

Roderick W. Moore

download photo

Prior to his appointment as Principal Deputy High Representative and Brcko Supervisor, Ambassador Moore served as the first Deputy High Representative. Roderick Moore served as Deputy Chief of Mission at the U.S. Embassy in Belgrade from January 2004-June 2007. He also served as Deputy Chief of Mission at the U.S. Embassy in Belgrade from January 2004-June 2007. He also served as Deputy Chief of Mission at the U.S. Embassy in Belgrade from January 2004-June 2007. From 1992 to 1993, he was the Department of State's representative in Skopje, Macedonia. He later served as Political-Economic Advisor to the U.S. Ambassador in Belgrade. In Washington, Ambassador Moore worked in the State Department's Operations Centre (1992) and later served as political-military advisor to the U.S. Ambassador in Belgrade. Ambassador Moore attended Brown University where he received his B.A. in Russian Studies and International Relations in 1988. The Steering Board of the Peace Implementation Council welcomed the appointment of Roderick Moore as PDHR and Brcko Supervisor.