Reactions to appointment of Dragan Bozanic to BiH Ambassador to CoE	RHB, Vecernji List Sat pg 3 'Ban to Bozanic has been out of force for 6 years' by E. Medunjanin, Slobodna Dalmacija Sat last pg 'Entering Europe has not been banned to Ambassador' by B. Kristo - The dailies carry that EU banned entrance to EU countries to newly appointed BiH Ambassador with the Council of Europe Dragan Bozanic in 1997, however, the ban was lifted a year later. Dnevni Avaz Sat pg 9 'Dragan Bozanic was banned from entering EU countries' by A. Malagic - Commenting to the decision of BiH Presidency to appoint Bozanic, chair of the Presidency Sulejman Tihic says: "I am waiting on the stance of BiH Foreign Affairs Ministry on this case, as it is obligated to check all candidates... Because of all this, I will personally question the responsibility of the Ministry as such two mistakes [Tihic refers to Bozanic case and appointment of Congo's honorary consul to BiH] ruin BiH Presidency's and state's credibility." Spokesperson for BiH Foreign Ministry, Lepa Babic, states that Ministry has not checked Bozanic's background. BHT 1 Fri - "It surprises that a person, who's entrance to EU was undesirable, is appointed as a BiH representative to the Institution which generally more than any other in the Europe deals with issues of human rights", EC spokesperson Frane Maroevic commented. "Foreign Affairs Ministry is obligated to, let say 'wash out', all those objections and to come up with a 'clear' proposal. I received a proposal from them and I assume that all that was checked within the Ministry and that this proposal is completely clear" Borislav Paravac comments. FTV Fri - FTV says that appointment of Dragan Bozanic is a proof that anything is possible in BiH, adding that according to their source this is just a result of a political exchange between BiH Presidency's members. Fuad Sabeta, Spokesperson of Foreign Affairs Ministry, said that its Board which advises the Minister has never discussed this appointment. Reporter concluded that most suspicious is the reaction of Sulejman Tihic who could not answer to the question of journalist as to why he didn't called upon the vital national interest which would automatically block the appointment. Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'OHR removed Dragan Bozanic from EU black list' by R.C. -RS Association of former inmates is embittered over the appointment of Bozanic as BiH Ambassador at Council of Europe.
Mladen Ivanic on Bozanic's appointment	NTV Hayat by Senad Hadzifejzovic - In an interview to NTV Hayat, the BiH Foreign Affairs Minister Mladen Ivanic commented to the appointment of Dragan Bozanic saying that were both formal and informal talks in BiH Presidency on this issues adding that the blockade of the Ambassadors' appointments lasted too long. "I didn't see any reason and no one up to this moment didn't give me any reason why Bozanic shouldn't be appointed. Mr. Bozanic was Deputy Minister, traveled throughout Europe while on this function. After that, ...he was appointed to the position of BiH Ambassador in SouthAfricanRepublic... From that position, I don't see any special reasons why Mr. Bozanic wouldn't be appointed again to ambassadorial position," said Ivanic. Hadzifejzovic asked Ivanic can Radovan Karadzic's Minister represents BiH, and he answered: "In that case, I think that this question should have been asked earlier, at the time when he was appointed to the Deputy Minister position, when he was appointed to earlier Ambassador's position... Personally, I support appointments of non-controversial persons to such positions. In this case, there was proposal which was discussed in several occasions, and in informal talk on this subject things that we talked about now were never mentioned."

Oslobodjenje op-ed speculates on possible motives for Bozanic's appointment	Oslobodjenje Sat pg 9 'Little Karadjordjevo occurred in Sarajevo' op-ed by Mirko Sagolj – Editorial reads that Borislav Paravac's motive to approve Bozanic's appointment is obvious: to preserve politics of Radovan Karadzic to divide BiH and annex RS to Serbia. As for Dragan Covic, author reminds that he is currently facing possibility of a number of lawsuits against him and Paddy Ashdown's criticism over preventing local judiciary to process war crimes cases. For this reason, "Covic thinks logically: everything should be done to see his 'self-rule' becoming republic, as in that case his freedom would be ensured. In light of that, he voted for Bozanic." Adding that while Bozanic's appointment may not be particularly important for destiny of BiH, it is certainly very indicative. Editorial wonders what would happen if Bosniak parties were to leave authorities protesting over this decision, however concludes that this is unlikely to happen as they 'made a deal with a devil' just to stay on power.
