Political issues

Ashdown suspends pardoning powers	RHB, PINK, RTRS, FTV, Hayat, Nezavisne Novine pg 2, announced on cover 'Pardons were annulled' by R. Cengic, EuroBlic pg RS2, announced on cover 'Ashdown banned pardons in BiH' by Dusanka Stanisic, Glas srpske pg 3 'Conspiracy against justice' by N. Zelenovic, Dnevni List pg 3 cover 'Instead of Prce's pardon, Ashdown suspended all future pardons', mentioned on cover 'Ashdown suspended all future pardons' by M. Zorlak, Vecernji List pg 4 'Ashdown suspended all pardons' by E. Medunjanin, Slobodna Dalmacija pg 12 'Prce was pardoned legally but not morally' by Z. Rerig - HR Paddy Ashdown suspended the power to all entities, state and Brcko district authorities to grant pardons for those convicted for a criminal offence until a new law is enacted. At the press conference on Tuesday, Ashdown explained that the cause for this was the decision of FBiH President Niko Lozancic to grant a pardon to the former FBiH defense minister, Miroslav Prce. "The Prce pardon represents, it is clear, a gross abuse of a legal process. The unhappy fact is that this is not an isolated abuse of legal process," said Ashdown adding that during the first eight months of this year one in three applications for pardon in the Federation was granted and in RS the figure is one in five applications. However, Ashdown's action does not mean termination of Lozancic's decision to pardon Prce. Ashdown said that his job is to honour the law, even when it is "silly law", and Lozancic, indeed, acted in line with the law. This is why HR has decided not to suspend individual decisions, but to prevent the future abuses. "Now, we have a law which will amend all this and provide a framework for pardons which politicians will make it much more difficult to abuse... This law could be in operation by October," Ashdown said. BHT1 by Gvozden Sarac- Although members of BiH Parliamentary Assembly and Council of Ministers, according to BHT reporter, were aware of the fact that the existing law on pardons is not the best solution, they waited for ten months to start drafting the new law. According to BiH Justice Minister Slobodan Kovac new law will not allow persons convicted for war crimes to be pardoned.
Cavic: HR's decision another demonstration of lack of principles	BHT 1, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Another manifestation of unprincipled behavior', EuroBlic pg RS2 'Ashdown is unprincipled' not signed, Glas Srpske pg 3 'Unnecessary decision' by Z. Ma., Dnevni List pg 3 'Unprincipled suspension' not signed- RS President Dragan Cavic commented that the decision of Paddy Ashdown to suspend all institutional authority for the granting of pardons is yet another demonstration of the lack of principles which has frequently been shown by the OHR, reads the statement by Cavic's office. It adds there was no basis for the application of this measure to the RS president's authority to grant pardons, as it is clearly motivated by the decisions of the BiH Presidency and FBiH president in granting pardons in the cases of Munib Jusufovic and Miroslav Prce. The statement also reads that Cavic believes that adopting a new law on pardons at the BiH level would be contrary to the RS Constitution and yet another harsh violation of entity jurisdiction, which the High Representative in BiH frequently practices, the statement emphasizes.
DL op-ed praising HR's decision on pardons	Dnevni List pg 2 'Every third wins' by M. Karacic comments on the HR's decision on pardons and the author says: 'It seems that a British spy (referring to the HR) has finally decided to cope with the HDZ lobby and show at least for a moment that some people are not above the law as it is usually the case in BiH.' The author also says that it is sad that a politician at such position (referring to FBiH President Niko Lozancic) is trying to be above the law.

