Political issues

Dodik, Cavic discuss cooperation with ICTY, Constitutional changes	FTV, BHT 1 by Adela Malkoc – RS President Dragan Cavic and SNSD leader Milorad Dodik agreed on Wednesday that the RS authorities should determine the responsibility for the lack of cooperation of the RS with the ICTY. At the meeting held on Wednesday, they further concluded that the RS must prove to the international community that RS is ready to punish all those opposing the cooperation with ICTY. Dragan Cavic commented: “We must prove them that we are working on this efficiently and without any prejudice. All individuals representing an obstacle for this will be recognized and punished by us, and not by the international community.” Milorad Dodik stated: “We must stress that the new Steering Board of RS Mol is actively working on meeting international obligations. However, the policy of the Government has lead RS into a situation where RS is only watching all this, creating the impression that thing must be this way.” While RS officials are trying to determine the responsibility for non-cooperation with ICTY, the IC and BiH public are waiting for concrete actions. BHT comments that HR Paddy Ashdown has clearly stated that RS must cooperate with ICTY, otherwise RS will face sanctions, and we will not have to wait long for reactions. RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 ‘Any aggressive change of Constitution will cause new political conflicts’ by Onasa, Vecernji List, pg 3 ‘We will punish for lack of cooperation with The Hague’, by bs – Both Dodik and Cavic also agreed that any pushing for constitutional changes without census of Serb people and their political representatives in BiH will lead to further political conflicts, and this must be understood by both FBiH and IC. Nezavisne Novine cover and pg 4 ‘Punishments for everyone protecting Hague fugitives’ by V. Popovic; EuroBlic cover ‘Agreement fails and RSpg 3 ‘Negotiations without agreement’ by Rajna Radosavljevic; Glas Srpske pg 5 ‘We will not allow blackmails’ by N. Diklic – Dodik has said SNSD does not support BiH CoM and he invited other parties to reconsider their stance towards this institution because it does not reflect the interest of everyone in BiH, while Chairman Adnan Terzic is implementing SDA policy. During that session, agreement on state border, due to different policy attitudes, will not be signed. SCG wants to sign an agreement on exchange of territories, but BiH officials do not agree with it. BiH Presidency and BiH CoM believe that agreement on border crossings, as well as agreement on free transport of people and goods should be signed first. Member of BiH Presidency, Sulejman Tihic, notes: “SCG officials believe that agreements on border line and territory exchange must be signed at the same time. We believe that the agreement on border line needs to be signed first.” In that context, Tihic explained that SCG is demanding corrections to the border in the section around the Belgrade-Bar railway line and around the Drina river lake near the Bajina Basta hydroelectric power station. BiH and SCG will sign several technical agreements on border crossings and cross-border traffic. Agreement on mutual legal assistance is also being considered.

Questioned to comment on negative reactions in the BiH and Serbian public on his recent apology, Tadic stated that he said what he thought, noting that the negative reactions were signs that he was right in his apology. “In order to form a 21 century state we have to forgive each other for all that happened between us in the entire last century”, said Tadic. Following the meeting between Tadic and Lozancic, the two of them told the press that the main item on the agenda was the economic cooperation. Vele – “Serbia doesn’t threaten to anybody, and it never will, it will contribute to stabile politics in the region,” said Tadic.
SD: Tadic wants BiH made up of three parts	Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 17 ‘Tadic wants BiH made up of three pieces’, by Blazica Kristo – Commenting on the President Boris Tadic’s visit to BiH, the author writes: “His tour of BiH according to the ethnic principle, Sarajevo on Monday, Banja Luka on Tuesday, Mostar on Wednesday, Tadic is trying to present it as if Serbia treated all constituent peoples in BiH equally. According to that, it would appear that the only revision (of Dayton Peace Accord) that would divide BiH into three pieces, and that the RS remains intact within current borders, is acceptable to Tadic”.

