Oslobodjenje: Three years have been lost, and BiH lost a chance	Oslobodjenje cover splash, pgs 4-5 'Three years have been lost, and BiH lost a chance' M. Kavaz - Sirucic - Following the EU Foreign Minister's meeting held in Luxembourg, daily brings the comments concluding that the domestic politicians are not optimistic with regard to BiH's opening of the talks on SAA with EU. "It is time for all sides to sit down and thoroughly analyze the situation. The IC representatives should also estimate to which extent a pressure is efficient to bring any kind of decisions. SDS is under the strongest pressure and the solution would take a burden from our back too," says SDS Vice President Mladen Bosic. SDA Leader, Sulejman Tihic, says RS authorities are the sole culprit for the situation, blaming also opposition parties from this entity. "The beginning and end of all problems is Constitution which enables this," concludes Tihic. Svetozar Pudaric, SDP Secretary General, holds ruling nationalists parties responsible for BiH's situation reminding that in 2002 the country was in the same situation as Croatia and ahead of Serbia. He also deems that the epilogue to the police reform will be known only at the time of upcoming elections, when the people should decide to support either the politics of isolation or integration. Oslobodjenje also note the insufficient role played by the BiH diplomacy in lobbying for the BiH to open SAA negotiations with EU.
HDZ says PBS Law [another EU condition] will most probably be adopted	Oslobodjenje pg 4 inset 'All conditions are equally important' - EC spokesperson, Frane Maroevic, reminds that beside the police reform, BiH authorities has still not adopted the law on the Public Broadcasting System, adding he doesn't know what is the reason for a halt after the decision by the BiH Constitutional Court. "HDZ is not responsible for this, because everything comes to what is being guaranteed to all other peoples and to what Croats are entitled to. This law will most probably be passed even though HDZ doesn't agree with the decision by the Constitutional Court," comments HDZ spokesperson Miso Relota.
FTV: EU decision not surprise for BiH politicians, but they disagree over reasons for a delay	FTV by Blazica Kristo, Rasim Borcak - Referring to the BiH's delays in beginning with the SAA negotiations with EU, FTV comments that the such EU decision was not a surprise for BiH politicians, but they have disagreed about the reasons that led to the failure of the police reform process. BiH Presidency member Sulejman Tihic blames both RS ruling parties and opposition, adding that the key issue to address is the current BiH Constitution. The Chair of the BiH House of Representatives, Nikola Spiric comments: "I expect that we will make up lost time if BiH citizens finally realize that those are not the political options that could lead us to the Euro-Atlantic Integrations." FTV reporter comments that the Croatian and SCG success should be interpreted as a clear signal that EU will not wait forever, although it is ready to start SAA negotiations with BiH as soon as all conditions are met. Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'The expected European "no"' by V. Popovic and M. Cubro - also carries Spiric.

BHT 1 compares situation in BiH, SCG, Croatia : It is not only a matter of ICTY suspects at large, but also reforms	BHT 1 by Lejla Redzovic-Medosevic -BiH is the only country in the region without a kind of agreement with the EU. BHT reporter briefly compares the situation in BiH , Croatia and SCG : Croatia did not extradite Ante Gotovina, but was allowed to start the negotiations on admission to EU; SCG did not arrest general Ratko Mladic, but it will start the negotiations on the SAA . “International politics is not based on justice, but on interests, and that game of interests is not exactly good for BiH in this particular moment”, stated Zarko Papic from the International Bureau for Human Rights. However, BHT 1 comments that the IC’s double standards are not the only reason BiH was not allowed to start the negotiations on SAA , but the failures in police and education reform, for example. “If (Radovan) Karadzic was the only thing we did not do, BiH would be in the same train with SCG last night. We must not be deceived: Karadzic is not the reason BiH did not make it through the first round of qualifications”, SDP President Zlatko Lagumdžija stated for BHT. “We were in front of some countries in the region three years ago, and now we are behind them. We believe that we can catch up with them, but not with current authorities”, said SNSD member Nebojsa Radmanovic.

