

OHR member Alexandra Stiglmayer injured in accident

The Head of the OHR's Public Affairs Department, Alexandra Stiglmayer, was injured in a riding accident yesterday near Sarajevo. She was immediately transported to the SFOR military hospital in Rajlovac and was flown out early this morning to Germany for medical treatment. She is in a stable condition. The High Representative, Wolfgang Petritsch, and his staff keenly await the return of their much valued colleague and friend.