Update to Njegus' appointment to CoM	EuroBlic RSpG 3 'Mektic: No obstructions to appointment of Njegus' by N. Breberina – Dragan Mektic, BiH Deputy Security Minister, has told EuroBlic that there are no legal restrictions to the appointment of Radomir Njegus to position of Advisor at BiH Security Minister, adding that even the international organisations, that give assessment regarding the cooperation with the ICTY have no objection to this appointment. Mektic further claims that "tensions are caused needlessly in cases when the appointment of personnel from RS is in question". He adds: "If there were remarks on the work of Njegus as RS police director, it did not mean that he no longer can assume position at any other institution. Well, many officials of BiH are advisor, and the Hague classified them in "B" files for crimes, meaning indictment has been upheld but further investigation is necessary." RTRS – also reported on Mektic statement. Dnevni Avaz pg 2 "Mektic: OHR approved the appointment of Radomir Njegus' by F. Cardzic – Mektic claims that OHR also approved Njegus appointment. FTV on appointment of Mostar mayor	FTV by Ivan Pavkovic – HDZ and SDA officials met in Sarajevo on Wednesday to discuss the election of Mayor of Mostar. FTV comments that they obviously reached the agreement on appointing Ljubo Beslic as new Mayor. However, there are still a number of issues unsolved. OHR Spokesperson Sanela Tunovic invited the Council to work for the benefit of citizens, and journalists notes that HDZ and SDA obviously trade with the positions in Mostar administration. SDA further insists on an inter-party agreement on solution for problems of Aluminij company and Bijeli Brijeg stadium. HDZ on the other side doesn't accept these conditions and raises the issue of Kuwaiti loan that allegedly created debts for some municipalities. Vecernji List, pg 5 'HDZ and SDA electing Mayor', by Ivan Pavkovic – also reports on HDZ's refusal to accept SDA's conditions.
DL and SD on appointment of Mostar mayor	Dnevni List, pg 12, mentioned on front 'Crisis in City Council continues', by N. Bise – Daily reports it is uncertain whether the continuation of the session of Mostar City Council (MCC) adjourned last week will take place today (Thursday) at all. According to DL's information, the Bosniak Caucus in the MCC, which is to meet prior to the session of the MCC, will not reach an agreement on vote of confidence to candidates for President of MCC and Mostar Mayor. DL further explains that the issue whether to support Ljubo Beslic as the new Mayor of Mostar has divided the SDA of Mostar, which puts the SDA councillors into an awkward position. In that context, DL reminds that an SDA Vice President, Bakir Izetbegovic, was in Mostar three days ago when he indirectly conveyed a message from the SDA leadership that Beslic's candidacy had to be supported in exchange for Bosniaks getting appropriate positions in the City administration of Mostar. According to DL, now the SDA councillors have two options – whether to defy Izetbegovic or to support Beslic, plus the third option – to fail to reach an agreement in the Bosniak Caucus, after which the MCC could not hold the session. Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 7 'Ljubo Beslic new Mayor of Mostar', by E. Karamatic – According to SD's information, the party pinnacles of SDA and HDZ last night finished negotiations regarding the election of Mostar Mayor. Apparently, a general agreement has been reached that Ljubo Beslic be elected the Mayor of Mostar.

Mayor NN op-ed on Ivanic	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Ivanic like Zuka Dzumhur' by Almedin Sisic – The author is critical of Mladen Ivanic and his frequent “travels”, and also of the latest interview he gave to Vecernje Novosti , Serbian daily. The author notes that BiH Foreign Minister, in tearful manner unusual for him, complained to the Serbian public he is exerted to numerous pressures in Sarajevo in the fight for the Serb interests. The author notes Ivanic did not try to balance his statement with purpose, since he decided to look for help at the other side of Drina river. The author further stresses that Ivanic has never had a better life than now with all these travels, adding that he does not give accounting to anybody, although he should.
NN op-ed on PIC communiqué	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 8 'End of lies' by Dragomir Babic – The author is assertive of the latest PIC communiqué, warning individuals to move from the way of BiH integration into Europe. He notes it is high time the High Representative Paddy Ashdown acknowledged who he is dealing with in RS and to remove them from power. According to him, the group of individuals from RS has been lying on the people and HR as well for years now.

