| Terzic address BiH HoR on accepting Ivanic's resignation | BH 1 Radio by Mustafa Karahmet – At a session in Sarajevo today, the BiH House of Representatives is discussing yesterday's CoM Chair Adnan Terzic's decision to accept BiH Foreign Minister Mladen Ivanic's resignation submitted in December last year. Terzic informed the deputies on the reasons for the move reiterating that he decided to accept Ivanic's resignation due to Ivanic's behaviour which, according to Terzic, forced him to request HR Paddy Ashdown to do the CoM's job and appoint SIPA Director and all this because the authorized Ministers could not have agreed on the issue regardless of the agreement on distribution of top state posts reached earlier within the BiH Presidency and BiH parliamentary majority. According to this agreement, SIPA Director should have been of Croat nationality. Terzic, however, emphasized that he would have accepted Ivanic's resignation even if HR Ashdown had decide to appoint a Croat to the post in place of Sredoje Novic, who is of Serb nationality. Terzic said he could be removed and the whole CoM but he cannot allow the situation in which HR will do CoM's job. Opposition deputies reacted promptly asking the PM why he had not informed the parliament on the situation/crisis in CoM on time i.e at the end of last year when such an information was requested from him. Tihomir Gligoric (SPRS) said that Terzic had abused a letter of resignation submitted long time ago to enter into a political conflict with his colleagues in CoM having different political opinions. Jelina Djurkovic (PDP) reminded Terzic that he had been the one who had requested OHR to take leading role in reform of defence and police, as well as appoint SIPA Director. She also asked Terzic why he applied double standards with regard to the submitted resignations? She explained that while Terzic accepted Ivanic's resignation of December last year, Branko Dokic recently had to sign and submit a new letter of resignation regardless of a fact Terzic had his December resignation on his desk as well. The discussion on the issue continues. |
| SNSD: Terzic and Colak should resign                     | FENA – President of the SNSD Executive Board Nebojsa Radmanovic stated that SNSD believes that Adnan Terzic should submit resignation after his 2,5 years long activity failed. Radmanovic also said that that BiH Security Minister Barisa Colak should resign as well since contrary to the Euroepan principles he advocated appointment of the SIPA Director according to the political and not professional criterion.   |
| No agreement on extradition of war crime suspects        | RHB, RTRS – The tri-lateral conference on cooperation between judiciaries of Croatia, BiH and SCG, which starts today on Brijuni, Croatia, and which discusses issues pertaining to war crimes, has managed to maintain the ministerial level at the very last moment, after the OSCE Mission to Croatia gave up on its declaration. The declaration had a disputable provision, which foresaw extradition of war crimes suspects among the three countries, which was opposed by all three countries because the provision violates the countries' constitutions.  |

Kristo– The Chair of the BiH Council of Ministers, Adnan Terzic, accepted the resignation filed by the BiH Foreign Minister Mladen Ivanic in December 2004. Terzic explained at the press conference on Tuesday that the reason is Ivanic's obstructionism in appointing SIPA director, which led him to ask from HR Paddy Ashdown to do this on behalf of CoM. PINK by Zeljko Mandic – Commenting on the HR's decision to name Novic as the head of SIPA, Terzic said that Ashdown had no other option because Novic was the best candidate. "This is not a case of my and my colleagues' inability to reach agreement, but the inability to implement a political accord they themselves have reached," stated Terzic adding that the BiH Presidency had a signed agreement according to which Croat should be appointed SIPA Director, but Ivanic obstructed the agreement. FTV – "I gave [Ivanic] enough time to change his decision, but he was doing all he could to obstruct this process, which eventually led to the appointment of Novic", concluded Terzic. |
| Terzic: Ivanic's replacement will not be from PDP; I expect Covic not to deepen crisis; Bonn powers must not be abolished | Dnevni Avaz cover splash 'Great rift in the State Government', pg 2 'I had to accept Minister Ivanic's resignation' by S. Numanovic – In a statement to DA, Adnan Terzic explains that decision on Ivanic's removal is effective as of Tuesday and that his duties will be temporarily performed but the Ministry's secretary. Prime Minister expects no replacement for Foreign Ministry to come again from PDP adding it is possible that the parliamentary majority will be changed. Terzic concludes that he is aware he started with a crisis "which could lead to change of authorities, even some elections", but stresses he could not have given up on principles. Inset 'I don't expect Covic to deepens crisis' carries Terzic as saying he expects to address the BiH Parliament session today to explain on his latest actions. "It would be catastrophic if SDS withdraws its ministers. But I don't expect [Dragan] Covic and others from SDS leadership to deepen the crisis and to be blamed for this problem after the failure regarding the police reform," says Terzic. Inset 'Don't touch Bonn powers' carries Chair of CoM as saying that he hopes "this would be a clear signal to the international community that the HR must not be stripped of the Bonn powers at any cost. Without those, we would not have SIPA today. Those wanting to see processes in BiH slowed down just wait for the moment to abolish Bonn powers and than to rule processes." RTRS also reports on Terzic's statement on Bonn powers.   |

