HR rehabilitates 23 officials

HR lift bans on 23 individuals from participating in public and political life	BH TV 1, NTV Hayat, RTRS - The High Representative, Paddy Ashdown, issued on Friday decision lifting the prohibition banning 23 individuals from participating in public and political life. In taking the decisions in respect of these individuals the HR has consulted closely with the ICTY and other relevant international organisation. This decision does not mean that these individuals will be automatically returned to the positions they held at the time of removal. The decisions taken are based on political judgement and do not effect any ongoing legal processes these individuals may be involved in, reads the OHR's press release. In addition, the HR lifted the decisions against 13 individuals who were removed in June and December 2004 specifically to overcome the obstructionists who were standing in the way of getting the RS to finally uphold its international obligations towards the ICTY. Should it prove necessary, the HR will not hesitate to put on the removed list these or any other individuals found to be obstructing the implementation of the Dayton Peace Agreement - particularly in respect of any obstruction of the work of the ICTY or the proffering assistance to persons indicted for war crimes, announces OHR. FTV - The prohibition to work in the public sector has been lifted from all the persons except for Momcilo Ristic, who has been banned from leading positions in the Teslic municipal administration in next two years and Rasim Sahinovic who has been banned from performing any minister functions on all levels of authority. However this does not give them the automatic right to reclaim their earlier positions if these positions have been filled in the meantime. Dnevni Avaz pg 2, announced on cover '23 removed officials rehabilitated' by S.Numanovic - The list of rehabilitated persons is as follows: Dusan Beric, Milan Bogicevic, Vojislav Gligic, Miso Glogovac, Slavko Kujundzic, Slobodan Saraba, Dragan Dobrilovic, Ilija Drpa, Ratko Misanovic, Zoran Spasojevic, Zeljko Tadic, Zoran Ostojic, Milos Tomovic, Dusan Umicevic, Branko Trbojevic, Zaharije Simicevic, Momcilo Ristic, Milan Kecman, Milan Djuric, Stipe Maric, Stipo Babic, Ivan Damjanovic, Rasim Sahinovic. Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash, pg 3 '23 persons pardoned' by V.Popovic, A.Sekulic, Dnevni List pg 2 'Bans against 36 persons abolished', Glas Srpske pg 2 'Ashdown rehabilitates those written off' by M.Dizdar - also report

Ninkovic says that Cavic made a list of persons, who were on the way of his political career, and then agreed on the list of people HR should remove at one lunch at Krupa na Vrbasu (settlement near Banja Luka ) last year. Ninkovic claims that those rehabilitated officials represent not threat to Cavic and political career, and will also become members of the new SDS Chair Board, which is to be elected at SDS Congress on 10 November.
Oslobodjenje op-ed critical of HR's mandate	Oslobodjenje op-ed pg 9 'Go away you Prior' by Mirko Sagolj - Writing about the HR's mandate in BiH and end of it, the author - by making a reference to HR's, Paddy Ashdown, interview to British papers on end of Dayton Agreement - stresses that HR's mandate should have focused from the very beginning to the change of Dayton Agreement, removal of destructive forces from power and refugee returns, instead of having been "standing still". He says HR started his mandate in wrong direction by having declared nationalists reformists. He concludes by saying that the majority of BiH population, regardless of HR's "expressed love for BiH" would be happy to tell him "go away, you Prior".

DPA was a perfect agreement to end a war, but very bad agreement to create a state ”, said Ney. BiH Deputy Minister for Civil Affairs Zoran Tesanovic confirmed that members of BiH’s negotiation team for negotiations on SAA still haven’t been selected. He criticized the fact that this issue has become a political problem, According to Tesanovic, it is necessary to determine the platform of negotiations first, and negotiation team can be appointed later.

According to “Vecernji list” edition for BiH, the mentioned report was made long time ago, during the mandate of former HR Wolfgang Petritsch .

First phase of the talks on constitutional changes closed, next one in Brussels	BH TV 1 reports that first phase of the talks on constitutional changes, in which eight BiH political parties participated, ended in Washington. Second phase will be held in Brussels from 11 to 14 November this year, where parties' leaders will discuss the same subject. Issues that are to be discussed in Brussels are will BiH have presidency or one president, how legislative and executive authorities would look like, etc. Parties' positions are different on those issues. This week Simunovic comments the riots in Parisian suburbs and draws a connection with BiH. Simunovic says that these riots happen every so often in countries that play a key role in transformation of BiH. He poses a question whether officials of those states are able to deal with the complexity of BiH reality if they are not able to "clean their own back yard". He says that international community will create a new barrel of gunpowder if it abolishes Cantons and leaves 2 entities with the announced constitutional changes in BiH. Simunovic adds that Croats in BiH should have their federal unit but that fact seems to scare the Croat parties and members of international community. He continues by saying that if that doesn't happen international community will have to stay in BiH for a long time.