Ivo Miro Jovic: Third entity not HDZ's wish, but if two other people have entities third people should have it too	FTV by Halid Rifatbegovic – BiH Presidency Chairman Ivo Miro Jovic and HDZ delegation, also including Dragan Covic and Niko Lozancic, visited Brcko District on Tuesday where they held talks with Supervisor Susan Johnson and representatives of executive and legislative power. Jovic stated he never said that HDZ wants third entity. “But, if two constituent peoples in BiH have entities, that should also be possible for third people. We want what others have, nothing more but the equality in line with European principles.” Commenting the PBS, Jovic said that HDZ did not change its stance on PBS system: “Constituent people such as Croats have their tradition, language and culture, therefore its wants and seeks its channel.” Meeting with Johnson, the HDZ delegation discussed numerous issues, including the development of BD, its position in BiH and relation with entities “We do not want to become the third entity, and we certainly do not want to slow down the reforms in BiH in any way. But we do want to take the place we have with the final arbitrary decision”, said BD Mayor Mirsad Djapo. RHB by Mario Ivkic– Meeting with Brcko authorities and Supervisor, Jovic also stated that it would be good to install the position of Deputy Mayor in Brcko District, which should be granted to Croat people, emphasising that the Supervisor is supporting this idea. BHT1, RTRS, Hayat, RHB, Dnevni Avaz, pg 5 ‘Third entity is not a wish of HDZ’ by E.R., Nezavisne Novine, pg 5 ‘HDZ did not ask for the third entity’ by N. The session will start on September 13; among other things, Ivanic was expected to sign the UN convention on fight against corruption in New York. According to the media, the move is to be linked with the US announcement of December last year that they would ban certain SDS and PDP officials from entering US due to insufficient cooperation with the ICTY.

Pavic comments on the fact that BiH does not have an Ambassador in Croatia and on speculations that Dragan Bozanic would be proposed to this position. JL also mentions the problems that emerged with regard to the agreement on property and legal issues between BiH and Croatia and the author concludes: ‘However, neither the agreement nor the BiH Ambassador in Croatia are the problem. The problem is the marked way of Croatia and BiH towards the EU, where the RS would not be certainly a disturbing factor any longer. Tensions are being heightened because the space of maneuvering is reducing since BiH should sign an Agreement on Stabilization with the EU by November.’

NN op-ed reminding of 10th anniversary of Dayton	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'BiH: A step away from Dayton - now' by Jacob Finci &amp; Christophe Solioz - Reminding of the 10th anniversary of Dayton Peace Agreement, the authors point out this was the reason for scheduling the international conference for BiH on 20 and 21 October in Geneva, stressing the time has come to finally define "turning point" of BiH post-war situation in BiH which is: full sovereignty and EU integration. They express gladness over the fact that officials like Paddy Ashdown, Carl Bildt, Carla Del Ponte, Olli Rehn, Wolfgang Petritsch, Lakhdar Brahimi, Richard Holbrooke will attend the conference. They stress that BiH has been moving ahead from the Dayton provisions - step by step - since 2000, noting this process represents a good chance for overcoming lacks of Dayton!

RTRS comments on police talks: RS expected to change stance, whereas IC will not	RTRS by Biljana Knezevic - Reporter comments that the "saga" on police reform will continue on Wednesday in Sarajevo. "For eleven months RS is constantly giving the same proposals, without basic changes, without any kind of compromise, without any hint of understanding," Paddy Ashdown told on Tuesday. Reporter stated that it is unknown whether RS stances will change, and adds that RS PM Pero Bukejlovic asked those who negotiated at the mount Vlasica to explain him what have they promised and what they have signed. She further comments that unlike RS which is expected to change the stance on Wednesday, IC representatives aren't changing theirs. U.S. Ambassador to BiH, Douglas McElhaney stated: "We will stand firmly on our position, meaning there will be no more foreign investments, there will be no benefits of EU membership and then the EU will say that you don't want this, that you don't want SAA and that is a grand sanction". Risojevic - ICG on Tuesday recommended SDS should be banned if police reform talks fail due to its resistance. ICG also asked from the official Brussels to increase a pressure against RS and Serbian Government in order for them to accept the drafted concept of the police reform. ICG demands for a development of a concept that would include 5, not 10, police regions and they demand members of the Board of Directors not to be Deputy Directors from the entities as PRC report had foreseen. It also demands from Brussels to close EUPM and replace it with a mission that would have the mandate to remove disobedient police officials. ICG also criticized the latest proposal of Adnan Terzic by saying this proposal was softened due to resistance of RS and ICG raises the question whether this proposal would meet EU principles or not. Inset 'OHR: a precise report' carries a statement of OHR Spokesperson Ljiljana Radetic, who said although OHR does not have to completely agree with all recommendations of ICG, it still believes the report was very precise with regard to the presentation of consequences of non-adoption of police reform. FTV - "There is one huge obstacle, and it is called RS, in other words SDS. If those reforms are not adopted, we would ask International Community to prevent SDS from taking part in political life", said ICG analyst James Lyon. Ashdown: EU will not change stances because of RS	RHB, Hayat, FTV, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'EU will not change things because of RS', Glas Srpske pg 5 'Stick in a hand, carrot on a branch' by E. Cengic - HR Paddy Ashdown told the press conference on Tuesday that if the negotiations on police reform do not result in an agreement that is in line with the EC principles, BiH will lose an opportunity to join Europe. "EU will not change its decision, it will not change its standards," said Ashdown, adding that the EU will certainly not change its standards to adjust to the little RS. He deems that the greatest responsibility for this stand of the RS lies with the Government, and not the opposition. He concluded that if the negotiations are unsuccessful SDS will bring RS into a position of becoming an exception in the entire Balkans region which is heading towards Europe and will block BiH's future that offers stability and prosperity.

