Del Ponte addresses UNSC: 'RS must turn promises into action'	RHB, Dnevni List pg 3 '11 bills of indictment to domestic courts by end of year' by I. Glibusic, Glas Srpske cover page story 'Carla finding faults with everybody' – The ICTY Chief Prosecutor Carla Del Ponte presented her report on the work of ICTY before the UN Security Council on Tuesday. BHT 1 – Del Ponte stated that the date for Tribunals closure will have to be revised if Radovan Karadzic, Ratko Mladic and Ante Gotovina aren't arrested until 2005, adding that the IC must not allow serious war crimes to stay unpunished. She stressed that authorities in Belgrade and the RS remain a key obstacle for ICTY to meet its planned tasks. She also spoke of Serbian PM Vojislav Kostunica, who told her in Belgrade that he won't insist on arrest of war crimes indictees, but instead will call on them to surrender voluntary. Del Ponte also criticised RS authorities for failing to arrest a single key war crimes suspect in the past nine years. FTV – "The biggest responsibility for arrest and extradition of the war crimes suspects lies on the local authorities in BiH, Croatia, and SCG. Lack of cooperation in Belgrade remains the biggest obstacle that Tribunal faces with. A vast majority of them, probably more than a dozen, live freely in Serbia," stated del Ponte. RTRS – Del Ponte stated that at least 10 war crime suspects live in Serbia, while in total 20 ICTY suspects are fugitives. She added that Serbia, obviously not interested to arrest war crime suspects, will not be able to process the cases before the local courts. Del Ponte also said that some PIFWCs live in BiH and freely travel to Serbia being protected by the powerful networks that HR Paddy Ashdown recently tried to break down. Dnevni Avaz cover splash 'Powerful networks in RS protect war criminals', pg 2 'The fact that SFOR is to leave while Karadzic is still at large is frustrating' by E. Sarac, Oslobodjenje cover splash, pg 3 'RS must turn promises into action' not signed – Del Ponte said it is a great frustration for her that SFOR has to leave while Karadzic is still at large, especially since all SFOR commanders promised her that they would arrest him during their tenure. Del Ponte also supported OHR efforts to established BiH War Crimes Chamber.
Merron also warns RS	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'We are worried that there is a lack of will to arrest indictees' by Fena – The President of the ICTY, Theodor Merron , also addressed the UN Security Council, stressing that the RS is not cooperating with the Hague Tribunal.
Comments to Del Ponte address	Glas Srpske cover page story 'Carla finding faults with everybody' – GS carries several reactions to the Carla Del Ponte's report before the UN S. Dusan Stojicic , RS NA Speaker, expressed expectation that "the UN SC would – in the process of defining measures resulting from del Ponte's report – acknowledge the fact that the RS institutions have lately been engaged in determined activities aimed at fulfilling duties towards the ICTY. Also, I expect the UN SC would make the estimate into the responsibility of the BiH joint institutions and the international community in regard to this same issue." Gostimir Popovic , military and political analyst from Banja Luka said that: "If Carla del Ponte had acted according to European law standards to at the least level possible, she would not have delivered the report of this sort. Her speech is a impudent pressure against one people and does not contribute to the process of determining the truth, peace and reconciliation building."

Op-Ed says Del Ponte address 'nothing spectacular'	Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Del Ponte' In Focus column by Senka Kurtovic – Kurtovic emphasized that the latest and long-awaited address of ICTY Chief Prosecutor Carla Del Ponte to UN Security Council had brought nothing spectacular. Kurtovic believed that no further progress would be made in cooperation with The Hague Tribunal without additional pressures on RS.
