Among the other things, Robinson stated: 'If we look at the founders' capital of the bank, we shall see that 100 % of money was coming from HVO through 6 companies and on the ground of this one can conclude that HVO was the bank's owner.' DL says that according to court documents, HVO was not a shareholder of the bank and there are no evidence that suspect in this case and former HDZ President Ante Jelavic owned a single HB share or that he was in some of the HB Steering Boards. Asked to prove that Jelavic allowed to use HVO funds for purchase of HB shares, Robinson said that she does not have a written document to prove it, however, the FBiH Ministry including its Minister at that time (referring to Jelavic) are responsible for costs. DL also says that the key witness also did not have evidence, which prove existence of 50 secret HVO accounts. According to DL, the cross-examination will continue on Wednesday. On the same issue Slobodna Dalmacija pg 14 'Ante Jelavic has nothing to do with HB', mentioned on front, by Z. Tulic says that from the things Robinson stated during the cross-examination one can conclude that HB was a solvent bank and that the OHR exclusively stands behind the raid of HB and its audit. SD says that the defense concluded that the laws on banks in the FBiH were seriously violated in this case, and answering to this kind of questions every time, Robinson referred on the orders she received from the OHR. An inset in SD under headline 'Paying of OHR auditors' says that paying of auditor's company 'Ernest Young' is also disputable in this case. SD says that this company received 1,5 million Euros for their services in this case and out of this amount HB paid 300 000 Euros and the defense asked how it was possible that an insolvent bank pays such big amount. According to the article, Robinson said that the OHR engaged this company. SD says that this was done in spite of the fact that another company 'De Loyte' had better references at the international market at that time. FTV, Oslobođenje, cover and pg. 2 'Jelavic has not bought a single share of HB' by A.