British Ambassador Rycroft supports ICG assessments	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'There will be no progress towards EU without police reform' - The British Ambassador to BiH, Matthew Rycroft , agrees with the recently announced report of the International Crisis Group (ICG), which states that police reform in BiH is necessary, not only for creating a more efficient policing structure at service of the citizens, but also for fulfilling the last remaining condition for opening SAA negotiations with the EU. SD op-ed on police reform: Ashdown is also powerless against RS'	Slobodna Dalmacija pg 20 'Ashdown is also powerless against RS' by M. Erceg comments on the police reform talks and the author says: 'Even if High Representative Paddy Ashdown would ban SDS because of the police reform obstruction he would be faced with even bigger problems than he is faced now. It would be realistic to expect strengthening of the same political forces that the HR started the war with. Therefore, there is no reason to hope that Serb officials would give in with regard to the police reform.'
GS: RS Govt ready to find solution	Glas Srpske pg 3 'Still, there is a solution' by Z.Ma. - Daily writes that RS Government delegation is ready for finding a solution to police reform at today's meeting in Sarajevo. Pero Bukejlovic , RS Premier, expressed expectation that FBiH officials would today say whether it accepted or not the agreement RS delegation proposed, adding: "It is evident we can do a lot on improvement of police structures if we are reasonable. The responsibility equally rests with negotiators from RS, F BiH, BiH CoM, international organizations, OHR and EC." He said the same proposal, which was rejected twice, cannot be addressed to RS NA. PINK, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Bukejlovic considers as crucial presentation of the position on RS Government-proposed solutions' - also carry Bukejlovic.

Sources also stress that the reason for Cavic's dissatisfaction is Bukejlovic's "hard" stance on police reform, who insists on RS NA conclusions (that ban any change of constitutional order of RS). PDP source claims: "Bukejlovic also left the meeting SDS officials had with Paddy Ashdown at Jahorina, and said he will not play by Cavic's tunes."
SRS's Mihalica: Terzic's police reform proposal is actually SDA's police reform proposal	Glas Srpske pg 5 'Let Terzic say' by D. Mo. - SRS's Milanko Mihajlica told a press conference on Tuesday that the proposal on police reform, for which Adnan Terzic claims to be a stance of CoM, is actually a stance of SDA that was agreed upon with Bosniak officials and was supported by OHR.