SFOR, EUFOR warn arrest of war criminals responsibility of local authorities	RHB, FTV, Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'EU forces will also intensively search for war criminals', mentioned on cover 'EUFOR will be strong as SFOR', by M. Drinjakovic, Oslobodjenje pg 8 'EUFOR ready to arrest Karadzic and Mladic' by A. Prlenda, Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'EUFOR will not give up from Hague fugitives' by A. Sisic, EuroBlic RSpG 3 'It is not a shame that Karadzic and Mladic are not arrested' by BETA; Glas srpske pg 3 'Arrests are obligation' by Srna – SFOR Commander Stephen Schook and EUFOR Commander David Leakey held a joint press conference in Sarajevo on Tuesday, on the occasion of handover of military peace mandate from NATO to EU on December 2 in Sarajevo. COMSFOR Schook reminded that NATO has so far arrested 28 war crimes indictees in BiH and he said the international community expects from BiH and RS authorities to finally conduct a determinant action in this regard. General Leakey has announced EUFOR forces will be as dedicated to its mission as SFOR has been. BHT 1, RTRS – Schook and Leakey stated that both EU and NATO will continue the search for war crimes indictees. "EUFOR has the possibility and willingness to apprehend indicted war criminals, especially Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic, and will do so if it has the chance", said General Leakey however stressing this is primarily the responsibility of the local authorities. RTRS, Vecernji List pg 2 'Terrorism and ICTY fugitives are joint problem', mentioned on front 'EUFOR and NATO will be working together' not signed, Slobodna Dalmacija last page 'We shall be looking for war criminals' by F and Dnevni List 'NATO members in Ministry of Defense' by D. Polovina-Mandic – also reported on the press conference. Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Military against Mafia' op-ed by Antonio Prlenda – Prlenda says that, with announced participation in fight against organized crime, EUFOR might bring additional quality in comparison to outgoing SFOR.
Nacional: reactions to RS / Serbian officials meeting re cooperation with ICTY	Nacional pg 4 'Is it either the Hague or the end of the world?' by V. P. and I. M. – The article refers to the meeting between representatives of Serbian authorities and RS delegation led by RS President Dragan Cavic, referring to a conclusion of the meeting: "There will be the end of the world if we do not extradite Karadzic and Mladic". The article carries a number of reactions to this meeting. Dragan Sutanovic (DS) thinks the issues of Kosovo and RS should not be brought in relation with the Hague Tribunal, noting: "Even greater pressures are applied against RS, which Paddy Ashdown can reduce down to a minimum of its existence due to his powers. We must help them because I see no reason why we should not extradite indictees that the RS authorities have too indicted of crimes". Aleksandar Vulin (SPS) expresses refusal of SPS to cooperate with the Hague Tribunal, stressing: "RS will exist because of the Dayton Agreement and because of people that live there, and not because someone would extradite Karadzic and Mladic to the Hague". He announced the party would deny the Government of the party's confidence should it try to extradite any indictee. RS Deputy President Adil Osmanovic has said he expected Carla Del Ponte would accuse RS institutions of obstructing the cooperation with the Tribunal and he also said Kostunica is the person who obstructs the cooperation with ICTY the most.
Blic: HR to abolish SDS and police in RS because of failure to cooperate with ICTY	EuroBlic cover pg 'Ashdown to abolish SDS and police' and pg 3 'Ashdown to abolish SDS and the police of Srpska' by Nikola M. Jovanovic – Blic reads that during the abovementioned meeting, RS officials told their Serbian counterparts that RS, in the following several days, will be faced with the abolishment of the police and ban of the work of SDS unless it starts extraditing war crimes indictees to the ICTY. A collocutor, who witnessed the meeting, claims HR Paddy Ashdown is ready to ban the work of SDS. The same source claims most of 11 indictees from RS have SiCG citizenship and are in the territory of Serbia. The source claims the Serbian Premier, Vojislav Kostunica, is of the view that it is necessary to take the burden of arresting indictees off the country, however voluntary surrenders would have an advantage before arrests.

Ashdown: RS has not achieved progress re cooperation with ICTY	Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Warning to RS because of non-cooperation with the ICTY', Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'RS has not achieved any progress in the cooperation with the Hague' by Fena , Glas Srpske pg 3 'The Hague is the biggest obstacle'; EuroBlic RSpG 1 'Ashdown: RS authority has failed' by SRNA ; Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'The Hague is still an obstacle for EU and NATO' – The HR Paddy Ashdown on Tuesday returned to Sarajevo after visiting Washington, New York, London and Brussels, OHR spokesperson Mario Brkic stated. On Monday he had a working lunch with NATO ambassadors and met with the new EU enlargement commission Olli Rehn . The participants in the meetings agreed that failure to co-operate with the ICTY is now the biggest obstacle to BiH's NATO and EU aspirations. They noted that the RS government has failed to give the ICTY the information it needs to track down indictees, and has also failed to take any significant action to arrest indictees itself, Brkic said.
