OHR satisfied with the Srebrenica Commission report	SRNA – OHR spokesperson Oleg Milisic stated that the OHR is satisfied with the report of the Srebrenica Commission on the units that took part in the crimes committed in wider Srebrenica region in 1995. He added that the OHR will confirm that the RS Government has met its obligations if all the members of the Commission today sign the report. Milisic underlined that no names from the report will be made public to ensure that subsequent investigations, prosecutions, and eventual convictions, are not undermined. The report and the documents will be forwarded to the ICTY and the BiH Prosecutors Office. “OHR expects ICTY and BiH Prosecutors will prioritise their investigations to focus initially on individuals who are still holding an office in RS or BiH institutions,” stated Milisic.

EU Foreign Ministers: BiH not to start negotiations by Dayton Anniversary; Croatia and SCG start with SAA talks	PINK, FTV, RTRS, BHT1, FTV, Oslobodjenje cover page, pgs 4-5 ‘BiH not to start negotiations by Dayton Anniversary’, Dnevni Avaz cover page, pg 2 ‘Survival of RS jeopardized without police reform’, Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash ‘No commencement of talks with BiH’, pg 3 ‘No talks with BiH over rejection of police reform’ by P.Klinacov, EuroBlic RSpG 2 ‘Another train leaves the station’ by Rajna Radosavljevic , Glas Srpske pg 2 ‘Luxembourg’- Due to the fact that RS Government rejected the police reform in line with the set EU principles, BiH will not start the negotiations on the Stabilisation and Association Agreement with the EU on the tenth anniversary of the Dayton Peace Agreement, stated EU Ministers of Foreign Affairs in Luxembourg. The Council of EU Ministers expressed its disappointment with the RS National Assembly decision to reject the latest proposal on police reform, which met the three basic EU principles. Participants at the meeting in Luxembourg reaffirmed that EU is ready to open SAA negotiations with BiH as soon as all the necessary conditions are fulfilled, hopefully before the end of the year. BHT1, Oslobodjenje pg 4 inset ‘Karadzic and Mladic must go to the Hague’ – Daily carries that the EU officials welcomed significant progress made by the SCG which enabled the EC to recommend the beginning of the SAA negotiation. However, it was stressed that the negotiations cannot be completed before the arrests of Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic . Both print and electronic media widely covered both SCG and Croatia opening talks with EU.
Warning by Ashdown, McElhaney, Humphreys, Rycroft: ‘RS government must decide: Europe or isolation’	RTRS, Hayat, FTV, Dnevni Avaz cover page, pg 2 ‘Survival of RS jeopardized without police reform’, Oslobodjenje pgs 4-5 ‘RS government must decide: Europe or isolation’, Dnevni List pg 3 ‘Last warning to RS authorities expires’ by N. Bise, Slobodna Dalmacija last pg ‘It is necessary that RS accepts reform’ by B. Kristo, Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash ‘No commencement of talks with BiH’, pg 3 ‘No talks with BiH over rejection of police reform’ by P.Klinacov, EuroBlic RSpG 2 ‘Another train leaves the station’ by Rajna Radosavljevic , Glas Srpske pg 2 ‘Isolation is approaching’- The HR Paddy Ashdown , the US Ambassador in BiH Douglas McElhaney , the UK Ambassador to BiH Matthew Rycroft and the Head of the EC delegation to BiH, Michael Humphreys issued a joint statement reminding that ten days have passed since their press conference in which it was set out what was at stake for the RS and BiH by refusing to agree to police restructuring in line with the EC principles. Statement reads that the RS Government has still not found a way forward and reminds that on Friday it produced a proposal, which the EC has once again said does not meet its principles. “This week is an important week – a week in which the EU will take key decisions on enlargement, and the PIC SB at Political Director level from capitals will meet in Sarajevo on Thursday to consider the way forward for BiH. The clock is ticking for BiH and for the RS. This matter must be resolved in days. The RS authorities have a clear choice: to find a solution that chooses Europe, or to risk isolation. So they must think again and act to meet the EC’s three principles in time for Thursday’s PIC Steering Board meeting,” concludes the statement.

