Geneva conference/reactions on EC recommendation on SAA talks

EC recommended to EU Council to launch negotiations on SAA talks with BiH	RHB, TV Pink, BHT1, TV Hayat, FTV, RTRS - European Commission gave a recommendation to EU Council to open negotiation on signing of the SAA with BiH and submitted directives for negotiating, which have to be passed by the Council. On this occasion, Head of EC Mission Michael Humphreys and Chairman of Council of Ministers Adnan Terzic have held a press conference in Sarajevo, during which it was stressed that SAA is a first major step toward European Integrations for Countries of Western Balkan. In its decision, EC has stressed that BiH has to continue its work on better cooperation with the ICTY and assure implementation of police reform and Law on PBS. It wasn't stated when the negotiations would start, but Humphreys expressed hope that this will happen before the end of the year, and he stressed that all of this is a result of reforms, which were carried out and passing of reformist laws. Both Humphreys and Terzic have emphasised the positive role of Great Britain as presiding country of the EU to which the European path of BiH, as it has promised, was a priority. TV Hayat - Terzic also gave credit to BiH CoM, High Representative Paddy Ashdown, the US Administration and European Commission. Terzic said he doesn't expect any words of praise, since there is still a job to be done. TV Pink - EC underlines that BiH must, in particular, continue to improve co-operation with the ICTY, adopt the remaining Law on Public Broadcasting Service, and ensure the implementation of the police and PBS reforms. A lack of progress in these areas may delay the opening of SAA negotiations, or lead to their suspension, said Ambassador Humphreys. Dnevni Avaz cover pg splash 'Clear sign for our future' and pg 2 'EC recommended launching of negotiations with BiH' by A. Humphreys' int for BHT1: comments on forthcoming negotiations on SAA talks	News update, BHT late news 22,00 hrs by Tomislav Djuric - The guest of BHT late news journal was Head of the European Commission delegation to BiH Michael Humphreys. At the beginning of this short interview Humphreys stated that EC does not always get what it wants, but that he cannot remember any case when an important decision - such as this recommendation on opening of negotiations on SAA with BiH - was rejected by the EU Council of Ministers. They should reach a "hopefully positive" and unanimous decision on the beginning of December, which would then mean that BiH could start the negotiations on SAA. Asked if it is possible that BiH would have to fulfil some new conditions for the beginning of the SAA talks - constitutional changes, for example - Humphreys said that it is not an option, because all the conditions were clearly stated in the Feasibility Study; however, there are three fields on which BiH would have to particularly pay attention. Those are cooperation with the ICTY, adoption of the Law on Public Broadcasting Service and the implementation of the police reform. "During the negotiations BiH Government will have to prove that it is capable to adopt and implement necessary laws. When it is done, it will probably become clear if certain changes are necessary", said Humphreys. Asked to comment Chief ICTY Prosecutor Carla del Ponte's statement that there is no political will in BiH to arrest Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic, Humphreys said that there has been significant progress in cooperation with the ICTY, especially in RS. Finding and capturing Karadzic and Mladic is not the condition for the beginning of the SAA talks, but it will probably become necessary if BiH wants to fully cooperate with ICTY and successfully complete the negotiations. At the end, Head of the European Commission delegation to BiH Michael Humphreys stated that the visa regime for BiH citizens should be abolished, but he was not able to say when it is going to happen.

RTRS int with Maroevic: comments on forthcoming obligations of BiH re negotiations	RTRS late news update– Guest of late news was Spokesperson of EC Mission in BiH Frane Maroevic who was asked to explain directive that EC has submitted to the CoE – Maroevic explained that directives are in fact a draft of the whole agreement and include determinations as economy, fiscal policy, determinations in customs, veterinary and in a matter is everything that is included into EU legislative and in fact is the beginning of harmonization of BiH and EU legislation. Asked about first steps that BiH authorities have to undertake, Maroevic said that BiH authorities are currently preparing a negotiating team, which is the team of experts and politicians that will have to present the stances BiH will have during the negotiations. Asked whether they know who could be negotiators for BiH and whether these should be politicians or experts, Maroevic said that this is something that BiH institutions will have to decide on, but it is clear that this team will have to be composed of many experts from the areas that will be a part of the agreement, but since this is a political agreement it is clear that teams should be lead by people who will lead politics and people who will be able to implement all agreed matters. Regarding the Constitution, Maroevic said: “EC can’t give a receipt to BiH...BiH is the one that has to find solution for its own Constitution. We will support any solution, which is a domestic product and which all constitutive peoples agree with...a solution that can be efficient”.