D. - Center Club on Tuesday stated their representative at police talks on Vlasic, Rajko Todorcevic , represented a stance described at RS NA conclusions and the Club claims he signed no statement nor any other document with regard to the achieved level of the talks.
DNS on HR: Hasty statement	Glas Srpske pg 5 'Hasty statement' by Z. Ma. - DNS believes carrying out police talks under constant pressures would not lead to a good solution. They find HR's statement, with regard to possible abolishment of RS should police talks fail, was hasty and was not tactical since it pointed on a culprit in advance.
Ashdown: If CoM and parties file, HR to appoint SBS Director	RHB, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 inset 'Ashdown will appoint SBS director?'- HR Paddy Ashdown told press conference on Tuesday that if the BiH Council of Ministers and the political parties fail to appoint the new director of the BiH State Border Service than he would do this for them. "It is up to the BiH institutions to appoint the director, but I cannot leave this post vacated so that the security of the country would not be jeopardized for too long," Ashdown stressed.

G. - EC Head in BiH Michael Humphreys stressed on Tuesday the importance of appointing the SBS Director. He expressed hope that this issue will be successfully resolved at the next BiH CoM session scheduled for September 8. "SBS is without a leadership since July 17 and the inability to appoint it undermines its work at a time of a fight against terrorism, smuggling and trafficking in humans. It is deeply disappointing that the successful work of such a vital institution which protects the safety of the country is blocked by political interference," Ambassador Humphreys said.

Education issues
Update to Janja ethnic division in primary school [contradictory reports]	BHT 1, Hayat - Bosniak pupils from Janja did not come to school on Tuesday. Their parents demand that so-called national group of subjects is introduced, and that Bosniak professors start working in school. According to inset 'Support and warning', the RS NA Deputy Speaker, Sefket Hafizovic , the Head of the Bosniak Caucus at RS NA, Remzija Kadric , and MP, Senija Bubic , all SDA delegates Tuesday visited Janja, denying claims children were manipulated with and demanding all measures set by the law are implemented. One of the conclusions was also that the picture of Saint Sava should be removed. According to inset 'The Law', Milovan Pecelj , RS Education Minister, stated that problems Elementary School at Janja is faced with must be resolved in accordance with the Law.
Prozor Rama school problems: SDA, HDZ decided to separate schools	BHT 1 by Martina Kristo-Antelj - SDA and HDZ in Prozor/Rama municipality decided to separate Bosniak and Croat children in local elementary school. Former elementary school "Marko Marulic" will now have the Croat part, and the Bosniak part - which is now going to be "Alija Isakovic" elementary school. Opposition parties in Prozor/Rama municipality are strongly against this decision, because they believe it is politically motivated, and could lead only to new separations, and even incidents among children and parents. Municipal Council President Sejad Colak said that founding of a new school was the only possible solution, because all children should have the right to be educated by "their", Bosniak of Croat, curriculum. Simun Novakovic from local HDZ said that there is nothing controversial about this decision, because everything has been done according to the law. FTV, Dnevni Avaz pg 11 - also report.

Dnevni Avaz op-ed criticizing opening of school at Prozor/Rama	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Ethnic divisions at school benches' by Sanja Skuletic - Criticizing the opening of Elementary School "Alija Isakovic" at Prozor/Rama, the author stresses that "debates" of councilors on division of schools are far more efficient than efforts the international community makes to unite schools. She raises the question as to who has allowed councilors, but also Minister of Herzegovina Neretva Canton to nip in the bud all hopes of new generations in the stories that unity is the sole future of our state. She concludes by saying as while others are fighting for placing a unified BiH within EU family, they are destroying the residues of unity we have left.
DL: Capljina also decided for separate Bosniak school?	Dnevni List pg 13, mentioned on cover 'Bosniak school established' by V. Soldo carries that according to their source at an extraordinary session of the Capljina Municipal Council held on Monday it was decided to form a Bosniak school in this town. DL says it is interesting that this school would act as a regional school of a primary school in Mostar and the article explains that this brings in question legality of a newly established school since primary school education is under competence of the Municipalities. DL leans that regardless of this provision the HNC Education Ministry gave its 'blessing' for establishment of this school.
SDA delegation visits Stolac	FTV, Dnevni Avaz 'To urgently stop ethnic division of schools and segregation', Dnevni List pg 12 'Minister keeps silent while Prime Minister is not aware of problems' by S.
