

Decision Establishing the Police Restructuring Commission

In the exercise of the powers vested in the High Representative by Article V of Annex 10 (Agreement on Civilian Implementation of the Peace Settlement) to the General Framework Agreement for Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina, according to which the High Representative is the final authority in theatre regarding interpretation of the said Agreement on Civilian Implementation of the Peace Settlement; and considering in particular Article II.1(d) of the last said Agreement, according to the terms of which the High Representative shall “Facilitate, as the High Representative judges necessary, the resolution of any difficulties arising in connection with civilian implementation”;

Recalling paragraph XI.2 of the Conclusions of the Peace Implementation Conference held in Bonn on 9 and 10 December 1997, in which the Peace Implementation Council welcomed the High Representative’s intention to use his final authority in theatre regarding interpretation of the Agreement on the Civilian Implementation of the Peace Settlement in order to facilitate the resolution of any difficulties as aforesaid “by making binding decisions, as he judges necessary” on certain issues including (under sub-paragraph (c) thereof) “measures to ensure implementation of the Peace Agreement throughout Bosnia and Herzegovina and its Entities”;

Recalling the Declaration of the Ministerial Meeting of the Steering Board of the Peace Implementation Council of 09 June 1998, in which the Steering Board stated, inter alia, that a multi-ethnic police is vital for providing a secure environment for returnees, displaced persons and all citizens;

Recalling further the Declaration of the Peace Implementation Council made at its main meeting in Madrid on 16 December 1998, in which the Peace Implementation Council, considered the establishment of the rule of law in Bosnia and Herzegovina, in which all citizens have confidence, as a prerequisite for a lasting peace and for a self-sustaining economy capable of attracting and retaining international and domestic investors;

Noting the Declaration in which the Peace Implementation Council of 24 May 2000, stated that “a democratically accountable police and independent judiciary are prerequisites for the Rule of Law and the full protection of human rights” and insisted that “the authorities complete the police restructuring process [...]”;

Noting further the Statement by the President of the Security Council made at the 4661st meeting of the Security Council, held on 12 December 2002, welcoming the decision of the European Union to send a Police Mission to Bosnia and Herzegovina and inviting the European Union to keep it regularly informed as appropriate of the activities of such Mission, whilst reiterating that the primary responsibility for the further successful implementation of the Peace Agreement lies with the authorities in Bosnia and Herzegovina themselves;

Recalling the European Union and Western Balkans Summit Declaration of Thessaloniki made on 21 June 2003 whereby Bosnia and Herzegovina pledged full and unequivocal cooperation with the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia and recognized that providing justice for war crimes is a legal, political and moral imperative to which it was committed. Recalling further that Bosnia and Herzegovina also recognized in said declaration that organized crime constituted an obstacle to democratic stability, the rule of law, economic development and the development of civil society and that combating organized crime was a major priority;

Having regard to the Communiqué by which the Steering Board of the Peace Implementation Council of 11 December 2003, inter alia, expressed support for the OHR's priorities in 2004 and welcomed the High Representative's intention to focus on assisting the BiH authorities in ensuring the effective operation of State level institutions and welcomed the intention of the High Representative to focus on improving the effectiveness of the police in BiH, in close co-operation with EUPM.

Conscious that eventual visa free access for the citizens of Bosnia and Herzegovina to countries of the European Union is contingent upon, inter alia, the implementation of reforms in areas such as the strengthening of the rule of law, combating organized crime, corruption and illegal migration and strengthening administrative capacity in border control and security of documents;

Having regard further to the Report of the Commission of the European Communities of 18 November 2003 on the preparedness of Bosnia and Herzegovina to negotiate a Stabilisation and Association Agreement with the European Union in which it is stressed that, in order to fight crime, further reform and enhanced State-level enforcement capacity are needed in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Taking into account the Communiqué by the Steering Board of the Peace Implementation Council of 1 April 2004, in which the Steering Board expressed its support for a restructuring of the BiH police, guided by the highest European standards and the need to ensure the financial sustainability of the police sector, welcoming the implementation of a functional review of the BiH police forces, and supporting the establishment of a Police Restructuring Commission.

Conscious that there is a need for depoliticized police forces that operate in accordance with the highest European standards;

Recalling the statement of the Chairman of the Council of Ministers of Bosnia and Herzegovina , made on 20 May 2004 by which he indicated that a serious restructuring of police forces in Bosnia and Herzegovina is necessary and urgent;

Further noting the Istanbul Summit Communiqué issued on 28 June 2004 by which the Heads of State and Government participating in the meeting of the North Atlantic Council expressed their concerns that Bosnia and Herzegovina has failed to live up to its obligation to cooperate fully with ICTY which constitutes a fundamental requirement for the country to join Partnership for Peace and look for systemic changes necessary to develop effective security and law enforcement structures.

Having considered, noted and borne in mind all the matters aforesaid, the High Representative hereby issues the following:
