

Dr Dragan Gasic resigns as International Administrator of RTRS

The High Representative, Wolfgang Petritsch, and the International Administrator of RTRS, Dragan Gasic, are of the opinion that the time has come for the start of a new phase in the restructuring of RTRS.

After fundamental changes made to RTRS in the last two and a half years, the broadcaster should now prepare intensively for its important role within the framework of the Public Broadcasting System (PBS). The High Representative intends to put in charge an enlarged supervisory team in order to achieve these objectives. Following this initiative of the High Representative, Dragan Gasic has, therefore, resigned from his office.