Admission to Partnership for Peace

BHT 1 on BiH's admission to PFP	BHT 1 by Elvir Bucalo – BiH most probably will not be invited to join the Partnership for Peace at the NATO summit in Brussels on 9/10 December. Reason for this is lack of cooperation with ICTY. NATO Secretary General, Jaap de Hoop Scheffer , stated recently that the cooperation with ICTY is one of most important conditions for joining PFP, in addition to defense reforms. Robert Serry , Chair of NATO Balkans Task Forces, comments: "Partnership for Peace is your first ticket to Euro-Atlantic structures. If you look at your neighbours, you will see that they are also moving towards the Partnership. As long as this is [not the case with BiH], you will remain in a sort of isolation." According to agenda, NATO will discuss the issue of West Balkans today [Thursday]. However, it has been emphasized that NATO and EU will take the ICTY Prosecution's report into consideration.
Tihic seeks sanctions against RS	FTV, Oslobođenje pg 5 'Possible collective sanctions for RS' by M.K.S. – The BiH Presidency member Sulejman Tihic said that it can be assumed that BiH will not be invited to the meeting of NATO's Euro-Atlantic Council, because nothing has changed since last NATO summit in Istanbul with the regard to the cooperation with the ICTY. According to Tihic, RS failed to meet the obligation of arresting war crime indictees at large. Tihic expects NATO to adopt resolutions insisting on cooperation with ICTY, and he also suggest certain sanctions. Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Tihic: I expect penalties for RS from the NATO Summit'; Glas Srpske pg 3 'Penalties awaiting for Srpska' – Tihic adds: "The so far sanctions against individuals did not bear any fruit, so it is logical for more sanctions would follow." Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Agreement on borders with SCG must be signed without conditioning' by A.M. – Tihic said that since nothing has been changed, the issue of the existence of the RS Interior Ministry has been disputed.
Ivanic: If I am to be held responsible for non-accession to PFP I will resign	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'If I am to be held responsible for non-accession to PFP I will resign' by S.N. – In BiH Foreign Minister Mladen Ivanic 's opinion another rejection of the BiH's application for joining Partnership for Peace is nothing new. "Since the (NATO) Summit in Istanbul there has been no apprehensions of war crime indictees what has been a pre-condition for positive response (to the application)," said Ivanic adding that the latest response from the Brussels was therefore not a surprise. Ivanic said that he did not believe that any of the Serb representatives in the BiH state institutions should be held responsible for the latest rejection of the BiH application by Brussels but that he was prepared to resign if such the move of his would resolve the problem.
Radovanovic on NATO Summit	EuroBlic cover and RSpG 1 'Deadline expires today, new removals threatening' by M. Jandric – Nikola Radovanovic , BiH Defence Minister, commenting on upcoming NATO Summit and the fact BiH has not been invited to attend. He notes that "one should not be too wise to conclude where we stand now, since we have not been invited to attend. I believe the reason is because no progress has been achieved in the cooperation with the ICTY."

DL reactions to BiH failure to join PfP	Dnevni List, pg 3, mentioned on front 'Stop to invitation to NATO meeting', by Arijana Beus - DL carries the reactions to BiH failure to be admitted to PfP. Svetozar Pudaric from SDP says: "In a way it confirms that BiH goes backwards and that now we are in position we were at in the year 2000", says Pudaric. Seada Palavric (SDA Vice President) says it is the RS authorities that are responsible for lack of cooperation with the ICTY. "Because of the lack of cooperation, I believe in sanctions against RS authorities", says Palavric. Anto Spajic (HDZ Vice President) is not familiar that BiH did not get the invitation, however he believes if that's the case, it is tragic for both the state and BiH citizens.
DA op-ed on PFP	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Response from Brussels' Commentary of the Day by Edina Sarac - Sarac says that today a news will arrive from Brussels to BiH that BiH has again failed to meet conditions for Partnership for Peace. She emphasized that if this time there will be no decisive actions against those obstructing the process, nobody knows how many NATO Summits will be held until BiH is admitted into PfP.

