Members of the local police forces have been informed about the action, but they are not taking part in it. The aim of the action is to collect information on war crime indictees and persons helping them. "The reason why we have conducted the search is because we have reliable information on persons who live in the house and who are being involved in supporting war crime indictees", said NATO Spokesperson, Derek Chappel. Persons, who were in the house as NATO forces arrived, were transferred to a van, in order for the search to be done easily. Chapel said that certain items had been confiscated, but he did not want to say what kind of items. "We have confiscated certain items as result of our search, and those items will be taken back to camp Butmir for forensic examination, and eventually they will be returned to the family", said Chappel. There were no incidents reported during the action.
European Parliament's Pack blames international community, BiH authorities for failures to arrest Karadzic, Mladic	BHT Elvir Bucalo – Chief of European Parliament Delegation for Southeast Europe, Doris Pack, accused the International Community and BiH authorities of big failures because of which the most wanted war crime indictees Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic are still at large. At the same time, NATO reiterates that Alliance is not the only one in charge with arresting Karadzic and that it would be good if he voluntary surrenders to the ICTY. According to officials from NATO headquarters in Brussels, nobody should expect only NATO to be the one who is going to arrest Karadzic, said BHT reporter. FTV, RTRS, Dnevni List pg 3 'Doris Pack: Who is responsible that Karadzic and Mladic are still at large' by De.L. also carried Pack's statement.

The author says: 'If there was a wish to arrest Karadzic and Mladic it would have been done long time ago...We can only guess as to who stands behind the current strategy of war crime indictees' arrest. The yesterday's EUFOR and Nato's action in Pale was a show for small kids since Karadzic is somewhere around, however, none wants to see him.'

SDA Convention to be held today	Oslobodjenje cover pg splash and pg 7 'Final break up between Tihic and old personnel?' by Az. K. and A. O. - The article carries an announcement on today's (Thursday) Congress of SDA. According to some speculations, this Congress might see final break up between former party personnel and a part of current leadership, with Sulejman Tihic at the head. Tihic should present a new program of the party, promoting anti-fascist values and presenting the party as an opponent of discrimination and totalitarianism. According to the article, permanent dissatisfaction of old personnel, who were excluded from development of party policies and reaching of important decisions within the party after Tihic became the President, lay in the background of alleged ideological differences. Some latest information says this personnel supports Elmir Jahic , a candidate for SDA President. Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Leadership of the party to be elected by secret voting' by A. M. - Also carries the announcement on SDA Congress.

He emphasized that CoM must primarily decide whether it would apply professional or political criteria in this case. He thinks he and BiH Security Minister Barisa Colak cannot resolve this issue alone and says: 'These are matters of principles that should be resolved by CoM' .

