the Kosovo status and to secure a minimum of the state functionality necessary for the negotiations with the EU. The author says that for this reason the USA would be satisfied with slight changes while they resolutely reject all deeper changes, especially administrative-territorial ones and the author concludes that the real and long- term battle for generally acceptable BiH starts after Washington. The author also says that BiH would be less and less the country of Croats if they were represented by Croat political representatives that we could see at the Brussels talks.

Author, while pointing out that RS was created by war criminals, deems that SDA's requests are amateurish and irresponsible. " SDA and Sulejman Tihic's project should not be abolishment of the RS, but active and continuous work on its democratization and modernization ," concludes SB.

DL: There is possibility	Dnevni List pg 5, mentioned on cover 'Bill of indictment against Mate Tadic is indictment agst M.	President of the BiH Constitutional Court (BiH CC), Mate Tadic, in the Covic and Tadic	others case lodged an objection to the Panel of Judges in which he claims that it is necessary to get an approval of the BiH CC in order to issue a bill of indictment and detain his client. DL explains that according to the BiH CC rules a judge of this court cannot be detained and a bill of indictment cannot be issued against him without the BiH CC approval. DL says that prosecutor Johnatan Rattel considers these rules (DL officially learns that Tadic himself initiated them) as an internal act and he believes that the BiH Court should not act according to them. DL says that if the BiH Court accept the Bulic's objection it might happen that the bill of indictment against Tadic would be annulled.

membership without Karadzic/Mladic in ICTY	reiterated that BiH must adopt changes to the constitution if it wants to become the member state of the NATO's Partnership for Peace programme. Scheffer stressed that there is mutual desire for BiH to join the PfP as soon as possible, but: "They should realize that, as long as Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic are not in the Hague, there is an obstacle to BiH admission to PfP. Whether they like it or not, that's the way things are, and it is not going to change before they are delivered to the Hague ."