Cubro – BiH Minister of Foreign Affairs Mladen Ivanic has stated that launching of SAA negotiations with SiCG and Croatia should be a clear sign for BiH that Europe “is not as far as it sometimes seems”. PDP’s Zoran Tesanovic says the positive fact in the entire situation is that EU Ministers had not said the door is closed for BiH. The Head of RS Government’s Bureau for Public Relations, Cvijeta Kovacevic, said RS Government will continue with activities and it will define its direction only after the official Brussels provides it with an interpretation on the European principles, as well as replies with regard to functioning of other RS institutions that depend on the work of the police (judiciary and local administration institutions. SDS ’s Mladen Bosic says RS Government is expecting a reply from the official Brussels and added: “It is impossible that the entire set of measures was unacceptable.” Petar Djokic from SPRS said “the international officials in BiH should initiate a qualitative and serious political dialogue among representatives of authorities’ institutions”.
VL brings reactions by Zubak, Covic, Novakovic, Terzic	Vecernji List pg 6 ‘Croats in BiH afraid of Shengen’ by M. V. – Commenting BiH’s halt in opening SAA talks, NHI President Kresimir Zubak says: ‘If BiH remains a hostage of the RS I am afraid that a large number of Croats would go to Croatia and other European countries.’ The article also quotes HDZ President Dragan Covic who says that the beginning of the negotiations between the EU and Croatia is important since Croatia as a co-signatory of the DPA would have much bigger possibilities when resolving of the constitutional and legal position of the Croat people in BiH is in question. Vecernji List pg 7 ‘New cause of Croat(ian) division’ by R. Dodig carries SDS representative in the EU Parliament Momcilo Novakovic who says: ‘I believe that there would be serious problems for BiH’s approaching the EU because of pre-requisites that were set to BiH.’ Slobodna Dalmacija pg 20 ‘BiH is hostage of RS’ by B. Kristo carries Chairman of the BiH Council of Ministers Adnan Terzic who says: ‘I am calling on the RS Government and all political factors in the RS to de-block the process of the European integration and that we start the negotiations by the New Year.’

RS Prime Minister Pero Bukeylovic believes that their last proposal will be seriously discussed after all. SDS member Borislav Bojic says he has faith in the abilities of the RS Government to come out with a solution adding even the previous proposals were reasonable. Hayat: BiH dream destroyed by RS, only strong IC pressure would help	Hayat by Asim Beslija – Reporter comments BiH has failed to open talks on stabilisation and association with EU, thanks to RS resistance to comply with EU standards. BiH dream is destroyed by RS politicians who think that dividing BiH can lead us to united Europe, reporter commented stressing that EU will not change its rules for couple of obstructionists. EC Spokesperson, Frane Maroevic reminds that BiH cannot start Stabilisation and Association Agreement talks till all the conditions set by the Feasibility Study are not fulfilled, underlining police reform and PBS law. RTRS interview with UK Ambassador Rycroft who urges RS authorities to adopt police proposal by PIC session	RTRS – In the interview for RTRS late news edition, UK Ambassador to the BiH Mathew Rycroft stated another RS Government's proposal on police reform has been rejected because it didn't meet 3 EC principles. He noted that all 3 principles are very important but if he had to pick up one than it would be the principle that all competence of legislative and budgetary issue is at the state level. Rycroft reminded that EU Foreign Ministers decided that BiH will not start the SAA talks by 10th anniversary of DPA because conditions were not fulfilled completely. "I call on the RS leaders to improve that proposal, to come up with a proposal that will meet three EC principles before the Peace Implementation Council meeting on Thursday" said Rycroft. On being asked if IC will take part in the negotiations on the proposal, Rycroft said that they are always ready for the negotiation but only when there is something to negotiate about. "Until we have the RS proposal that meets three EC principles, there is nothing to negotiate about" added Rycroft. On being asked whether IC will impose some sanctions on RS, UK Ambassador replied that the worst measure has been already taken since BiH lost out when EU had been making its enlargement decisions. He added that the standard of living would rise only through integration with EU. Rycroft didn't want to speculate on possible actions to be taken by the HR Paddy Ashdown adding that "he (HR) doesn't want to use his powers to impose police reform and if he were to do so that would disqualify BiH from moving towards EU". Reporter on this stated that HR has rights to impose the police reform on what Rycroft added that "he (HR) has the rights to use the powers available to him but to achieve the police reform that unblocks the road to EU it has to be decision by the leaders of BiH".

