HDZ also calls on all its officials in the bodies of authority to keep working in accordance with the Constitution and laws of BiH. Covic adds that if the trial would continue in the same manner it could last for years and that he would like it to start as soon as possible. He also states that the process was aimed at “removing those thinking with their own heads”. Stressing he is convinced that new BiH Constitution would be proposed until the end of this year, Covic said that the entire process is directed solely against Croat people and that he is just a link that is on someone's way to organize BiH without Croat people. Expressing support to Covic, Raguz also says that decision like this could lead to crisis but he hope a solution would be found as soon as possible since a crisis would not be in interest of BiH. Commenting on possible pressure against Croat people, Raguz stated that a certain pressure against Croats could be felt continuously during the reforms process. He concludes that the reforms tend to bring changes only at the state level, while the situation in the entities remains the same, which is wrong.

NN op-ed: author Sekulic says Dokic made wrong decisions, cares only about his ministerial position	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Dokic goes as well' by Aleksandar Sekulic – The author notes that if Branko Dokic were indeed a legalist (as he likes to present himself), he would not wait to be removed. Hence, the question can be raised what and to whom Dokic wants to prove. If he were following the example of Dragan Covic , then he would be mistaken. The only thing Dokic has managed to prove lately is the fact he only cares about ministerial seat, as well as that his personal, inter-party and intra-party interests are far more important to him than the interests of state, institutions and voters.

Following the meeting with RSNA Speaker Dusan Stojicic and representatives of the RS Parliamentary parties, Ashdown said that the political theatre in RS mostly agrees that there should be no political control over police and they support transfer of jurisdiction at the state level. He also noted that cooperation of the RS with the ICTY is moving from a negative into a constructive period and that if it continues the issue of police reform could remain the only obstacle for BiH entering the EU. PINK- "People in RS and FBiH should not think that mighty Europe is going to beg BiH to enter the Europe," said Ashdown. In Lukac's case, that is the FBiH Interior Ministry.

The DRC has achieved the agreement on professionalisation of BiH Armed Forces but the issue of recruitment, military service and reserve haven't yet been sovled. "NATO and the High Representative require abolishment of the entity ministries, establishment of the BiH Defence Ministry, Joint Headquarters and operative command of BiH" , said Gregorian and added that entity armies will exist in the future as well but they would be paid from the state budget. Almost all members of the DRC agree that BiH need to have professional armed forces in accordance to NATO standards, said BHT reporter. "Certain ideas about reserve officers exist and probably nobody wants to erase reserve officers completely" , stated BiH Deputy Minister of Defence Enes Becirbasic .

The reason for the request is the fact that the decision of BiH Constitutional Court on constitutionality of peoples is still not in use in FBiH. On top of that, Paravac claims that one of chambers of the FBiH Parliament is not constituted in accordance with the FBiH Constitution, which means that the issue of protection of vital national interest cannot be invoked.

At its last session, the Commission had requested from the BiH CoM, the EC and the OHR to try to reach a compromise with the HDZ regarding the proposal of their amendments to this bill. Jovanovic said that the Commission has received a response that they did not manage to reach an agreement with the HDZ. According to him, the essence is that they do not accept three channels, and HDZ maintains its stand of requesting the existence of three channels – in Croat, Bosnian and Serb languages.

Beslic critical of IC's efforts in Mostar	RHB, Dnevni List , pg 13, mentioned on front 'Beslic: International Community let Mostar down', by Sanja Bjelica – During visit to Mostar on Thursday by outgoing Senior Deputy High Representative, Werner Wnendt , the Mayor of Mostar sent critical messages saying that that the OHR did not fulfil all the promises it had made when Mostar was being unified. Ljubo Beslic pointed out to numerous problems he is faced with, such as financial problems that are inherited from former municipalities in Mostar. He also stressed that he had asked from the HR to quicken up the process of moving of five FBiH Ministries to Mostar in order to take care of surplus workers in the City administration easier. In that context, he categorically noted that there would not be dismissals of workers until all the Ministries are completely moved to Mostar. SDHR Wnendt noted that things looked much better than 20 months ago, when he first arrived to Mostar, stressing that the problems originating from the past could only be overcome through unification of the city and implementation of the new Statute. VL: Time for HR Ashdown to leave	Vecernji List , pgs 2-3 'A. Richard in OHR?', by Miso Relota – The article claims that both domestic and international public are more and more convinced that the current High Representative, Paddy Ashdown , should leave BiH before his mandate expires. He refers to Bosniak Caucus at RS NA who placed VNI veto on RS NA conclusions of defence reform and the establishment of the Sarajevo Assembly elected without Serb official. He poses a question as to whether the HR Paddy Ashdown would prevent this violation of Constitutional provisions in Sarajevo, responding it would rather be the case that his own silence would install this example as a rule. He further refers to Croat people, saying it is now more concerned about criminal activities of their leaders. He further criticises HR for having used the situation (resulting from USA ban against PDP) to rehabilitate two most extreme parties of Serbs (SDS and Radical Party) – the parties that have started the war. He also criticises the statements of Borislav Paravac and Pero Bukejlovic regarding crimes committed against Serbs in Sarajevo, adding where they got the idea the genocide against Serbs was committed.
