Over 40 scientific authorities, from the areas of genocide and crimes against humanity gathered at this conference, which will end on Thursday. Oslobodjenje cover page, pg 8 'Trade with penance in SCG and RS much worse than crime itself', Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'Number of victims could reach 8,800', FENA – Genocide was committed against Bosniaks in Srebrenica in 1995 and not only the planners, executors and the helpers are responsible for its, but also the UN which refused to implement their mandate and the commitments they have accepted, FBiH Commission on Missing Persons President Amor Masovic said on in Sarajevo Wednesday during the second day of the international conference on the Srebrenica tragedy in July 1995. He said that victims of the Srebrenica massacre has so far been discovered in 43 mostly secondary graves and that the FBiH Commission is aware of at least 21 more such sites. "The total number of known Srebrenica mass graves is 64 at this time, while 2.079 Srebrenica victims have been identified so far by using DNA analysis, which has proven to be the only possible method in the identification of victims," Masovic said. "This is not the final number and my assessment is that it could raise up to reach 8.800 victims," Masovic said.

RS Vice-president Tomljenovic says Srebrenica commemoration messages to influence future happenings in BiH	BHT Zoran Sarenac – 10th anniversary of Srebrenica genocide has been marked in many world countries, but not in RS. RS Vice President Ivan Tomljenovic commented this fact, stating that the messages of local and international officials sent out from the commemoration ceremony in Srebrenica on July 11th would influence the future happenings in BiH. According to Tomljenovic, this means changes of BiH Constitution and question of survival of RS. These messages will also influence the creation of ambience of relationship between BiH and the international community. Tomljenovic is satisfied by the organization of commemoration ceremony and work of RS police, but he stressed that many families arrived to late to the ceremony. He believes that more effective controls of police could have enabled more people to attend the ceremony. Slobodan Popovic, representative at RS National Assembly stated that the authorities in Srebrenica should make radical moves in order to help the families of victims to cope with the past. Some analysts believe that RS officials are not making public statements on Srebrenica because they don't want to upset the voters before the elections. The same reason probably caused the official ignoring of decision of BiH Council of Ministers on mourning day for Srebrenica, which wasn't respected in RS.

BiH Parliament Assembly member Nikola Spiric stated that there is no need for a compromise on truth, but there must be a consensus on a political act such as the resolution on Srebrenica. Families of victims say that they have never asked for the resolution, and it wouldn't mean anything for them. Munira Subasic from Association of Mothers of Srebrenica and Zepa Enclaves stated that the fact that the resolution hasn't been adopted yet is not a surprise, but it is a shame. Tilman Zulch from "Society for Threatened Peoples" stated that the problem lies with the fact that BiH is still divided, and many war crime suspects still haven't been arrested. The reporter commented that Croatian Parliament could adopt the resolution on Srebrenica before the BiH Parliament Assembly.

According to experience of Lithuania, whose association process took 14 years, this process is very difficult. As Petras Austrevicius from Lithuanian Commission for EU Issues explained, Lithuanian didn't have problems with reform of administration and human rights. However, Lithuanian major problems were related to economic issues and market economy. Only two West Balkans countries which have signed the SAA are Macedonia and Croatia . BiH authorities should now decide on 11 development projects which will be financed by the EU.

Now we have to find finds to de-block the road... in order to start negotiations on Stabilization and Association Agreement in mind November," adds Prime Minister also urging parties to take a stance of RS Prime Minister, Pero Bukejlovic, on continuing discussion on the issue in institutions. He underlines that current RS ruling parties have done plenty for the entity and country in past two and half years, adding it would be a shame not include police reform in it. On the issue of war crimes, asked whether there was genocide committed in Srebrenica, Cavic said: "I am not going to play with that word and it is not up to me to give such qualifications. Those authorized should do that. Genocide as legal qualification must be proved in the court." Cavic notes that verdicts by ICTY such as those in case of Radoslav Krstic [which explicitly say genocide] refer to individual cases. Asked whether activities to improve RS cooperation with ICTY is a result of the measures by the High Representative, Cavic responds: "What do HR's measure mean? Lets be entirely open and sincere. Here in RS, for a person removed by HR it is like receiving a medal for courage. Don't you think I would like to receive a medal from citizens?" He concludes that the easiest way for a politician to solve his problems is to create situation in which HR will remove him/her.

HR acts to save KM 30 million monthly losses	Oslobodjenje pg 10 'Tax stamps will be issued', Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Entities and Brcko can continue with issuance of tax stamps', FENA – The High Representative on Wednesday issued a Decision to provide full legal clarity with regard to the transition of full responsibilities for indirect taxation to the Indirect Taxation Authority (ITA). The High Representative acted in response to a request from the ITA Governing Board. The Decision will permit Entity and Brcko authorities to continue to issue tax stamps that appear on tobacco and alcohol products for a short interim period until the ITA is ready to issue these stamps itself, OHR said. The High Representative's decision is designed to ensure that there is no loss of revenue. Failure to enact the decision would result in a loss of up to 30 million KM per month, which could in turn result in, for example, arrears in vital Entity level services such as education. A great deal of work has been accomplished in a short period of time in the indirect taxation reform process. The ITA has been created, a single state level account activated, and all indirect tax legislation is at the state level. However, in order to ensure stability of revenue flows into the single account and taxpayer convenience, the transition of responsibilities must happen at the earliest opportunity – that means as soon as the ITA is ready to assume them, OHR said.