Mandic testifies in Krajisnik trial	RTRS, BHT 1, FTV, Oslobodjenje pg 8 'Radovan Karadzic had the biggest influence in RS', mentioned on cover, by Sense , Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Prosecutor told Mandic that there is an investigation against him too' by Onasa , Nezavisne Novine cover and pg 2 'Krajisnik was behind Karadzic' by BETA – Former RS Justice Minister, Momcilo Mandic , testified Tuesday before the ICTY in a trial of Momcilo Krajisnik. Mandic stated that Krajisnik, former member of the BiH Presidency, was second most influential person in the authorities of Bosnians Serbs in 1992. Momcilo Mandic has status of war crimes suspect and doesn't have to answer to the questions that could expose him.
Cancar trials postponed to 2 December	BHT 1, FTV, Oslobodjenje pg 6 'Veselin Cancar temporarily released', mentioned on cover, by A.N. , Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Beginning of renewed trial against V. Cancar postponed'; Glas Srpske pg 12 'Beginning scheduled for December 2' – The trial of Veselin Cancar , a suspect for war crimes committed against Bosniaks in Foca, being held before the Cantonal Court in Sarajevo has been delayed until 2 December. The postponement was approved after he asked for more time to decide on his defence.
Mikerevic meets Cliff: If no progress by NATO summit, RS institutions are endangered	RTRS – On Tuesday RS Prime Minister Dragan Mikerevic met with UK Ambassador to BiH, Ian Cliff . At the meeting Mikerevic said that unless war crime suspects are arrested by the next NATO summit to be held on 9/10 December, RS institutions will be endangered. Cliff stated that if there are no results until that date it will be obvious that there is a problem inside the system in RS which prevents solutions. He stated that responsibility for arrest of war crime suspects lies on RS authorities. Cliff and Mikerevic concluded that cooperation with ICTY shouldn't be an obstacle for Euro-Atlantic integrations. Glas Srpske pg 2 'Days of crucial importance for RS' by D. Zec – Mikerervic said: " Carla del Ponte's speech and NATO Summit on 9/10 December in Brussels are two dates of crucial importance for the future of RS...IC wants to see results. " Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'I don't trust that there are no ICTY suspects in RS territory' by Onasa – Cliff stated that he doesn't believe that no ICTY suspect hides in RS.
Annual session of Working Group on Missing Persons held in Sarajevo	FTV, Oslobodjenje pg 8 'Search for 17.000 missing persons in BiH' by S. Rozajac – The annual session of the Working Group on Missing Persons was held in Sarajevo on Tuesday. It as concluded that there are still 17.000 registered missing persons in BiH. Out of this number, 6000 body remains have already been exhumed but not identified and search continues for 11.000 persons. BHT 1 – The process of finding missing persons is slow, and one of the main reasons is bad cooperation between authorized commissions at the level of entities. Participants say that another one is lack of information exchange with Croatia and SCG. RTRS – Chair of the RS Association of families of missing persons Milijana Bojic stressed that Srebrenica report should be a model for moving forward.
RS Prosecution receives approvals for cases against 46 suspects	BHT 1, Oslobodjenje pg 8 'Prosecution gave approval for all 46 suspects' by O.V. – The Banja Luka District Prosecution has received approval from the ICTY to process two separate cases against a number of war crimes suspects. One of the cases includes indictments against 11 police officers from Bijeljina for murder of Catholic priest Tomislav Matanovic in 1995, while the other is against 18 persons suspected for demolishing parish building in Prijedor. RS Prosecution has in total received approval of A category from the ICTY to process 46 suspects.