Ashdown: RS has clear choice, to find solution or risk isolation	RHB, Hayat, BHT1, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 inset 'Ashdown: How long BiH will be delayed on the road to Europe', Oslobodjenje pg 5 inset 'BiH's progress stopped' - Commenting on the conclusions of the EU Foreign Minister meeting, the High Representative Paddy Ashdown stated: "The difference could not be starker. Five years after the fall of [Slobodan] Milosevic, Serbia and Montenegro – once behind BiH on the road to Europe – races ahead together with the rest of the region. Ten years after the Dayton Peace Agreement, BiH's progress towards the EU is stalled due to the RS Governments refusal to accept EC principles in Police reform. The question now is for how much longer RS politicians will delay BiH's progress towards the EU. The clock is ticking. The RS authorities have a clear choice: to find a solution that chooses Europe, or to risk isolation." RTRS comments that Ashdown has marked the RS as the sole culprit for the blockade of BiH's path towards the Europe .
Reactions to EU Foreign Ministers' conclusion on BiH: BiH politicians deem decision as unjust	Dnevni Avaz, pg 2 'Halilovic: All this reminds of injustice from 1992', by A. M. - Avaz notes that announcement by the EU Foreign Ministers which says BiH will not be able to start the SAA talks on the 10th anniversary of the DPA has been labeled by BiH political parties as scandalous and unjust, requesting that the RS directly punished as the responsible party. Vice President of SDA, Sefik Dzaferovic, says it is high time the RS stopped with obstructions because of which whole of BiH is suffering, saying the RS should be facing institutional sanctions in case the entity does not accept the three EC police principles in next few days. Leader of SBiH, Safet Halilovic, says some powers that be from Serbia-Montenegro are sending the RS messages to block reform processes, including the police reform, which reminds Halilovic of the policy from 1992 when BiH was left to the mercy of those who reached for BiH's independency. Deputy President of SDU, Miro Lazovic, says his party has on several occasions warned of behind-the-stage projects and unprincipled policy of the IC, including the involvement of the Serbian PM Vojislav Kostunica. He believes that obstructions coming from the RS are proves that the Dayton agreement has suffered a defeat, therefore Lazovic advocates for the revision of it. RTRS - SNSD's Nebojsa Radmanovic commented that the RS politicians must had expected such decision from the Luxembourg, as it was obvious BiH did not meet conditions. On the other hand, member of Serb Radical Party Milanko Mihajlica told RTRS that OHR and EC will surely reject any proposal that does not foresee the abolishing of the RS Police.
RS Govt seeks further explanations from Brussels	RTRS - Following the extraordinary session held on Monday, the RS Government announced that the concept on police reform proposed by the RS authorities last Friday was in accord with the three basic EU principles; however, since there are different interpretations of those principles, the Government requested from the European institutions in Brussels to clarify them, stated RS Minister of Internal Affairs Darko Matijasevic. FTV, RHB, Hayat, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'They request for interpretation from institutions in Brussels', Oslobodjenje pg 5, Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'They demand interpretation of principles from Brussels' by V.Popovic, nevni List pg 3 'Government demands explanation' not signed, Glas Srpske pg 2 'Interpretations from Brussels necessary' by G.Dakic - RS Government also believes that different kinds of pressure will not help in solving the issue of police reform. Additionally, the Government requests the answers on functioning of the other RS institutions, whose activities are closely linked with policing. In this context, the RS Government regards as insufficiently substantiated the guarantees given by the IC representatives that police reform is the last great reform for RS before admission into the EU. It was stated that after receiving the responses and clear interpretations with regard to the above mentioned questions, the RS Government will determine the next course of action, not excluding plebiscite as the final form of finding a solution to this matter. BHT 1 - SNSD leader Milorad Dodik stated that it is not a problem for RS police to be a part of future BiH Police. "If that is a problem for someone, than we won't be able to find an agreement", said Dodik. Political analyst Tanja Topic believes that RS Government doesn't have many options left, other than accepting the proposal of the EC.