HR Ashdown: Historical day for BiH	RHB, TV Pink, TV Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 ‘Ashdown: this is a historical day’ by Srna, Glas Srpske pg 4 ‘Historical day’ by Srna, Nezavisne Novine pgs 2-3 ‘BiH politicians must continue with reforms’ by Almedin Sisic, Oslobodjenje cover pg splash and pgs 4-5 ‘BiH ready for negotiations with EU’ by Senita Sehercehajic – High Representative Paddy Ashdown has greeted the decision of the EC to recommend opening of negotiations on SAA with BiH, stressing that this decision will irreversibly put BiH on the path toward the Europe. HR stressed that this is a great day for BiH, adding that program will be changed today, while tomorrow BiH will be a different country. HR said that this will give clear vision to BiH where it goes and what must be done in order to get there stressing that journey will be difficult. HR said that it is important to continue activities on police reform, stressing that EU Commissioner Ollie Rehn has stressed that EC wants to see improvements in this area. HR said that if these improvements are made, there is a great chance that OHR and Bonn ’s authorities will be abolished by next elections. TV Hayat – HR said that authorities who have nationalistic intentions could not finish BiH road to Europe, expressing his belief that BiH will become EU member one day. HR stated that apprehending Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic is a condition to end the obsessive past, calling them to surrender instead hiding as cowards. FTV – Journalists asked HR to say if the current government is able to complete started reforms or not: “I’ve said before, and I am saying again now that those nationalistic-oriented authorities are not capable of completing BiH’s path to Europe”, Paddy Ashdown replied.

HR Ashdown: constitutional reform cannot be imposed on BiH peoples; Petritsch: IC made mistakes in BiH Del Ponte on Karadzic and Mladic arrest	RTRS - During the Conference in Geneva "10 Year After Dayton and Beyond" High Representative Paddy Ashdown said that constitutional reform can't be imposed to BiH peoples, but can be achieved only through consensus. HR stressed that changes of the Constitution will not change BiH, but will only remove obstacles toward changes, adding that establishment of one President in BiH should be considered, but this is a matter for BiH people and next High Representative and EU Special Representative. HR said that BiH is between post-war stabilization and transition toward Europe, where Dayton State has to be transformed into Brussels State with a main goal is establishment of the State, which puts its citizens on the first place. HR reminded that PIC is prepared to replace HR with EUSR, during the negotiating process, adding that this could happen till elections next year. "If we catch association with NATO on 2008, I believe that somewhere about 2010 BiH could join the EU"- said Chairman of CoM Adnan Terzic. Former HR to BiH Wolfgang Petritsch said that IC had made mistakes in BiH. "I believe that we have started democratisation process to early with the elections, so that wartime parties were democratically legitimised. That was a great mistake", Petritsch said. ICTY Chief Prosecutor Carla Del Ponte said that if Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic aren't extradited to the ICTY till mid of December, she will recommend some strict ideas to the UN's Security Council, but she didn't specify any details. BHT1 - Chief ICTY Prosecutor Carla del Ponte had a simple answer for the fact that Karadzic and Mladic are still on the loose. "Those reasons are not a secret: there is no political will to arrest them", stated Del Ponte. Dnevni Avaz pg 12 'Changes to the existing constitutional apparatus must be introduced' by Srna, Glas srpske pg 5 'Change the Constitution on your own' by Srna, Nezavisne Novine pgs 2-3 'BiH politicians must continue with reforms' by Almedin Sisic inset 'New Constitution cannot be imposed on BiH' - also carry HR's statement. Glas Srpske pg 5 'She has "strict ideas"' not signed - carries Del Ponte's statement.
