EC says there will be no any further talks on three basic EU principles for police reform	RTRS, BH Radio 1 - Following last night's interruption of talks on police reform in BiH and the RS negotiating tem members' announcement that they would ask for certain additional explanations from EC, the EC delegation to BiH said today there would be no bargaining on the three main EU principles regarding the reform. According to Zora Stanic , Delegation's Public Relations Officer, EC is disappointed with the postponement of the police reform talks for Monday and the RS representatives intention to re-launched discussion on the three main EU principles, which a comprehensive political agreement on the issue be based on. EC believes that there is no room for any further political bargaining regarding the three main principles: transfer of police authorities from the entity's to the state level, de-politicisation of police and establishment of police areas on the basis of technical/professional criteria.

RHB comment on HR's 'benevolent attitude' towards RS side	RHB - HR Paddy Ashdown stated that he goes to Brussels to ask EU Enlargement Commissioner Oli Rehn to make clear in near future to the RS officials that the police reform is the last one, that there are no other reforms and the plan for abolishment of the RS. RHB comments on this statement by saying that Ashdown has been benevolent towards the RS side, since he categorically claimed that this is not about abolishment of the RS but that the police reform is opening of the EU door ' to that part of BiH and the rest of BiH '.
RS PoWs challenge RSNA defence decision	RTRS - The RS Association of former detention camp inmates has launched an initiative with the BiH Constitutional Court to declare decision of RS NA on defence unconstitutional.

New round of police reform talks held in Sarajevo , not agreement reached	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Monday - the last chance for European path', mentioned on cover 'Prime Minister Terzic: Our deadline for Europe is running out', by E. Sarac - The talks on police reform held on Wednesday in Sarajevo have not resulted with the agreement on the reform as the RS negotiation team rejected to approve the transfer of police authorities to the state level. "Only chance to so something will occur on 12 September, Monday, when the talks will be held in Banja Luka. After that, all stories will be useless because BiH will not give the green light to start with negotiations on Stabilization and Association Agreement by the end of this year," comments daily. The Chair of the BiH CoM, Adnan Terzic , stated that he realized during the talks that the RS Govt is trying to find a way to make RS Parliament to accept the three EC principles. He added that the RS representatives would have time until Monday to carry out additional consultations with the EC on three key principles set by the EU. "On Monday we will have to say whether we are in favour of the agreement based on those three principles or not, because the deadline for Europe is running out," said Terzic. RS PM Pero Bukejlovic stated after the meeting: "We demand that the public security is to stay in the authority of entities, as well as the budget. Someone wants us to say in this moment that there will be no police jurisdictions at the entity level. That is unacceptable for us and we will be able to say that in five years time after all other reforms are implemented." At the beginning of the talks, the officials discussed both proposals - one by CoM which respects all three EC principles and another by the RS Govt which was apparently dismissed by the EC as unacceptable. After the break, Terzic stated that everything is returned to the beginning. RTRS - Bukejlovic stated that the most uncertain issues are in relation to public security, including police regions. "We have great problem at this moment, because we did not strengthened SIPA enough, which has the authorities that everyone expects from BiH, which can cross entities' borders, etc. This must be solved immediately, besides all those reforms that we agreed that they are necessary," Bukejlovic stated. "We all agreed that SIPA must be very strong institution. But if we want to bring down the reform to SIPA strengthening, that is also good, but not enough for Europe" Terzic stated. Oslobodjenje cover page, pgs 4-5 'RS rejecting to transfer police powers (to the state level)' - Daily comments that the rejection of the RS to transfer authorities "was obviously another trial to trade with clear conditions that EC set before the BiH negotiators." RHB, RTRS, BHT1, Hayat, FTV, Glas Srpske pg 2 'Same target, same distance' not signed , Dnevni List pg 3 'Decision on police reform on Monday' by N. Rerig Mandic – "We have already changed our firm stances, we had at the beginning, in terms of strengthening of BiH police structures, reforms, organization, etc. there are several more issues to be solved in terms of public security," said Bukejlovic after the meeting with Ashdown.