Humphreys: Principles already discussed at length during all meetings	RHB, Hayat, Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Humphreys: RS Government's moves are disappointing' – Following the extraordinary session of the RS Government, the Head of the EC delegation to BiH, Michael Humphreys , stated that it "is unfortunate that the RS government wants to conduct discussions [on police reform] through the media when it is clear that the proposal does not even meet the first of the three principles on which the EC insists, and that is exclusive state competency for policing in BiH." Humphreys reiterated that the three principles have been discussed at length during all the meetings, adding it seems that there are people who still do not understand them.
Avaz's source in PDP: Ivanic does not have written proposal on police reform	Dnevni Avaz , pg 8 'Mladen Ivanic does not have police reform on paper', by N. D. – According to an anonymous source from the PDP leadership, the PDP President, Mladen Ivanic , has not made a police reform proposal, which he has been talking about in past few days. Avaz's source claims he is only talking to the IC about it. "Only when he finds out what could unify the RS Constitution with the three principles of the EC, Ivanic will present his proposal to the public (...) Until then, Ivanic has nothing new" , claims the source.
FTV '60 minutes' on police reform and Liplje meeting: Church saves SDS political rating; opposition joins to win votes; SDS to play martyr	FTV '60 minutes' current affairs programme, by Dragan Stanimirovic – FTV critically comments on the meeting organised by RS Government and the Serb Orthodox Church held in Monastery Liplje last week to discuss the police reform by saying that it was inappropriate to involve the church in state issues. Mentioning a high number of protests and strikes recently held in the RS due to, as 60 minutes says, SDS and PDP frauds, reporter ironically noted that when the HR Paddy Ashdown punished SDS for police obstruction by blocking their account, party's leader Dragan Cavic cried out saying they have been banished from the political scene. FTV further comments that at this time the Orthodox Church appeared as saviour not of the "humiliated people" but of the SDS political rating, noting even the RS oppositional parties attended Liplje meeting trying to win some votes for the upcoming elections. Meanwhile, says the author, SDS still occupies positions in the most important positions in the government using every opportunity to exploit them. Report concludes that SDS will try, using all their powers, to libel their political allies, SDA, SBIH and HDZ, in order to secure victory at the upcoming elections and would once more play the role of martyr in the name of "divine nation".
Patriot claims a failure of police reform planned by Svetlana Cenik	Patriot pgs 4-7 'A failed attempted of coup d'état?!' by Slobodan Vaskovic – The author notes that as time passes by following failure of talks on police reform, the increasing number of information surfaces, showing that the rejection of reform does not hold so much "patriotic" intentions, but instead it is a well-planned action of individuals, especially Svetlana Cenik , RS Finance Minister and member of negotiating team of RS Government. Her aim was, according to author, to conduct a sort of coup d'état, dismantle SDS and take over authority with the support of the vast population dissatisfied with the offered solutions on police reform. Author notes Cenik has skilfully manipulated with everybody, including Dragan Cavic , Darko Matijasevic , Pero Bukejlovic and also the international community. He claims that Matijasevic is not a participant of this plan of Cenik, but rather indirectly took part in its implementation by being a member of negotiating team and by having detained four members of Cavic's security on Cenik's allegation they were dogging every step Bukejlovic and Cenik made following orders' of Cavic. Article claims that the latest list of 20 senior police officials at RS MoI (which, according to NN last week, OHR delivered to Matijasevic alleging they were involved in criminal activities) was a sort of warning to Interior Minister to declare himself as member of Cenik's group or not. A diplomatic source told weekly "if Matijasevic fails to disassociate from Cenik and Bukejlovic, he will be declared head of that group. If he acknowledges the message, it is realistic to expect that those 20 bandits are interpreted as printing error. His latest moves show he has understood the message." Source did not specify what sorts of moves Matijasevic made.

