Terzic informed Vitorino about the successful implementation of the CIPS project, which had created a single registry of personal identity cards, passports. driver's licenses in accord with the European standards in BiH. Vitorino was also informed about the reforms the BiH authorities were implementing in the sectors of tax and customs policy, noting the importance of establishing the State Indirect Taxation Administration. Commissioner Vitorino commended the progress realized in BiH in the field of judiciary and security, especially concerning establishing the BiH Court and the Prosecutor's Office, and passing the legal package on SIPA. Vitorino announced that he and the EC Commissioner for Foreign Affairs, Chris Patten, would define a list of criteria BiH needs to satisfy in order to qualify for launching negotiations on liberalizing the visa regime for BiH citizens. The BiH delegation, headed by Adnan Terzic, also comprised Minister of Security Barisa Colak and Director of BiH Directorate for European Integration Osman Topcagic.

FENA - "We can clearly tell BiH citizens that the authorities will do everything in their power to ensure that BiH swiftly enters the category of countries that do not require visas. The probable guestion is when this will happen, and I think that everybody will be surprised by the pace of this process," said Terzic late on Monday at the SarajevoAirport upon returning from a one-day visit to the European Commission in Brussels.

Dnevni Avaz: Tihic says HR may leave BiH after changes to the state Constitution

Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Tihic: HR may leave BiH after changes to the state Constitution' - In an interview with yesterday's Vecernji List, Croat member of the BiH Presidency Dragan Covic said the time had come for the elected officials in BiH to take over authority and full responsibility for running the country.

Commenting on the statement, BiH Presidency Chairman Suleiman Tihic said BiH still needed the High Representative. He believes that only if the BiH Constitution is changed in terms of establishment of a fully functional state the conditions will be created for HR to leave BiH.

Party for BiH leader Safet Halilovic and SDU President Miro Lazovic are also of the opinion that BiH needs and will need HR yet for some time.

They stated that RS and FBiH ruling political parties are approaching restrictively to the implementation of the constitutional amendments. The four NGOs stress that there is even greater obstruction by municipal and cantonal authorities.

ONASA interview with US Ambassador Bond

Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'If abolishment of SDS (ban of SDS work) will bring BiH into EU than one should think about it', mentioned on cover 'The time has come for Mikerevic and Cavic to make concrete moves', Nezavisne Novine cover and pg 4 'Politicians in RS must continue with reforms', Oslobodienie pgs 4-5 'One should think about to ban SDS if that will bring BiH into EU', ONASA - The events at the NATO summit in Istanbul, considering BiH, and the measures taken by the High Representative in BiH should present no surprise for anyone in the country, US Ambassador Clifford Bond said in an interview with ONASA. "NATO paid tribute to BiH at the summit due to significant progress made in the defense system reform. But, at the same time, it stressed the failure in making full cooperation with the Hague tribunal. NATO clearly pointed on the obstructionists in the Republika Srpska," Bond said. He underlined that NATO also passed a number of positive decisions related to BiH, such as the confirmation to open a NATO headquarters in the country. Paddy Ashdown has in public and privately warned on the measures which will be taken if BiH fails to join the Partnership for Peace due to lack of cooperation with the tribunal. "Ashdown consulted and gained wide support of the international community for the measures he had taken and I think the measures were suitable and within his competence. The goal of these measures is to stop the blockade in which criminal elements inside the RS hold the government and public companies," said Bond. "His (Ashdown) activities were not focused against the RS, but against individuals and criminals. I know there was political turbulence in the entity, but it is now time that RS president Cavic and Prime Minister Mikerevic make everything necessary to qualify BiH for admission in the PfP and the EU," Bond added. Speaking about the possibility to ban SDS work, Bond said it was about a serious measure, but that if it would bring BiH into PfP and EU one should seriously think about it.

He told reporters the action will resume in next days in all larger RS cities. Crnkovic reiterated it is also necessary to collect and hand over at least 3,000 citizens' signatures for launching the initiative before the parliament. The association's leadership last week informed domestic and international community officials in BiH on the reasons to launch the initiative. Crnkovic stressed the main reasons are "constant attacks on the RS and the Serb nation from the Federation BiH, as well as the latest decisions of the High Representative to sack 59 RS officials due to lack of cooperation with the Hague tribunal."

Cubro, Glas Srpske, pg. 3 'ERONET's line got interrupted' not signed, EuroBlic, pg. RS2 'HT is the third operator in BiH' by Beta - The Communications Regulatory Agency (CRA) has granted a license for the third GMS operator to the Croat Telecommunications (HT) Mostar company. Eronet also put in a bid. The agency concluded that HT Mostar met conditions to become the third GMS operator based on seven criteria. Eronet has the right to appeal against this decision. CRA General Director Kemal Huseinovic said that the agency set up a commission on 7 June to examine the bids and devised a report containing a detailed analysis of economic, legal and other relevant elements. "The commission unanimously decided that the license for the third GMS operator should be granted to HT Mostar," said Huseinovic at a press conference in Saraievo on Monday.