Matijasevic: We will not give in to IC pressure	Oslobodjenje pg 5 inset 'RS negotiating team will not give in to the pressure' – RS Interior Minister Darko Matijasevic told before the beginning of the talks on police reform in Sarajevo that the RS Mol "does not intend to give in to the ferocious pressure of the international community and agree to the transfer of the RS powers in the sphere of internal affairs to BiH." He added that RS Government as to respect the authorities of the RS in line with the RS National Assembly conclusions.
Lagumdzija and Dodik on police reform	RTRS by Momcilo Ostojic – SNSD Leader Milorad Dodik told press conference on Wednesday that negotiations on police reform in Sarajevo will fail as previous ones did, adding that the SNSD will not be involved in police reform negotiations as long as there is a pressure exerted on RS. "SNSD will not talk to anyone as long as this story of the brutal pressure continues" Dodik stated. Commenting on ICG advocating banning the SDS, Dodik stressed out that he is against forbiddance of any political party functioning. BiH SDP leader Zlatko Lagumdzija stressed out that if negotiators agree on something; they will try to implement it as much as possible. "It is obvious that leading national structures and leading coalition do not have enough strength to realize agreement, even if they agree on something under EU pressure" Lagumdzija stated. RS Association of inmates pointed out, in the letter to the High Representative Paddy Ashdown , that Police Reform is just an alibi for final destruction of RS. Dnevni Avaz pg 11 'Paddy Ashdown just strengthens SDS by talk about its banning' – In a statement to DA, Dodik says that by talking about banning the SDS, Ashdown is only making it stronger at the time. Savo Cvjetinovic , Association's President, said that the Association would confront to any sort of imposed solution of police reform, which might involve abolishment of RS Mol.
RTRS int with Ashdown: if RS Govt decides not to allow BiH to join EU, it will be held responsible as well as leading party	RTRS - The High Representative Paddy Ashdown will ask EU Commissioner for enlargement Olli Rehn , to publicly state that police reform in BiH is last demand of the European Commission. In an interview with RTRS, Ashdown stated that there will be no programs for reform of other ministries or initiatives for abolishment of the RS. "IC is ready to do anything to help you to cross over this border, to help you to accept the basic two principles, police authority at the state level and crossing entities' border," said the HR and emphasized that the main party in RS Government, SDS, is responsible for this. "Government is responsible for decisions. If Government decides not to allow BiH to enter EU, Government is responsible and leading party in the Government is responsible. That is democracy... International Community said for several times that RS existence is absolutely guaranteed. I think that it is very important to convince RS citizens that the fear is understandable but wrong," said Ashdown and repeated there will no be any other reforms that would stipulate dissolving of the RS Justice Ministry, Finance Ministry or RS itself.
ICG on police reform	BHT 1 Zoran Sarenac - James Lyon form International Crisis Group stated that without the police reform, the start of negotiations on Stabilization and Association Agreement would be postponed for at least two years. According to him, this would leave BiH in a very bad position compared to the other countries in the region. In October, BiH authorities and European Commission are going to analyse the implementation of 16 requirements from the Feasibility Study. Start of negotiations on SAA will depend on this analysis.
NN op-ed on SDS: SDS should dissolve itself or accept police reform	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'What is SDS to us' by Mirjana Kusmuk - Following HR's, Paddy Ashdown , and ICG statements regarding police reform, the author notes all segments point to the fact the talks are in impasse, because SDS has always been engaged in frauds, freed of any vision or God forbid initiative. She notes that if SDS had really wanted to bring good to themselves and RS, they would have started police talks negotiations with police which recorded good results in fight against crime. Instead, they are using the credibility of police to hush up their own affairs. She concludes there are two ways-out for SDS: to dissolve itself or to accept reform and stay on political scene some more time - until next reform.
