According to Ibrahimovic, the one can clearly conclude from the second letter that SBiH Ministers would discuss the crises in the FBiH Government within this body first. An inset in DA under headline 'Meeting on behavior of SBiH representatives today' carries President of the SBiH Caucus Ismet Briga who says that the meeting between the SBiH Caucus in the FBiH Parliament and SBiH leadership led by Safet Halilovic will take place today (Tuesday) and SBiH Ministers in the FBiH Government will also attend this meeting. According to Briga, during this meeting they will decide on their final stands and as to how SBiH representatives will behave on the FBiH Parliament session. On the same issue Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'SBiH Ministers demand implementation of 13 measures' by E. VL also noted that the public speculates that the Serb and Bosniak officials are not against the idea that the entity Mols keep existing and that the Police becomes a part of the BiH Security Ministry, which in turn means that the cantonal Mols would be abolished, which would, according to VL, directly affect the Croats the most since the Mols in the Croat majority cantons are very successful in their work. VL argues that the most acceptable model for future organization of Police forces in BiH is the Swiss model, which could be easily implemented in BiH.

According to the Central Bosnia Canton Education Minister of Education, Nikola Lovrinovic, it was only the Croat pupils that attended classes since the Bosniak children were celebrating Bajram, and they are expected to join the classes as of today (Tuesday). Although the parents wanted that a security company be hired to monitor the situation, it will be in fact the Police that will be present around-the-clock in front of the High School. Vecernji List, pg 2 'Reform to education results in injuries', by Darko Juka - The author writes that according to «people from Uskoplje», the recent incidents were not products of personal affairs between the participants (high school pupils), they are in fact products of national intolerance that has been suffocating the town for years already.