Hasic – In an interview to NN, US Ambassador to BiH Douglas McElhaney invited RS Government to accept the European principles on police reform and remove the obstacle preventing BiH from making a progress towards EU for the difference of its neighbors. Asked to say what would happen in case RS authorities fail to accept the principles before PIC session, the Ambassador replied that the biggest loss is the fact there would be no further consideration of launching SAA talks with BiH. The Ambassador emphasized: 'We are not abolishing RS, nobody does. We are asking from RS to negotiate'. Asked whether the 10th anniversary of the Dayton Agreement would be used in USA to introduce drastic changes to BiH Constitution in order to reduce the authorities of entities, McElhaney said: 'We are considering the same question in America – what this country represents in our relations ten years since the Dayton Agreement [was signed]' listing the achieved progress in BiH and saying it seems that parties in BiH have the needed strength to properly direct BiH Constitution. Chappell commented: "As long as these people are at large, NATO will provide every kind of support to apprehend them, not because this is our mission, but because BiH deserves this." OHR spokesperson, Oleg Milisic, commented that everything is now up to the RS Government which should find the solution for the police reform as soon as possible.

DA: Not all the parties support RS Government's conclusions	Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Talk on referendum only extends BiH's agony' - DA brings reactions to the RS Government's session on the police reform, especially focusing at the stance that the citizens of RS should decide on police reform through referendum. RS Vice President, Adil Osmanovic, comments that RS Prime Minister Pero Bujevic should resign as he "doesn't nothing but extending the agony in entire BiH." Slobodan Popovic, a SPD delegate in the RS National Assembly, agrees adding that the Government should be punished. RSNA delegate from NHI, Tomislav Tomljenovic, says that the Government's demand for Brussels to offer additional explanations to the three EC principles only demonstrate irresponsibility of the authorities, and adds that a proposal for referendum is also just a tool for transferring the responsibility to the citizens. SBiH delegates in RSNA, Muharem Murselovic, agrees with later. Avaz on BiH not starting SAA talks: 'Who in Brussels wants new Karadjordjevo?'	Dnevni Avaz, front pg splash 'Who in Brussels prepares new Karadjordjevo?' and pg 3 'Who in Brussels wants new Karadjordjevo?', by Sead Numanovic - Commenting on the news that BiH did not get the green light from the EU to start with the SAA talks, whilst in the same time Croatia and SCG saw through their respective plans, Numanovic raises a series of questions why this happened. He wonders whether the failure was caused by BiH's complicated constitutional structure, in which even "going to toilet can be declared vital national interest", or whether it is conspiracies which revives the agreement from Karadjordjevo (at which Milosevic and Tudjman were allegedly discussing division of BiH back in 1991). Also, Numanovic wonders whether the police and public broadcasting is better in SCG than in BiH, claiming that they are not. Numanovic notices that it could happen in the future that (BiH) Croats and Serbs travel freely by using passports of BiH's neighbors, whilst the Bosniaks would be isolated. Finally, with regards to the Karadjordjevo issue, the author says one should not question good intentions of the EU towards BiH, claiming that it is certain that there are people in Brussels who are lobbying for (new) Karadjordjevo.

VL on possible, future IC politics in BiH	Vecernji List pgs 20-21 'BiH to join EU as Cyprus' by D. Jazvic carries that 2 possible scenarios of the international politics towards BiH have been mentioned lately. According to the first one, the EU would treat BiH as Cyprus, and this means that negotiations would start with the Federation of BiH, while the RS would remain isolated as the northern part of Cyprus. VL says that this proposal did not receive a support of the FBiH officials since they believe that it would reinforce the division of BiH. According to the article, another scenario is related to stronger engagement of the USA in BiH. VL reminds that the Sarajevo based media published that the US administration might use the 10th anniversary of the Dayton Peace Accord in order to promote a new Constitution and a new Election Law, in which there would be no place for the RS in the current form.

"At the same time, it is a key... issue whether there is a political unity in this country regarding the Euro[Atlantic] ambitions," says the author also referring to the role of opposition which, in the case of Croatia, worked in the interest of the country joining the efforts of the ruling parties to ensure talks with EU are opened.

NN op-ed criticising RS institutions' failure to adopt police reform	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'RS stopped BiH' by Mirza Cubro - The author notes RS authorities have, once again, put their personal interest and protection of crime first and they refused to draft an agreement on police reform that would meet EU criteria. DL op-ed blaming BiH politicians for postponement of SAA negotiations btwn BiH and EU	Dnevni List pg 2 'Travel Europe' by M. Karacic carries an editorial which says that while our neighbours were celebrating the progress they achieved on the way to Europe, BiH politicians were surprised by the decision to postpone the beginning of the SAA negotiations between BiH and EU. The author wonders as to what the BiH politicians were expecting after the police reform failure and concludes that it seems that they have not realized yet that we have to adjust to Europe and not the other way round.
