

Statement by the High Representative on Admiral Smith

Statement

by the High Representative, Mr. Carl Bildt

June 6, 1996

I very much regret that Admiral Smith is leaving his position. We have had excellent cooperation throughout a difficult but successful period and the support he has been giving to our efforts has been crucial.

Office of the High Representative