War crimes
RS Helsinki Board slams RS Govt decision on material assistance to PIFWCs	BHT 1, RTRS, Oslobođenje pgs 4-5 'The biggest benefits for fugitives from RS' by A. Omeragic - War crime indictees from RS wanted by the ICTY might become the best paid Hague fugitives if they accept the latest offer by the RS Government and voluntarily turn themselves in to the Tribunal by the end of this year. In that they will receive 50,000 KM plus monthly payment while they are in the Hague prison. Their families will also be financially supported. Dnevni Avaz pg 9 'It is scandalous to award criminals by money from the budget' - President of the RS Helsinki Committee Branko Todorovic describes the RS Government decision to financially support war crime indictees and their families as scandalous, arrogant and cynical.
Blic on assistance to PIFWCs	EuroBlic cover and RSpG 1 'Deadline expires today, new removals threatening' by M. Jandric - The author brings the information from the RS Government, noting that RS Government deadline for voluntary surrender with material assistance expires today. Article also notes that the RS Government has failed to give the information as to whether anybody has contacted them so far, with one remark that "public will be informed if anybody indeed surrenders".
NN op-ed on the RS Govt decision re assistance to PIFWCs	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Traumatized youth' by Pero Simic - The op-ed comments on the RS Government decisions to pay out material assistance to families of PIWC's. Ironically toned, the author guesses that this call has touched Hague fugitives to that an extend, they have just turned their heads in opposite direction and "continued with their winter sleep, provided to them by these prattlers." He concludes by saying that this call has actually calmed the conscious of both, the fugitives and the authority before the public eye.
NN says Mladic was in Han Pijesak in summer 2004	BHT 1 - According to Nazavisne novine, ICTY indictee Ratko Mladic visited Han Pijesak in RS in June and July of this year. Apparently, Mladic was accommodated in military facility in Han Pijesak, and enjoyed the protection of RS Army. Nezavisne Novine cover and pg 2 'Mladic was in Han Pijesak in June and July' by M. Cubro - According to NN source, "Mladic has been transferred to location in Han Pijesak, because it was feared that on the eve of the coming presidential elections in Serbia in June and the NATO Summit and owing to international pressure, Mladic might have been arrested and extradited to The Hague."

Numanovic , Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Washington expects changes of the Dayton' by A. Prlenda , Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'RS authorities must arrest war crimes indictees' by M. C. - Cathleen Stephen , the Deputy Associate of US State Secretary for Europe and Euro-Asia, has stated that the integration of BiH to PfP, NATO and EU is blocked due to non-cooperation with the Hague Tribunal, therefore we expect to see their results with regard to arresting Hague fugitives, we do not want their promises only. She has added that the pressure, which is applied on RS to arrest war crimes indictees, would continue because the main priority of USA is stabilization of BiH and its admission to Euro-Atlantic integrations.
Tokaca: Total number of victims in BiH 150.000	Oslobodjenje cover page, pgs 4-5 'Total number of victims in BiH lesser than 150,000' by Edina Kamenica - A total number of victims of the aggression against BiH is surely bigger than 100,000 but lesser than 150,000, claims Mirsad Tokaca , the President of the Investigating-DocumentationCenter.

K. - GS brings the story of the President of the RS Union of Associations for Missing Persons, Milijana Bojic , whose brother and a number of friends got killed in Vogosca at the beginning of the war. GS inset 'Invitation to Ashdown' - Milijana Bojic says no representative of the international community has ever made an effort to talk to families of killed Serbs.