Minister Kebo meets Bukejlovic, Dodik, Cavic discussing sustainable return	RTRS by Marina Marjanovic – BiH Minister for Human Rights and Refugees Mirsad Kebo and the RS Prime Minister Pero Bukejlovic have agreed that OPEC credit of 8 million USD should be spent on a sustainable return in BiH. Kebo and Bukejlovic met in Banja Luka on Monday and discussed the issues concerning sustainable return. "We have agreed to distribute those 8 millions USD on the criteria of participation in the financing the project, which is fifty-fifty", added Kebo. Two officials also discussed the problems of Serbs from Croatia who are currently living in RS; they concluded that RS Government's demands on the agreement on property-legal relations between BiH and Croatia are fair. "I think that this is simply a need for reducing tensions regarding this agreement; we have to adopt this agreement, and we need to work on normalising relations with Croatia", said Kebo. He also met with RS President Dragan Cavic and SNSD leader Milorad Dodik. BHT 1 – As he visited VL in the eve of the extraordinary session of the RS Government, Kebo commented that Bukejlovic had organized it to try and find new solution which would bring BiH closer to the start of SAA negotiations. According to daily, Ljiljana Redetic, OHR Spokesperson, confirmed that HR Paddy Ashdown will decide in next few days whether further penalties against SDS are necessary. She said that "Zero tolerance" policy still applies to SDS, noting penalties may be expected if established that there were illegalities in financial transactions of Dobož SDS. EuroBlic claims BiH CoM still in dead-ally	EuroBlic pg RS3 'Terzic on a see-saw' by Nedeljka Breberina and Rajna Radosavljevic – Drago Vukovic, the Advisor to Serb member of BiH Presidency, confirmed BiH Presidency will not discuss the crisis at CoM at its next session. He excluded the possibility that BiH Presidency Chairman would initiate the removal of CoM Chairman Adnan Terzic and noted that it was Terzic himself who should check whether his cabinet has the support of BiH Parliament. SDA delegate at BiH Parliament Mirsad Ceman says no person had forwarded any request for removal of Terzic to BiH Parliament. 'It is the fact that CoM is facing great difficulties in its work, but I think it is unwise to raise the issue of early elections because this would be a fruitless act', Ceman says. Party for BiH's Beriz Belkic doubts anything major would change at CoM because it is more logical to expect such a situation to be prolonged until the next elections. HDZ's Vinko Zoric thinks Terzic should not resign because he had already submitted his resignation once, yet it had not been accepted. Inset 'Kukic: no person wants to put an end to it' – Sociologist Slavo Kukic says CoM crisis will last until someone from IC ends it. He thinks the crisis is suitable for the ruling nationalistic parties. 'I think nothing will happen with the disputable PDP Ministers either, because they will last as long as Terzic is on the position and he will probably stay until the end of his mandate unless Ashdown makes some moves', Kukic concludes.

On top of this, Dizdarevic argues that the RS is a monument to evil and right to crime, whilst Dodik is "Radovan Karadzic in Dayton wrapping".
NN op-ed criticizing nationalistic parties	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Entire, but from three parts' by Almedin Sisic – Criticising the leaders of nationalistic parties, the author notes that they have again show eagerness to shatter BiH in three pieces. He notes that in fear of losing their own positions and aware of catastrophic situation they have brought this country in, leading nationalistic politicians have assessed it is a best moment for a decisive political battle for their own interests. Referring to latest allegations regarding meeting between Covic and Covic, the author notes HDZ should not be afraid of HR Paddy Ashdown, since he was the one encouraging and convincing them they are bigger reformists than they thought of themselves. However, Sisic stresses that the USA still has some clear interests in this state, including stable and sustainable Balkans and BiH in it.
