- Operating the (SDHR) armoured vehicle;
- Transporting the (SDHR) to and from any location/destination as requested;
- Maintaining the (SDHR) vehicle in a clean manner and ensure it is serviceable at all times, and report any defaults immediately to the OHR Transport fleet supervisor;
- Conducting reconnaissance activities as requested by the (French) CPU of any routes that the (SDHR) will use or locations that the (SDHR) will visit, and conduct general preparation before undertaking any trip with the (SDHR);
- All other tasks required of Senior Drivers as set out in OHR General Rules for Drivers and the OHR Transport Policy;
- Acting as a Translator for the (French) CPU as required;
- Carrying out autonomous implementation of the directives of the CPU within the line of duty;
- To be attired in smart clothing as dictated by the (French) CPU Team Leader; as a minimum this is jacket and tie;
- To have a knowledge of and the ability to implement the Guidelines for the Protection of Persons at Risk;
- Be on call 24 hours a day 7 days a week, with the requirement to work long shifts (minimum of 12 hours on most occasions);
- A general acceptance that the (SDHR) CPU Driver is a potential target and must therefore concentrate fully at all times when in operation of the vehicle,
- A general acceptance that the (SDHR) Driver may be separated from family and friends, possibly for several days;

- Be capable of independent and proactive assessment of the changing security situation. Maintain a flexible and appropriate reaction in all situations.

PROFESSIONAL REQUIREMENTS / QUALIFICATIONS:

- Completed Secondary Education;
- Minimum of 1year experience in a similar role, preferable in an international organization;
- Completion of a Diploma in the Operation of Armoured vehicles and/or recognized practical experience in armoured vehicles driving;
- Technical knowledge of professional and close protection driving, plus basic knowledge of vehicle mechanics essential;