Tihic meets McElhaney: US to keep Eagle Base and support deployment of BiH troops to Iraq	RHB, RTRS Fri, Nezavisne Novine cover and pg 4 'USA accepted offer that BiH would send soldiers to Iraq' by R. Malagic – "The decision of Eagle base is a part of our own plan to keep supporting stabile and peaceful BiH... Our active role here will be continue through our presence in Butmic camp and NATO's headquarters," stated McElhaney adding that there will be additional consultation on size and duration of the mission. Tihic called this decision a proof for all anti-Bosnian forces that BiH has a strong friend. McElhaney also welcomed the decision to send a BiH unit of deminers to Iraq . Commenting to the statement by a journalist that there are many objecting this decision, Tihic added that there is no serious political party in BiH which does so. FTV Fri – When asked why this is so important for USA, Ambassador McElhaney has answered: "I could also ask why USA sent its soldiers to implement peace and security in this part of the world. The thing that I especially appreciate is the fact that we and our colleges from BiH will stand together in name of peace and security". Oslobodjenje Sun pg 5 'US military base in BiH is peace guarantee' by Fena, Dnevni Avaz Sun pg 5 'Establishment of US base in BiH is a certain guarantee of peace' by Fena – SDA believes that establishment of US base in BiH is a guarantee for peace in the country.

The Mayor, Milivoj Gatalj, says all technical preparations to make necessary changes have been completed but that they are waiting for final decision, stating that he is not certain how much this would cost the municipality which has to change its memorandum, seal, etc. BiH Constitutional Court brought decision to impose temporary names to all towns and municipalities in RS with a prefix ‘Serb’ after RSNA failed to change the names itself within three-months deadline. Gatalj adds: “Most probably we will organize referendum so Serb Sarajevo will be called as people want it.” RTRS Fri, Oslobodjenje Sat pg 2 ‘Instead of ‘Serb’ – ‘Bosnian’ by Onasa, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 ‘No agreement on two Laws’ by V.P.; Glas Srpske g 2 ‘Still no agreement’ by M.Dzepina – Joint commission of RSNA and RS Council of Peoples on Friday failed to agree on the change of names of cities, including Serb Sarajevo. Bosniak and Croat delegates in the Council of Peoples asked for prefix ‘Serb’ to be changed with ‘Bosnian’. Municipality Lukavica has respected this decision and they have removed the sign on Municipality’s building. Municipality Kasindol still hasn’t done anything on this issue, and it seems that they are waiting the appointment of new Head of the Municipality. Residents of Lukavica have the same opinion on this and they say that this was always Srpsko Sarajevo for them and it will stay like that, explaining that this decision was brought by the Institution which has nothing to do with Serb people. CIPS Direction said that citizens will be informed in time regarding the replacement of IDs, but it is still unknown will the documents be changed at all.
Terzic criticises Humphreys: EC statements are rude	Dnevni Avaz Sun cover splash ‘Terzic: What does Humphreys want?’, pg 2 ‘The latest statements of EC representatives are rude’ by A. Malagic – The Chairman of the Council of Ministers Adnan Terzic commented to the EC’s statement which question whether BiH CoM enjoys the support of BiH Parliament and which says that CoM should considers resigning if it could not ensure the adoption of Law on single rate VAT saying that there was no reason for such reaction from the European Commission. “The introduction [of VAT] began six months before the deadline. Therefore, I think that the EC reaction was not appropriate. The EC has no right to communicate with the BiH CoM in such manner. Their statements given in the past few days could be characterized as rude,” Terzic said adding that he will try to solve this issue with EC in Brussels as he is interested to know whether they want to see this CoM resigning. “It is obvious that Ambassador [Michael] Humphreys thinks so,” Terzic concluded adding that after he sent letter to Humphreys EC came with even harsher comments. Cardzic - Spokesperson for EC delegation in BiH, Frane Maroevic, stated that EC thinks that unless BiH Parliament adopts the Law on single rate VAT brought by CoM, the survival of BiH Government would be in question as it is not able to ensure parliamentary majority. Maroevic added that "EC has repeatedly stated that it is necessary for BiH to adopt the law with single rate of VAT in order to ensure higher influx of revenues and prevent manipulations enabled by system of more rates." Maroevic concludes that if politicians want to help vulnerable population categories they must develop specialized programmes and not create holes in taxation system. Asked whether there is a chance for EC to suspend its assistance to BiH, Maroevic answered he could not comment to that but added that if there is no readiness to establish the system which will effectively collect revenues EC has to asked itself how to continue spending European tax payers' money in BiH. Journalist commented that this is a direct political interference in the work of independent judiciary adding that OHR should react. “This law is... discriminating. It violates basic human rights and it is directed against returnees.” RS Council of Peoples Chair Remzija Kadric commented. RS Premier Dragan Mikerevic explained that adopting the Law protected the RS institutions’ budgets from being blocked. “Relevant BiH institutions have to find a solution which is in accordance with the BiH Constitution and international human rights standards,” stated OHR spokesman Oleg Milisic. “I expect that question of vital national interest will be raised, and we will probable block the adoption of this Law,” announced Kadric. Newly elected Head of Trebinje Municipality Dobroslav Cuk commented that the compensation is too high and unrealistic, adding that realistic compensations should be made. “Judicial officials should be warned that they cannot bring such unsuitable verdicts... And what now? Should we block everything in Trebinje and pay Alijagic as Court ordered? With interest rates that reached 35 millions? That can’t be and will not be that way,” added Cuk.