| Ivanic says he would not leave position: 'CoM is not Terzic's private company' | FTV, Hayat, Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Ivanic: I will remain Minister' by V. Popovic– BiH Foreign Minister Mladen Ivanic told SRNA that he would continue to do his job, assessing that Terzic's decision to consider his resignation from December was "total political rubbish". Ivanic added that the BiH public was aware that the resignation was practically void since the Neum meeting. He said that citing SIPA as an example of obstructionism was a completely inconsistent principle. "The OHR's statement that it has chosen the best candidate is proof that I am right," Ivanic added. He underlined that he would continue to do his job until the debate in the BiH Parliament. BHT 1 by Mirela Cosic, Slobodna Dalmacija last pg 'Ivanic: Political cowardice of Terzic' by B. Kristo – "I parted with [Terzic] at 1415 today [on Tuesday] and he had not breathed a word about his intention to reach such a decision. It seems to me that it is some kind of human and political cowardice, which I have not expected particularly not from him," Ivanic said in a statement to BHT 1. He added that BiH will now face the government crisis, which could be solved only in two ways – with the agreement between leading parliamentary parties, or with new elections. RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'I don't accept removal!' by S.N. – In an interview to separate interviews with RTRS and Dnevni Avaz, Ivanic repeated accusations against Terzic. Oslobodjenje pg 3 'CoM is not Terzic's private company' by V. Zivak – Asked by daily whether it is true that he obstructed the work of the CoM for the past six months, Ivanic said that Terzic has no evidences for such claim. He added that he would "allow Ministry to be headed by somebody else because CoM is not Terzic's private company". He concluded he doesn't believe that IC was behind this Terzic's move. |
| PDP officials: Terzic's immaturity could lead to crisis                        | Glas Srpske pg 2 'Revenge over Novic' by N. Zelenovic and Z. Markovic inset 'Milojevic' – carries a reaction of Deputy President of PDP Goran Milojevic who has stated that CoM Chairman Adnan Terzic, by accepting Ivanic's resignation, had showed political immaturity that might lead to a political crisis in BiH. EuroBlic pg RS3 'Embitterment in PDP' EuroBlic team – Deputy BiH Minister for Civil Affairs and PDP member Zoran Tesanovic, who had offered his resignation to Terzic in December as well, has stated he did not know whether the CoM Chairman had reached a decision on his removal too. 'I believe delegates would not be satisfied with this decision either and, after all, BiH again enters crisis of the authority. I think Terzic, by making such moves, is trying to drag CoM in crisis and, by doing so, to divert attention away from real problems', Tesanovic has stated while expressing his surprise over Terzic's decision to remove Ivanic.  |
| OHR: 'We do not see how the removal would contribute to reforms'               | Hayat, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'OHR: We don't see how will Terzic's decision help reforms', Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'OHR: We do not see how the removal would contribute to reforms' by V. OHR spokesperson Kevin Sullivan explained that the HR has issued the decision following seven months of uncertainty over the appointment and that he has appointed the candidate rated as best qualified by the BiH CoM's own Selection Committee. "SIPA...is too crucial an institution in BiH's overall rule of law effort to allow such a vacuum to exist at the highest level of the Agency," said Sullivan. |
| Colak disappointed with Novic's appointment, but denies he would resign           | Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'That decision leads us to dead end' by F. Vele - Commenting on Novic's appointment BiH Security Minister Barisa Colak stated that this HR's decision leads state government to "dead end" and that it imposes the thesis that "there is no reason to continue like this." DA comments that while Colak would not say it, it is apparent that he was won in political game. "[Paddy] Ashdown called me this morning and told me he would appoint Novic. I agreed. However, I asked the question whether this leads to the dead end. What obliges me to implement certain political agreements? Some previous events and especially this one confirm definitive crisis in the authorities. There is not reason and we should not go on like this anymore," stated Colak adding that he never said he would resign.Vecernji List pg 3 'Colak disappointed with Ashdown's decision' not signed -Colak stated that he absolutely does not agree with the HR's decision. "It seems that we (referring to Croats) would be in even more difficult situation. Zorlak - Commenting on the statement given by Mladen Ivanic who said that Sredoje Novic was appointed the SIPA Director because Novic had better results at the test than him (Dragan Lukac), Lukac said that this information is not correct. Lukac added that he scored better results from Novic, however, the way in which an average grade is being determined when the best and worst grades are being eliminated is problematic.  |