HR Ashdown: PIC will give less authorities to next HR Rehn appeals for changes to BiH Constitution	BHT1 - The EC recommendation was the main topic during the second day of International Conference on BiH in Geneva. All participants at this "Ten Years of Dayton and Beyond" conference, including High Representative in BiH Paddy Ashdown, welcomed this EC decision. Earlier during the day, Ashdown announced that the PIC will give much smaller authorities to the next HR, and that institution of HR should be completely abolished in October 2006. Before that, EU Council of Ministers should confirm on December 12 the EC recommendation, and Ashdown is quite sure they will do it. HR Ashdown added that current government in BiH is capable of starting the integration process, but it is not capable of concluding it. "It is very important that BiH, as well as other countries in the region, continue to cooperate with the ICTY. It is also very important that war criminals, such as Karadzic and Mladic, are brought to justice", stated EU Enlargement Commissioner Olli Rehn. Vecernji List pg 6 'EU for change of the Dayton' by mv - reads Rehn had appealed for introducing changes to BiH Constitution before BiH joins EU because 'BiH Constitution is too complex and fiscally unstable'.

Topcagic: BiH authorities will be ready for the start of negotiations	FTV, RTRS, TV Pink, BHT1, Glas Srpske pg 4 'Door to Europe were opened slightly' by Z. Domazet inset 'Topcagic', Nezavisne Novine pgs 2-3 'BiH politicians must continue with reforms' by Almedin Sisic, Oslobodjenje cover pg splash and pgs 4-5 'BiH ready for negotiations with EU' by Senita Sehercehajic - Director of the BiH Directorate of European Integration Osman Topcagic stated that BiH authorities will be ready for the start of the negotiations. Topcagic added that BiH could use the fact that it is behind its neighbours in terms of preparing for negotiations with EU, and use this as its advantage - because BiH will be able to learn from other's mistakes. "It is primarily a trade agreement, which establish the political and economic dialogue at the highest level, and by signing it BiH will formally become a candidate for the EU membership", explained Topcagic. He was not able to confirm the composition of BiH's negotiating team, but he did not reject the possibility that some of the participants at the Geneva conference could be involved. RTRS - Topcagic said that this is a chance for a great turnover in BiH and today, 10 years since DPA was signed, it can be said that establishment of peace has been finished.
Comments on EC recommendations: Bukejlovic, Ivanic, Spiric, Paravac, Stojicic	RTRS - RS PM Pero Bukejlovic and RS Government stressed that great progress has been made and that RS has had a significant role in this process. PM Bukejlovic has expressed readiness of his Government to take active part in negotiations. BiH Minister of Foreign Affairs Mladen Ivanic said that BiH is entering an irreversible process, which will demand a strategy of associating. "First thing that has to be done now is to create our own strategy and what we want to ask and negotiate with the EU. But overall this is a positive event and opening of more then clear European perspective for BiH and obviously something that can't be stopped anymore"- said Ivanic. Chairman of BiH House of Representatives Nikola Spiric said that it is obvious that BiH will have to fulfil all conditions that EC puts before it, if it wants to accelerate its European path. "I think that all forces in BiH should join, in order to compensate for lost time and simply shorten our way toward BiH; but in any case I think that this is a good news for BiH citizens"- said Spiric. Member of BiH Presidency, Borislav Paravac said he is pleased by this news, stressing that much more has to be done in order for Europe to accept BiH as a partner. Speaker of RSNA Dusan Stojicic said that this is recognition for reform processes in BiH, where RS authorities gave great contribution. FTV, Glas Srpske pg 4 'Door to Europe were opened slightly' by Z. Comments on EC recommendations: Ambassador Rycroft, Ivo Miro Jovic, Tihic, Lagumdžija, Dodik	FTV - Great Britain welcomed the European Commission decision to recommend to the European Union Council of Ministers opening of negotiations on Stabilisation and Association Agreement (SAA) with BiH. British Ambassador to BiH Matthew Rycroft said that this decision is the crucial step on BiH's path to Europe. Domestic politicians welcomed the decision from Brussels; they mostly say that there is no reason for euphoria, because it is only the beginning of BiH's path to Europe. BiH Presidency Chair Ivo Miro Jovic and Presidency member Sulejman Tihic are pleased with European Commission's decision. On the other hand, representatives of the opposition parties also welcomed the beginning of the SAA talks, but they warned that it wouldn't mean anything if the process of implementing reforms is not speeded up in BiH. "This decision is expected; now, one could be pleased because EC finally made this decision, but also very sad because we have unnecessarily lost two years since the positive Feasibility study", said SDP President Zlatko Lagumdžija. SNSD President Milorad Dodik also welcomed this decision. Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Crucial step towards Europe' by Srna - carries Ambassador Rycroft's statement. Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Good news' not signed - includes Lagumdžija's and Dodik's statements.
