LATEST NEWS OF TODAY

Matijasevic replies to Butler saying he will not submit the report demanded	RTRS - RS Mol issued statement which says that Darko Matijasevic , RS Interior Minister, sent a response to Lawrence Butler , PDHR, related to the letter addressed to Matijasevic on 16 September [Butler expressed concern over possible mixing of policing and politics after RS Mol held press conference on 9 September disclosing details related to the investigations on war crimes committed against Serbs]. Matijasevic wrote: "I am of the view there is no need for you to express concern over this press conference, any other element of intention or cheap politics or timing of the conference. This Ministry has its legal framework, plan and dynamics of how activities, including press conferences, are planned..." He claims that the issue of the RS Mol's cooperation with the ICTY has been grounded on legal provisions. SRNA - Matijasevic also replied to Butler saying he ( Butler ) will not receive the report in question, because it is only the RS Government and RSNA that are entitled to receive such report.
RS PM Bukejlovic does not expect sanctions against the entity	RHB, RTRS - RS Prime Minister Pero Bukejlovic said he had no information RS might be sanctioned over police reform talks failure. Such a thing would be bad since urgent activities are underway to make a police reform proposal that would be acceptable for all parties in BiH, according to Bukejlovic.

Follow up to failure of police reform

DA speculates: 'How will Ashdown punish RS?'	Dnevni Avaz , front pg splash 'How will Ashdown punish RS?' and pg 2 'Will Ashdown announce sanctions?', by S. Numanovic – Avaz reports that the HR, Paddy Ashdown , should be announcing at press conference on Thursday what the IC plans to do after the police reform talks have failed. The daily notes that the OHR has been in last couple of days finalizing details of the press conference, namely who is going to take part and who will say what. Beside HR Ashdown, it is expected that either the Chief of EC delegation to BiH, Michael Humphreys , or the UK Ambassador to BiH, Matthew Rycroft , in the capacity of country presiding over the EU, take part in the press conference. There are some talks about participation of the US Ambassador, EUFOR commander, OSCE chief of mission and NATO commander at the press conference. According to little information Avaz is in possession of, it is possible that a list of people who are banned from entering the US and EU gets extended, and sanctions get imposed on the two ruling parties in the RS Government, namely the SDS and PDP. In that context, DA reminds that HR Ashdown has pointed the finger for police talks failure at the RS PM, Pero Bukejlovic , and ministers Svetlana Cenic and Darko Matijasevic . DA underlines it is especially interesting what happens to Matijasevic, given that he has been 'yellow carded' twice, by HR Ashdown and EUPM Commissioner Kevin Carty , in form of letters. Finally, Avaz wonders what's going to happen to the BiH Presidency member, Borislav Paravac , regarding his violation of HR's decision. Inset 'Criminal in SDS' reads that it would be surprise if the IC decided to ban the SDS because there is no unity within the EU, especially in the PIC about the issue. Allegedly, it is not only Russia that opposes this. RTRS also carries announcement of the HR's press conference.
FTV: Ashdown will dismiss Paravac	FTV, Oslobodjenje pg 2 'OHR will replace Paravac?' by FTV , Dnevni List , pg 2 'Removal of Borislav Paravac today', by FTV , Slobodna Dalmacija , back pg 'removal of member of BiH Presidency Borislav Paravac is being prepared?', by H – According to FTV sources, BiH Presidency member Borislav Paravac will soon be dismissed. The OHR has allegedly already made a decision on his dismissal. He will apparently be informed on the decision on Wednesday. In addition, OHR would apparently also dismiss Nedžad Polic , Zenica-Doboj Cantonal Prime Minister and Salko Obhodjas , Podrinje Canton Prime Minister. They have allegedly gave false information regarding the usage of housing units in certain period, and OHR has informed SDA about this.

