Ashdown addresses RSNA on police reform: BiH to join SCG on path to EU, or to be isolated	BH Radio 1 By Radmila Grubisa, RHB – Addressing the RS National Assembly today, the HR Paddy Ashdown said that " police reform is not an assault against RS", nor "secret conspiracy prepared for abolishment of entities". He stressed it is possible to identify solution, which would include survival of RS MoI, however strongly underlined that police reform requires establishing of the single structure. Warning MPs to carefully think over the options as this reform would determine whether BiH joins SCG on its path to EU or will stay isolated.
BiH HoR has not discussed Covic's replacement, expected to discuss PBS law	BH Radio 1 By Mustafa Karahmet, RHB – BiH House of Representatives, which commenced the session today, again failed to include the discussion on appointing new Croat member of the BiH Presidency as no names of candidates were put forward. Representatives also rejected demand by the HDZ to hold extraordinary session to discuss HR's decision to remove Dragan Covic , stressing the discussion on the replacement must be held within next two weeks until 5 May. HoR today will discuss the draft law on Public Broadcasting System in BiH, previously rejected by the Croat Caucus due to failure of the law to stipulate establishment of the Croat channel.

The report was forwarded to the BiH Presidency and OHR. The report contains letter of the RS Defence Minister, report of the commission on incidents in Manjaca and Bileca barracks on April 16 and additional materials. The RS Defence Minister proposes an urgent adoption of policies and guidelines, based on the BiH Defence Law, regulating all segments of functioning of the military organisation without waiting for the final solutions of the new cycle of defence reform. He ordered 99 recruits who have not correctly signed the text of the oath to repeat the oath-taking ceremony. Should any of them again refuse to sign the oath they will be removed from military service and legal action will be taken against them. In addition the RS Defence Minister will propose to the RS Government to postpone calling on duty the August class of conscripts. The BiH DA: 'IC source: RS Defence Minister, Army Commander to be removed?'	MoD expects the RS MoD to continue working on establishing all facts and the responsibility of individuals concerning these incidents. Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Stankovic and Djukic to be removed?', mentioned on cover, by S. Numanovic – A high-ranking office of the international community told Avaz under a condition of anonymity that both OHR and NATO have received the report sent by the RS Defence Minister Milovan Stankovic on the events that took place on 16 April swearing-in ceremonies in Manjaca and Bileca, and that they currently analyze it. " It is clear that RS President Dragan Cavic and RS MoD Stankovic are on being seriously tested. They personify institutions from which we expect serious actions. Events that occurred in Manjaca and Bileca are very serious incidents for us," says the source. DA says that OHR will hold the meeting today with NATO and BiH Defence Ministry to discuss the report and estimate which measures to be undertake. At the same time, the RS Army's Security has continued with interrogation of 99 recruits who rejected to sing the oath to BiH. "They will be offered to sing the oath. Whoever refuses again will be excluded from the army and brought before the court. However, the responsibility doesn't stop that I believe that higher levels are responsible," source notes adding that "higher levels" would be Stankovic and RS Army HQ Commander Novak Djukic.

Dakic – At a session in Banja Luka on Wednesday, RS Government concluded that it found the idea of having decentralized security system in BiH acceptable, but according to which RS Ministry of Interior and RS Police will continue existing and having full control/jurisdiction in the entire entity's territory. RS Government's conclusions state that the report of the Chair of Police Reform Commission, Wilfred Martens , does not include official stances of RS officials, due to what it could be considered only as a working document. RS Government believes that security sector reform could be done only by general consensus in BiH. "I hope that during the RS National Assembly session, which is to take place on Thursday, we will be able to get a platform for talks to follow" , said RS Minister of Interior, Darko Matijasevic .

	stabilization phase into the transition phase, and urged the BiH authorities to make additional efforts in view of fulfilling the conditions necessary for accessing the EU and NATO. He underlined BiH's obligations in police restructuring and ensuring full cooperation with the ICTY. After touring the EUFOR base in Butmir and talks with the representatives of EUFOR, EUPM and the OHR, Duhr underlined the preparedness of the EU to provide full support to BiH in realizing the conditions set out in the Feasibility Study, i.e. opening the negotiations on Stabilization and Association. He also raised concerns about the incidents in Manjaca and Bileca on the occasion of oath-taking ceremonies by the March class of RS Army recruits. Duhr stressed that he fully supports the stand of the EU and other international organizations, which call for conducting a detailed investigation and determining responsibility for the organizers of those events. Responding to journalist questions on the preconditions for launching the negotiations on Stabilization and Association with EU, Duhr said that interest exists for BiH accession to EU as soon as possible, and reiterated that police reform and cooperation with the ICTY are the priority tasks on this road. The High Representative, Paddy Ashdown, also indicated the importance of the ongoing reform processes on the BiH's European road. He ascertained that in this process it is necessary to finally define all matters regarding the establishment of the Public RTV Service BiH (PBS) and fulfill all remaining "technical" conditions from the Feasibility Study. Members of the EU Political and Security Committee, headed by Chair Paul Duhr , are paying a visit

	'Talks in BiH Presidency', FENA – BiH Presidency Chair Borislav Paravac and Presidency member Sulejman Tihic on Wednesday received the delegation of the EU Political and Security Committee, headed by its Chairman Paul Duhr .
	BiH Presidency members briefed the delegation about BiH's clear foreign policy orientation towards the EU and NATO, as the best insurance of stability in the country and the region. Talks focused on the course of reforms that are being implemented, especially in the security and military sectors. BiH Presidency members welcomed the European Parliament's Resolution on BiH dating from April 14. Ambassador Duhr called on the authorities make additional efforts aimed at launch of the negotiations on Stabilization and Association with EU because BiH and the EU would be partners during the long road towards full BiH's integration into EU structures. The officials expressed hope that that the three-day meeting of officials, which is scheduled from April 24-27 on the mountain of Vlasic, would result in finding an appropriate solution to police reform in BiH, read the press release issued by BiH Presidency.

the Srebrenica events as was requested, it provided the working group with	t list of 25,000 individuals deployed in the Srebrenica area in July 1995, without defining which of these individuals were attached to units involved in the massacre. Consequently, the High Representative has informed Prime Minist Bukejlovic that the working group must be reconvened without delay, with the	e following mandate: To require the RS Interior Ministry to provide the missing information by 31 May; to ensure that all materials provided to the Srebrenic	a Commission are forwarded to the Working Group by 31 May; to establish the reasons for the inadequate VRS response; to complete the list of names (currently standing at 892) of those implicated in the massacre who are currently employed in BiH [Bosnia-Hercegovina – B-H] or RS institutions, and	to forward this completed list to the BiH Prosecutor and to the ICTY.

"Privatization revision] will happen for sure. It is a right of every parliamentarian and political option to take its stance on the issue, however I want to underline that this is not directed against any particular company. Someone proclaimed this was about selective revision, which completely wrong The law on revision has an aim to take over the duty of judiciary, but all these suspicious things [in privatization] must be before the courts. Those who are to control and where irregularities determined will submit reports to Prosecutors," says Zigic.