| DL says HDZ angry with HR decision to appoint Novic                               | Dnevni List pg 3 'Ashdown did not respect agreement reached with Covic' by M. Zorlak - DL says that the HR's decision to appoint Sredoje Novic to the position of the SIPA Director made HDZ representatives angry. HDZ stressed that by the Novic's appointment an inter-party agreement, according to which a Croat was supposed to be the SIPA Director, was breached. Jazvic, Slobodna Dalmacija 'Sredoje Novic SIPA Director' by Z. Tulic - VL also says that Novic enjoys sympathy of the OHR and EUPM although he is an old SDS cadre who at the time when he was the RS Minister of Interior and SIPA Director did not do anything when the arrest of war crime indictees is in question. SD says that the aforementioned HR's decision is a complete defeat of BiH Security Minister Barisa Colak and HDZ. FTV, editor Amarildo Gutic- FTV strongly criticised decision to appoint Novic stating he was one of the most eminent SDS officials during the war in BiH, a kind of liaison officer between RS intelligence service and the Serbian state security. FTV also accused him of illegally transferring taxpayers' money in order to finance the police unit providing protection to Radovan Karadzic.  |
| Op-eds on Novic's appointment/Terzic's acceptance of Ivanic's resignation | Dnevni List pg 2 'Punishment for Sredoje Novic' by N. Bise carries an editorial on Sredoje Novic's appointment which reads: 'Who cares about the fact that according to an inter-party agreement a Croat was supposed to be the SIPA Director. In any case Lord Ashdown 'punished' Croats enough and this was obvious at the end of the HDZ Convention held last Saturday.' Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Incompetent authority' by Dragan Risojevic - Following Adnan Terzic's removal of Mladen Ivanic, the author stresses the deepest of all crises may fall upon BiH, possibility resulting in early elections, which was the initial goal of Terzic's action. The author notes that Terzic himself should have reached decision on the appointment of SIPA Director, not to let decision on HR Paddy Ashdown. Author concludes: "By this, the current authority has showed it is absolutely incompetent, irresponsible and non-prepared to take over European tasks ahead of it. It does not even think about better life of citizens." Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Terzic's Ivanic' op-ed by Senka Kurtovic - Editorial is critical of Terzic, concluding that his decision to accept Ivanic's decision only demonstrates PM's weakness and inability to deal with any problem. |

Burns, among other issues, announced the continuation of the US presence in BiH, and added that BiH would be in "the NATO avenue when you catch Karadzic and Mladic". The conclusion of the talks was that, in order for BiH to become a democratic, civic and developed society, it is necessary to complete the reform processes, accelerate economic renewal, continue with full cooperation with the ICTY and prevent the support network to war crimes suspects. Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'We will help you ensure better future', mentioned on cover 'If RS does not want to cooperated it will make damage to itself by its own' - Meeting group of journalists in Sarajevo, Burns emphasized that a significant progress had been made in BiH and that, if the proper reforms of police, defense and economy are carried out and if the most wanted war criminals are brought to justice, there would be no reason for the entire region to establish good relations with EU. Oslobodjenje pg 5 'Bosnian Serbs are making damage to themselves by their own' also reported on Burns' meeting with/address to journalists. According to the daily, Burns emphasized that RS Government should have information on who was helping Radovan Karadzic and other war crime indictees. |

Whilst being a guest of the 'TV Kompas' show of the Hercegovacka TV Mostar, Covic did not reveal how many ministers' mandates would end, noting that "it all too late for a good part of them". He explained that he would talk to all nine of them in the next 10 days, after which the HDZ Presidency will decide who goes and who stays. VL notes it is only certain that Dragan Doko will leave the BiH CoM because of personal reasons, whilst it is expected that the current FBiH Finance Minister, Dragan Vrankic, replaces him. Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'I believe that BiH needs not a single entity', mentioned on cover 'I have never used lies in my life' - In an interview with the daily, Covic said that HDZ BiH was now entering a new phase of its political engagement at the BiH political scene firstly because it would be acting through an agreed system inside the party and secondly because it would for the first time have a president who would not be engaged in the legislative or executive authorities. Hebrang believes that in case that Covic's counter-candidate Bozo Ljubic had been elected the HDZ President back in 1998, the Croat people would have been in a different position now.