Comments on EC recommendations: Halilovic, Lazovic	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Halilovic: it succeeded despite to obstructions' by H. Orahovac - apart from carrying Tihic's statement, the article carries the statement of the leader of the Party for BiH and Minister for Civil Affairs Safet Halilovic who says the recommendation is of a great importance for BiH because 'we managed, despite to obstructions made in defense and police reform during the past years, to achieve such a level of changes so that the EC has assessed this was sufficient to continue with the process of admission to EU'. SDU's Miro Lazovic shares a similar opinion and says it would be even better if BiH entered the process of constitutional changes and if BiH became a member of PfP by the end of this year.
RTRS int with General Leakey: membership in EU will enable BiH to gain economic stability	RTRS Update on interview by Aida Halilovic - Asked about EC recommendation, which followed after defence and police reform, General David Leakey said that this only justifies the optimism they have about BiH, stressing that membership in the EU will enable BiH to gain economic stability. Asked for his assessment and when could BiH become NATO member, General Leakey said that professionalism that is showed by BiH Army makes him almost certain that BiH could become NATO member by 2008, but General Leakey stressed that BiH or any other country in the region will not be allowed to associate with NATO until people indicted for war crimes are arrested and extradited to ICTY.
SNSD's Simic: SNSD leader Dodik was offered to lead negotiating team	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Dodik was offered the role of chief negotiator' by N. D. - Deputy President of SNSD Krstan Simic on Friday confirmed leader of the party Milorad Dodik was offered to lead the negotiations on SAA on behalf of BiH and he will reply in the forthcoming period of time. He wanted neither to confirm nor deny whether RS President Dragan Cavic was the one to present this offer to Dodik. He noted that Dodik would, most probably, accept this offer under his own terms that will foresee selection of negotiating team's members on the base of their knowledge and professionalism, instead of their party or national background.
Raguz: most attention during Geneva conference given to BiH Constitution	RHB - `Conference "10 Years After Dayton and Beyond" is being held in Geneva and one of the participants, Co- Chair of BiH House of Representatives Martin Raguz has said that many issues were discussed during the Conference, but that most attention was given to the discussion on BiH Constitution. Raguz said that he has presented his position on the matter, which is the same as the one he presented to the European Parliament and that is that ten years is more than enough to see what we have gained from the Dayton. Raguz stressed that limitations of Dayton are more than obvious and if they aren't removed, BiH will remain in stagnating status, especially in areas of economy and financial matters. Raguz said that all these limitations are the matter of the Constitution, due to which he thinks that only new Constitution can solve these issues. "Constitution which will rationalize and make administration structure more efficient, but which at the same time will equalize the rights, considering the character of the State - State of three peoples...abolish injustices and give space to all of us to build the country and to feel good in it"- said Raguz.

Dragan Covic upon return from Geneva Conference: general conclusion – Bonn powers must be changed	Vecernji List pg 11 ‘Bonn powers must be changed’ by Vlatko Ivankovic – upon his return from Geneva conference, dr. Dragan Covic gave an interview to VL , in which he presented statement of participants of the conference and said a general conclusion was that the current administrative apparatus, which IC is formally using in BiH on the basis of the Dayton Agreement and Bonn powers, needs to be replaced with something else, i.e. citizens should create an ambient, through democratic elections, in which they would have such an authority that would be capable of taking the responsibility for everything that is happening in BiH.
