Bileca	- Early on Tuesday soldiers from the SFOR Multinational Specialized Unit, carried out an operation in Bileca supporting SIPA officers in the arrest of a wanted criminal, the SFOR Spokesman, Mark Hope , told a press conference in Sarajevo on Tuesday. He explained that the individual (Nedjo Samardzic from Bileca) has two outstanding warrants from the Sarajevo Cantonal Court, including a local warrant for war crimes. As Hope explained, during the arrest, the individual attempted to evade capture by drawing a weapon and firing on the SFOR soldiers. The SFOR soldiers returned fire in self-defense, injuring the individual. The individual was given immediate medical attention at the site by SFOR medical staff and was transferred by SFOR medical helicopter to a SFOR hospital, where he is receiving further medical attention from SFOR doctors.
	Once treatment permits, the individual will be transferred to the FBiH authorities. Hope noted that SFOR takes all measures to minimize the amount of force necessary to conduct an operation. Unfortunately, he added, in this case the individual started to fire on the SFOR soldiers, endangering their lives and the lives of those around them, and the soldiers returned fire in self-defense in accordance with their SFOR Rules of Engagement. Throughout the operation, SFOR was within its mandate under the General Framework Agreement for peace in order to preserve the safe and secure environment in BiH, underlined the spokesperson of SFOR.

	barrier for BiH's aspiration to join NATO's PfP Programme. It is also the major barrier to progress towards signing a Stabilization and Association Agreement requirements, the most important of them being the defence reform. In context of defence reforms, he said that all requirements had been fulfilled, apart from some staffing issues. Elgersma also stressed that all the forces in BiH (NATO and EU forces) would have the same responsibility regarding arrest of war crimes suspects after December 2, when EU forces are to take over from SFOR.

Economic/soc	ial issues
OHR presents monthly economic report	Oslobodjenje pg 17 'KM still enjoys investor confidence', FENA – On Tuesday OHR presented the latest monthly economic report that brings together monthly figures offering a snapshot of the BiH economy. "The report shows that the KM continues to enjoy investor confidence. From January to August 2004, the Central Bank sold a net total of KM 434.4 million. This means that the holders of Euro and other foreign currencies, on balance, exchanged more money into KM than the holders of KM exchanged into other currencies," OHR Spokesman Vedran Persic said at a press conference in Sarajevo . The report also notes that while BiH's Trade Figures do show a significant rise in exports year-on-year, the value of imports is still larger than exports and, that unemployment figures in the Federation remain stubbornly high, according to Persic.
Terzic meets with Sclar	Oslobodjenje pg 6 'Energy represents a key BiH's potential', Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Former Clinton's envoy to advise Terzic', FENA – BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic and Richard Sclar discussed in Sarajevo on Tuesday ways in which Sclar could help the achievement of objectives from the BiH Poverty Reduction Strategy Program (PRSP). Terzic underlined the need for Sclar's consulting and expert assistance in reactivating and urgent completion of the privatisation process in BiH. Terzic presented key potentials of BiH and highlighted the energy sector in which Sclar showed special interest and expressed confidence that he could help in this field. Terzic also informed the US diplomat about large infrastructure projects, especially activities concerning the Vc corridor where his engagement is also expected.

DL feature on	Dnevni List , pg 12 'Tight in Mostar City Council', by Sanja Bjelica – The daily election results in Mostar	reports that according to the latest results of local elections for Mostar that were presented by the BiH Election Commission, there will be 15 councillors in the future composition of the Mostar City Council (MCC) coming from the HDZ- led coalition, 10 from SDA, SBiH and SDP will have 4 councillors each, whilst NSRZB and HSP BiH-HCSP will have 1 councillor each. Still, the daily notes that there could be changes to those results considering that there are not enough Serb councillors since the Mostar Statute envisions that the MCC must have at least 4 representative of each constituent people. According to the President of the BiH Election Commission, Vehid Sehic , the BiH Election Commission is working on solving the problem, adding that the whole process is complicated. Sehic notes that it very difficult to explain how the Serb councillors would be elected. In that context, DL says it would have to be at the expense of people who have been elected to the MCC. DL also notes it will be "tight" in the future composition of the MCC, since no party enjoys the majority.

Wnendt expressed understanding for the importance of the role that the Catholic Church plays for Croats in BiH, particularly with regard the upbringing and education of children. He explained that schools in BiH can be organized to reconcile the two different priorities of education: preserving and developing one's own identity while promoting mutual understanding and trust between the different ethnic backgrounds. Wnendt underlined that cultural, religious, linguistic and other elements of national identity are guaranteed for all BiH's citizens, and that no differences in criteria would be accepted, according to Persic. BiH Helsinki Committee condemns Islamic Community head's threats to media	Herceg Bosna Radio, BHT, FTV, Oslobodjenje pg 2 'Dangerous interference by Reis Ceric', Nezavisne Novine, pg. 5 'Reiss Ceric's threats to freedom of expression is unacceptable' by Srna, Dnevni List pg 4 'Attacks against some media condemned' by NINA, SRNA - The president of the Helsinki Committee for Human Rights in BiH, Srdjan Dizdarevic , has warned that the public in BiH has lately been faced with a very serious and dangerous involvement of the head of the BiH Islamic Community, Mustafa Ceric , in the state affairs and attempts to impose one particular interpretation of religion as a way of living in BiH. Dizdarevic believes that Ceric's latest attacks on certain media in BiH, claiming that they are an enemy media and agents of foreign services, are threatening the freedom of expression and media freedoms guaranteed by international conventions and domestic legal acts. "The Helsinki committee is also concerned about the letter which the leadership of the Islamic Community sent to ten addresses, advising them to stop advertising in Dani, which is an undemocratic way of preventing the survival of media which do not suit the interests of Reis Ceric," the statement by the Helsinki committee said. The committee condemns such actions and calls for the respect of principles of secularity and respect of basic human rights and freedoms.