Raca border crossing ceremony without RS reps: Silent sanctions against RS?	Hayat, BHT 1, Oslobođenje pg 2 'Who did [not] invite RS delegation?', Dnevni Avaz, pg 4 'Raca border crossing ceremoniously opened yesterday', by E. M. Dnevni List, pg 2 'Serb officials did not attend opening ceremony', by Tanja Dragic, Nezavisne Novine pg 2, announced on cover 'Raca border crossing point was opened', inset 'RS Government representatives did not attend', by Z. Kusmuk- Third newly built border crossing in BiH, Raca near Bijeljina, was formally opened on Tuesday. The project, worth 11. 5 million KM was mostly financed by the EC. RTRS by Svetlana Markovic - While BiH CoM, EC and ITA representatives have took part in the ceremony, no RS officials was present after announcing they were not included in the official protocol and their invitations were sent in Croat instead in Serb language. RS Minister of Finance Svetlana Cenic sees this avoidance of RS officials in the protocol as a sanction against RS authorities regarding failure of police reform. EC delegation denied the accusations by Cenic, expressing regret she didn't appear. "I cannot see what kind of sanction this is, as I already said this is the State border crossing, the State project, which means it is appropriate that someone from the State level open it." stated Maroevic. FTV- "We are disappointed with the fact that they refused to come since this is a great project, which is of importance for the whole BiH", said EC spokesperson, Frane Maroevic. EuroBlic cover pg splash and pg RS1 'Faster over the border, customs officers are pleased', inset 'Causevic: I would have had invited RS Government representatives', by Ljubo Ljubojevic - Causevic said he did not want to comment the fact RS representatives did not attend the ceremony and added: 'It is known who had financed this facility and who had created the protocol - it was EC in BiH'.
BHT 1 also speculates: silent sanctions against RS have already started, Analysts: HR cannot again dismiss officials	BHT 1 by Boris Gagic - BHT speculates that "silent sanctions" are imposed on RS politicians, after they failed to accept the police reform proposal. According to BHT reporter, many things speak in favour of this statement: OHR criticizing BiH Presidency member Borislav Paravac and RS Minister of Interior Darko Matijasevic, problems BiH Minister of Foreign Affairs Mladen Ivanic has in New York where EU reps do not want to talk to him, RS representatives not participating in the ceremony of opening the border crossing Raca, and so on... "Sanction will surely be imposed, and what RS citizens should fear the most are the economic sanctions", Head of the SDA Caucus in the RS National Assembly Tarik Sadovic said on Tuesday. While nobody is mentioning the economic sanctions yet, possible political sanctions are something everybody is fully aware of, stated BHT reporter. Although HR in BiH has already dismissed several RS politicians, analysts now believe that he will not be able to do the same thing now - which will make SDS happy. "You will have to ask Paddy Ashdown and OHR if they intend to remove some SDS politicians. As far as we are concerned, we will continue presenting out positions", said SDS' member Borislav Bojic. RS opposition parties are also against new dismissals, but because of a different reason: "We believe that such punishment will simply bring those ruined political parties back to life", said SNSD member Nebojsa Radmanovic. Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'RS citizens should most fear economic measures' by Fena - carry Sadovic.

DA: Terzic says European Troika underlined doors to Europe still open; Douglas Alexander confirms refusals to meet Ivanic	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Europe's doors for BiH are still open' by S.N. - BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic on Monday departed to New York where he met with the European Troika to discuss the perspectives for beginning the negotiations on a Stabilization and Association Agreement following the RSNA decision to reject the police reform in line with the European principles. DA article reads that the European troika invited Terzic for a meeting after they have refused to meet with the BiH Foreign Minister, Mladen Ivanic. British Minister for Europe, Douglas Alexander, who led EU delegation, told the journalists that "Europe doesn't want to meet with obstructionists". Following the meeting, Terzic stated that "Europe's doors are still open for BiH, and that is good. It depends on us when we will enter." He also added that the EU and EC officials have complimented for progress achieved in BiH in the past two years, however they have also expressed regret with the failure of the police reform. This failure, says Terzic, has been seen as the result of obstruction coming from the RS Government. He concluded that the EC is ready to immediately talk about the SAA negotiations, but EC principles regarding the police reform must be accepted. Prime Ministers says that the officials also discussed the possibility of extending the EUPM's mandate at the end of this year. "We have stressed that EUPM should stay here with the intention to focus its work towards ensuring fast and efficient adoption of the European standards especially within the police reform," concludes Terzic adding EUPM should stay until the end of police reform. BHT1, RTRS, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Terzic seeks for a support to European integrations of BiH' by M. C. - also reported on the meeting. Hayat by Asim Beslija - Hayat reports that BiH diplomacy has suffered another blow after US and EU officials clearly showed that BiH Foreign Minister Mladen Ivanic is not welcomed at the UN General Assembly session in New York .
Carty sends letter to Matijasevic: 'RS did not observe principle on separation of politics from police'	RTRS, PINK, FTV, RHB. Dnevni Avaz, pg 4 'RS did not observe principle on separation of politics from police', by Srna. Dnevni List, pg 7 'Carty warns Matijasevic', by NINA, Nezavisne novine pg 4 'Matijasevic is responsible for involving politics in police business' by D. R. - EUPM Commissioner Kevin Carty sent a letter to the RS Interior Minister Darko Matijasevic on Tuesday stressing the line between the rights of the public to receive information about police work and divulging operational information has been yet again deliberately violated by the press conference organized by the Ministry on 9 September 2005. EUPM spokesperson, Zinaida Ilaria comments: "EUPM believes that the unfortunate series of press conferences held by the RS Mol have shown that this line was all too often not respected. The timing, periodicity and political implications of those press conferences have been an indication that they have been organized following political, rather than policing considerations."
Ambassador Rycroft: RS Government is culpable for failure of police reform	Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'RS Government is culpable for failure of police reform', announced on cover 'RS Government will bear the consequences because of failure of police reform' by M. Cubro - In an interview to NN, British Ambassador to BiH Matthew Rycroft has stated it was clear RS Government bears the responsibility for failure of police reform talks, since it failed to agree with the three principles of EC. 'Those who are putting obstacles on the path of RS and BiH towards Europe will suffer consequences', the Ambassador said. Asked whether EU and Great Britain, as EU presiding country, would undertake any measures because of this, the Ambassador said the main measure is that RS and BiH will stop on their way to Europe. 'This means there will be no new investments, no new jobs nor possibility for its citizens to travel without visas', Ambassador Rycroft stated. He noted BiH will have a new chance to launch SAA negotiations, but only after domestic authorities fulfill all pre-requisites for it.
Cavic: 'SDS pre-determined as culprit'	FTV, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'SDS pre-determined as culprit' by N.N. - Late news edition reported that the RS President Dragan Cavic stated on Tuesday evening that he regretted the fact that no solution on police reform had been reached, due to what SDS was to face sanctions. It is clear that SDS will have to face sanctions since SDS has already been 'accused' for the failure, said Cavic.