FBiH HoP adopted transfer of authorities over defence to state level with text different from FBiH HoR/ Lazovic hopes HR will not react because of diff. text	RHB, RTRS, Hayat, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Delegates against signing of the agreement between entities', Oslobodjenje pg 7 'Decision on transfer of powers to the state level made', Dnevni List pg 3 'Transfer of authorities over defence area to state level adopted' by M. Education issues

SDS in Brcko protests against free textbooks in Latin alphabet/Bosnian language	EuroBlic pg RS7 'Mixed textbooks' by L. S. –President of the SDS Board in Brcko, Ratko Stjepanovic told press conference on Wednesday said he got information from parents of primary and secondary school pupils that free-of-charge textbooks written in Latin alphabet and in Bosnian language are being distributed to pupils again, like it was the case last year. Stjepanovic says it is unacceptable that the Assembly had not discussed this issue before the start of the school year and added: 'The fact Serb children are given textbooks in Bosniak language is an example of a flagrant violation of laws and human rights that guarantee education in one's mother tongue' . He also commented on the current Assembly crisis, saying Mayor Mirsad Djapo is refusing to withdraw the draft proposal of "S" settlement Regulation Plan from the agenda despite to a unified stance of Serb delegates and despite to stances of OHR: "Mayor Djapo is deliberately generating the crisis at the Assembly because he does not want the problems, behind which are SDP and SPRS, to be discussed at the parliament. These problems include the recently revealed illegal disposal of public property" , Stjepanovic says. Nezavisne Novine pg 12 'Serb children got textbooks in Latin alphabet' by N. Ta. , Vecernje Novosti pg 18 'Mosque "resolves" everything' by M. Draganic , Glas Srpske pg 5 'This is how Kalaj has done it' by M. Dj. – also reported on the press conference.
Update to Janja school	Glas Srpske pg 2 'Everybody to get their bench' by M.Stojanovic – Drago Jugovic , Director of Elementary School "Mesa Selimovic", and Collegium of Experts Wednesday proposed that Bosniaks are employed at the vacant positions of teachers of history and homeroom classes. The Collegium of Experts also decided to form eight ethnically clean classes, while Jugovic warns that this separation of children might open door to new political manipulation. He also said that as positions at school get vacated, school will employ Bosniaks, stressing that the interesting thing is that nobody has applied to the vacancy announcement for two teachers, although the issue of discrimination of Bosniaks is raised.

S. Halilovic: newly established school in Rama is illegal/ SD negatively comments on IC reps dealing with education	Slobodna Dalmacija pg 18 'Bosniak school in Rama - illegal' by B. Magas - BiH Minister of Civil Affairs Safet Halilovic believes that the decision of the Rama Municipal Council to establish primary school 'Alija Isakovic' is completely illegal and it would not be able to survive as such. SD also carries that in the whole story about organization of schools in BiH it is a tragic fact that domestic politicians do not have will, knowledge and courage to accept and respect demands of 'the others' and that they let the whole issue to the so-called international experts who do not understand, respect and who are not familiar with national identities of BH peoples.
OSCE concerned with decisions to divide schools	Dnevni Avaz pg 12 'Council of Europe will decide on Bosniak school in Scipe' by S. Skuletic - OSCE spokesperson, Elmira Bayrasli, stated for DA that the decision to establish Alija Isakovic primary school has caused a great concern in the international community. Asked what sanctions could be imposed against the councillors who brought such decisions, Bayrasli said that Council of Europe or EU. Oslobodjenje pg 6 'Worried because of events in Stolac' by Fena - Head of OSCE mission to BiH, Douglas Davidson, expressed concern with the events in Herzegovina-Neretva Canton regarding the education. OSCE spokesperson in Mostar, Samir Alic, said that the organization currently assesses the situation.
BiH Presidency on divisions in schools	PINK Jovanka Nina Stevanovic - Bosniak member of BiH Presidency Sulejman Tihic said that the Presidency doesn't not accept ethnical divisions in schools, and that in order for the recent problem to be solved the International Community had to react as well. Tihic also said that it was inappropriate for local representatives to sign agreements on their own. All decisions, which have not been brought in line with the law, have to be suspended, says Tihic. "We are against schools which are being established and organized on ethnical principle. We support the idea of having children attending the same classes, regardless of their religion", said Tihic.