Slobodna Dalmacija, front and pg 13 'Eronet lost, licence to HT', by Dinko Pasic, Vecernji List, front and pg 17 'Third network to HT Mostar', by Zoran Kresic, Dnevni List, pg 2 'HT Mostar gets third GSM licence', by Danka Polovina-Mandic – a Commission of the Communications Regulatory Agency (RAK), on basis of a detailed analysis of all economic, financial, legal and other elements, decided that HT Mostar is to become the third GSM operator in BiH. At a press conference held in Sarajevo yesterday, the Director of RAK, Kemal Huseinovic, stated that out of seven pre-requisites, HT Mostar was better than Eronet in five categories. Furthermore, Huseinovic notes that Eronet will keep existing as a company, but will have to regulate its relations with HT Mostar in a different way. According to the RAK Director of Telecommunications Sector, Firket Kasumagic, the decision will have no impact on the customers. Interested parties can lodge appeals to the RAK Council within 15 days of getting the decision, and after the second instance decision is taken, there is a possibility of launching a procedure with the BiH Court within two months.

Reactions by Stipe Prlic, Bozo Knezevic

Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 13 'Prlic satisfied, Knezevic without comment', by M. Landeka, Dnevni List, front and pg 3 'GSM licence is big obligation we have to fulfill', by Jurislav Petrovic, Oslobodjenje pg 4 'A chance for HT Mostar' – carry the General Manager of HT Mostar, Stipe Prlic who welcomes the RAK's decision, noting that the first step HT Mostar has to take now is to sit down and talk to representatives of Eronet about the new situation. In that context, Prlic says the two companies should find solutions to all pending issues to mutual satisfaction. Furthermore, Prlic believes that HT Mostar will be able to pay for the GSM licence (140 million KMs in next 9 years). On the other hand, the President of Eronet Management, Bozo Knezevic, says Eronet will declare itself once it gets the official decision from RAK. Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Gavranovic claims that CRA has taken away rights from the people of Herzegovina ' also carried ERONET's reaction.

Hercegovina osiguranje says HT Mostar is not technically equipped Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 13 'Subscribers without mobile phones for months', by M. Landeka, Dnevni List, pg 3 'RAK took away right from people of Herzegovina', not signed, Oslobodjenje pg 5 'Herecgovina Osiguranje to lodge complaint' – one of shareholders in Eronet, Hercegovina osiguranje, notes that HT Mostar received the 3rd GSM licence although the company does not meet the technical requirements. On top of that, Hercegovina osiguranje argues that Eronet has the licence that is still valid. "HT Mostar has no GSM infrastructure and will not be able to provide any kind of services to the people in Herzegovina and rest of BiH in next months. According to that, the RAK has deprived people of Herzegovina of their rights (...) The decision is not in the interest of the public. It is not consistent with earlier statements by RAK, in other words, the OHR and IC. People from Herzegovina and BiH will lose if HT Mostar becomes the 3rd GSM operator, Deutsche Telekom, through its share in HT Zagreb, will control both the fixed and mobile network in Herzegovina", reads a press release of Hercegovina osiguranje.

with Croat MPs on	Miso Relota – Croat MPs in the FBiH Parliament yesterday talked to the US old savings	Ambassador to BiH, Clifford Bond , about issues pertaining to the law that deals with internal debt in FBiH. The Croat MPs reiterated once more that the law in question was necessary, however, they note that the segment of the law that deals with the old foreign currency savings, as stipulated in the proposal of the law, is not good. DL is surprised that Ambassador Bond did not pressure the Croat MPs to adopt the law, and instead, he came to try and find the most acceptable solution to both the savers and the state. From the conversations between the Ambassador and the MPs, one can conclude that the position of the IMF is the key element in the issue.

Reactions to Covic's of BiH against Croatia

Nezavisne Novine, pg. 3 'To give up from lawsuits' by N. N. - SNSD Deputy statement re lawsuit President Krstan Simic thinks it is not necessary to bring a lawsuit against Croatia for aggression against BiH as well as that the lawsuit of BiH against SCG should be withdrawn with an aim of truth and reconciliation.

> Upon Covic's statement saying there are small chances for BiH to prove its claims brought in the lawsuit against SCG, SPRS President Petar Djokic has said this could make an influence on Bosniak politicians to withdraw the lawsuit against SCG.

SRS President Milanko Mihajlica thinks a lawsuit against Croatia should not be brought because of reconciliation of peoples in BiH and region. SDP Deputy President Slobodan Popovic thinks a lawsuit against Croatia should be brought if it is assessed there were enough elements that would provide with a positive result for BiH.

Member of the Main SDA Board Tarik Sadovic said it would be technically impossible to bring a lawsuit against Croatia in accordance with the Dayton Agreement because Croat people in BiH would not support it.

A source from diplomatic circles in Sarajevo claims Radovan Karadzic himself is less important. 'Americans, prior to their elections, are trying to get numerous compromising evidence, believed to be in his possession. Karadzic's arrest would maybe be in favour of the Republicans but this is still smaller problem than if evidence on disputable role of the Democrats in the Bosnian war had appeared in public', the source claims.