DL, VL: BiH to lose millions due to failure of police reform	Dnevni List pg 4 'We will lose million because of RS', by Mensud Zorlak - The article notes that BiH, due to the failure in police talks, will not only lose a chance to start the SAA talks, it will also lose millions of KM from the EU funds that are intended for candidate countries. To illustrate the loss, DL says that Croatia will be using during this and next year some 500 million Euros from the funds in order to improve its economy and infrastructure. According to the director of BiH Directorate for European Integration, Osman Topcagic, there is a possibility that BiH, together with Serbia and Montenegro and Albania, be given access to these funds. He explains that the UK and Greece are supporting such efforts, adding that the outcome will be known by the end of the year. Vecernji List, pg 7, mentioned on front 'EU withholds more than billion KMs to BiH', by Eldina Medunjanin - carries a similar article like DL, and VL notes that BiH will be losing in excess of one billion KMs in the next few years from the EU funds. According to VL, other negative aspects of the police reform failure is that BiH citizens cannot count on the liberalization of the visa regime, and on top of this, BiH is subject to disgrace because its political representatives are being boycotted by the EU.
DA: Isolation of RS started	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Quiet isolation of RS started' Commentary of the Day by Edina Sarac - According g to Sarac, sanctions are quietly being imposed on RS through putting the entity into a political isolation. In addition, Sarac writes, certain sanctions are being prepared against certain RS officials. However, bearing in mind message by RS President Dragan Cavic that the open sanctions might be counter-productive, Europe could apply different tactics, which is to start ignoring RS i.e not recognizing them as equal partners. "Quiet sanctions are currently directed only towards politicians. The question is, however, what will happen when those who elected them i.e. RS citizens start to suffer consequences of these sanctions," wrote Sarac.
Demand for parliamentary investigation regarding talks on police reform	Glas Srpske pg 2 'An urgent investigation' by G.D. - The Caucuses of the Serb Radical Party and Democratic Party of Srpska have demanded parliamentary investigation related to talks run on police reform. Bukejlovic said: " Government is working on it, report must be completed within stipulated deadline, and whether somebody will like it or not – that is a separate issue. " Speaking of the number of military staff engaged in actions around Srebrenica, he noted that " it does not have to mean that all soldiers took part in mentioned events around Srebrenica and I cannot accept that somebody is in advance making judgment whether somebody is guilty. " According to inset "Attacks", Bukejlovic said the attacks of some international community officials against Darko Matijasevic recently are unclear to him, as well as whether those result from discussion on police reform.

RS MoD reminded that in the past several days certain media have reported that Terzic made claims at the meeting on police reform held at Bjelasnica that the method of double solutions was used during defence reform process. Jovic says the criticism by Paravac's cabinet is unserious and surprising. "I think I presented a realistic and concrete image of the situation in BiH. That's why I am surprised with criticism coming from cabinet of Borislav Paravac. It is a personal position of the Serb member of BiH Presidency. Everyone is clear that the Dayton agreement stopped the war, however a just peace was not reached (...) BiH has to transform into a modern state, it could happen only if the Dayton constitution is modernized" , says Jovic.