PM Bukejlovic, Minister Gaspar on first 100 days of RS Government: Vault getting more money, salaries increase	Glas Srpske pg 3 'Vault getting more money, salaries increase', EuroBlic RSpg 2 'Premeir angry with tax payers' – Pero Bukejlovic, RS PM, at Wednesday's press conference gave assessment on first 100 days of RS Government performance, noting all reports point at positive trends in production increase, RS budget increase and general standard of RS citizens. On Police reform, Bukejlovic said that both sides will have to partially step away from currently exclusive stances. In a statement given to SRNA news agency, Bukejlovic said that the bigger problem regarding police organisation exists in F BiH, than in RS, noting that responsibility for bad functioning of police wants to be transferred onto RS. He said that all indications show that RS Mol has been achieving extremely good results in both, cooperation with the ICTY and fight against crime. He notes that dismissal of some police members would result in police pay increase, adding that police reform should cost BAM 140 million. Pink, RTRS, Glas Srpske pg 3 'A right course', EuroBlic RSpg 2 'A hard burden of inherited problems' by M. Soja – Deputy RS PM and RS Minister of Trade and Tourism, Boris Gaspar, stated at Wednesday press conference in Banja Luka that the Government has positive economic factors but it can always do better. As a comment on the first 100 days of RS Government, Dodik said: 'I have said even earlier that its work was not noticeable and I have also said that it is a sterile, inefficient and completely failed Government'.
RS President Cavic: Dayton is protecting Srpska	RTRS, Glas Srpske pg 2 'Dayton is protecting Srpska', Vecernje Novosti pg 4 'Dayton is a salvation straw' by J. Simic – RS President Dragan Cavic, stated in Novi Sad (held a lecture at Matica Srpska on topic "RS – ten years after DPA") that all those who are in favor of separation of RS from BiH have to know that they are opening a story on violation of Dayton Agreement. He stated that the biggest guarantee for RS is its status in Dayton Agreement and if RS wants to leave it has to know where it is going, stressing that leaving the Dayton Agreement means conflict with everyone and in that case RS would get the worst of it. He emphasized: "We must run a policy within the framework of DPA – the policy that does not violate integrity and sovereignty of BiH. However, we also demand that our international right recognized in the document is respected – and that is that Republika Srpska is regarded as factor in decision-making process."
DL on background of Hadziomerovic's resignation	Dnevni List pgs 6 and 7 'Tihic sold Hadziomerovic to Ashdown' by N. The article says that on the ground of these letters the one can conclude that Hadziomerovic's resignation to the position of newly elected President of SDA Mostar is a result of extortion and political blackmail. According to DL, the HR and Butler warned Tihic that over 3 years ago Hadziomerovic did not remove Nedžad Behram, who used to be a head of the department for housing issues in former Mostar Municipality Stari Grad and who had been removed by former HR Wolfgang Petritsch. Hadziomerovic claims that his predecessor Semir Drljevic respected Petritsch's decision and removed Behram. DL also says that Hadziomerovic has been under pressure of the SDA Mostar fraction led by former SDA Mostar President Hamdija Jahic and Tihic and SDA Vice President Mirsad Kebo joined this campaign. DL inset under headline 'Tihic is not certain about his victory' carries that one of the reasons for Tihic's wish to eliminate Hadziomerovic is the fact that Hadziomerovic in an interview recently given to DL stated that Tihic should be replaced by another SDA leader.

He views Terzic's statement (that there is a possibility he would re-shuffle BiH CoM) as "impudent". He says he has expected more from Terzic, noting it is inadmissible there is no single Serb representative leading any state agency. Spiric stresses that Terzic, strongly supported by HR and people from IC, managed to humiliate other peoples in BiH. On this he adds: "Adnan Terzic proved to be HR's note without checking account. The blanc support Ashdown gave to Terzic may be viewed as mistake... Terzic cannot make orders to everybody in BiH and hence I find him to be note without checking account of international community, that will have to pay for having allowed Terzic to push on his concept of Bosniak people, humiliating and pushing other peoples in BiH against the wall." He does not want to make any particular comment regarding police reform, noting that a false impression is being created in RS public on this subject.

According to the Chair of the Section, Muhidin Alic , issue of Energopetrol privatization is still unsolved. Alic says that Energopetrol needs to be privatized but that the buyer should not be from the region. "Consortium INA-MOL consists of unequal partners in terms of customs, since Hungary pays 10 % on oil products, while INA pays none, and according to this, BiH is going to lose 150 million KM per year" , said Alic. During the meeting, the Section agreed that there would be no increase in prices of oil in FBiH, since the price is more or less stable at the World market.

He explained that since December last year when the FBiH Constitutional Court concluded that the FBiH law on construction, that is the law on urban planning is not in accordance with the Constitution, the competent Ministry did not have instruments to order an inspector to implement the decisions since the construction inspector at the FBiH level did not exist. Mehmedagic added that in case that his Ministry acted they might have been accused for illegal behaviour. He also said that apart from the Stolac cross the problem was also the monument to Bleiburg victims in Radimlja and some other cases.

Gojkovic – The experts in the field of education in BiH share the view that the reason why BiH is taking the rear position (the place before the last) on the list on level of development of high education amongst participants of Bologna process is the fact that Law on high education has not been adopted as yet.
