

The High Representative's Decision on Law on the Courts of the Herzegovina-Neretva Canton

In accordance with my authority under Annex 10 of the General Framework Agreement for Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina, and Article XI of the Conclusions of the Peace Implementation Conference held in Bonn on 10 December 1997, I do hereby

DECIDE

The Law on the Courts of the Herzegovina-Neretva Canton and the Law on the Court for the Central Zone of the City of Mostar, as hereby attached as an integral part of this Decision, shall enter into force by 3 August 1998 on an interim basis.

These laws shall remain in force until the competent organs of the Herzegovina-Neretva Canton have adopted them in due form, without any amendments or conditions attached.

Sarajevo, 31 July 1998

Carlos Westendorp

High Representative

LAW ON COURTS of the Herzegovina-Neretva Canton

I – GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1

The Courts of the Herzegovina-Neretva Canton (hereinafter referred to as: the Courts) are the bodies of the governmental authority, which are established by law, and perform the judicial function within the limits of their jurisdiction as set forth in the Constitution of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Constitution of the Canton, and the Federal and Cantonal laws.

Article 2

The Courts are established and dismissed based on the law of the Canton.

Article 3

In performing their judicial function, the Courts are independent and rule (upon) based upon the Constitutions and the laws.

Article 4

The Courts shall rule in disputes related to basic personal relations, the rights and obligations of citizens and the rights and obligations of municipalities, cantons and the Federation. The Courts shall pronounce penalties and other measures against perpetrators of crimes and other punishable acts as set forth by the law; in administrative disputes not in the jurisdiction of another Court; shall rule in disputes not assigned to another government organ; in status-related economic disputes, and shall rule upon in other matters, when so provided in the law.

Article 5

The Courts shall monitor and study social relations and phenomena of interest to the exercise of their functions and shall provide proposals to the competent governmental organs for the prevention of socially dangerous and detrimental phenomena for the strengthening of legality.

The Courts shall monitor and study the problems from the juridical practice which are of interest to the fair and uniform implementation of the law.

In order to exercise the functions from the previous paragraphs, the Cantonal Court may request the municipal courts to supply it with necessary information.

Article 6

The Courts have the right and the duty, within the scope of the exercise of their functions in the competent Cantonal Ministry, to inform the bodies of the legislative, the executive and the judiciary authorities, at their request or on the Court's own initiative, on the implementation of the law, and on the need to issue or amend the law.

Article 7

When the Court of the Canton, during a procedure conducted before the Court, deems that a particular law is not in accordance with the Constitution of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina, it shall suspend the procedure and propose to the Constitutional Court of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina to institute proceedings to evaluate the constitutionality of that law.

Article 8

Under the terms envisaged in the law, the Courts shall offer legal assistance to citizens in the exercise and protection of their rights in matters within judicial jurisdiction.

Article 9

The work of the Courts is public.

The publicity of work shall be provided through public deliberations before the Courts; through publicizing the membership of the Court panels; through providing information in the course of the judicial proceedings to parties concerned under the terms envisaged in the law; through public pronouncements of court decisions; and by making the public aware of the work of the Courts and the pronouncement of important court decisions through public media.

In accordance with the Federal and Cantonal laws, the Courts may exclude the public and the media from court proceedings for the purpose of protecting secrets affecting the national security, the protection of morals, the interests of minors or for the purposes of the protection of other special government interests.

Article 10

The Courts shall proceed in panels.

The membership of panels shall be determined by law.

The law may provide that particular matters shall be ruled on by an individual judge.

Article 11

Court panels are composed of judges and citizens as lay judges.

The law may provide that only judges may participate in certain Courts and in certain matters.

Article 12

The judicial function is a public function and judges as its holders are subject to all of the immunities and liabilities of public officials as provided in the Constitutions and the laws.

Article 13

The Courts shall ensure the equal positions of all parties in judicial proceedings.

Article 14

The President of the Court and the other judges shall be appointed and dismissed under the terms and under the procedure ensuring expertise, independence and dignity in exercising judicial duty.

A judge may not perform a function or a job which has no connection to the function of a judge, unless otherwise provided by this law.

Article 15

A judge or lay judge may not be held responsible for an opinion offered in rendering a court decision.

Without the authorization of the Parliament of the Canton which appointed him/her, a judge or a lay judge of the Cantonal Court may not be taken into custody in a proceeding because of a crime perpetrated in the exercise of the judicial function.

Without the authorization from the President of the Cantonal Court which appointed him/her, a judge or a lay judge of the Municipal Court may not be taken into custody in a proceeding because of a crime perpetrated in the exercise of the judicial function.

Article 16

The panel of the Cantonal Court may indicate to the municipal court any faults in the ruling of the Municipal Court observed in ruling upon any appeal from the Municipal Court.

If such faults appear frequently in the decisions of a particular Municipal Court or if they are of major relevance, the Cantonal Court shall indicate to that Municipal Court what these faults are and shall institute the initiative from articles 5 and 6 of the Law.

The legal positions declared in the remark of the Cantonal Court are not mandatory for the Municipal Courts.

Article 17

The Cantonal Court may require the Municipal Courts in its territory to supply the data necessary to monitor and study particular matters appearing in the exercise of the judicial function.

In order to exercise the function from the previous paragraph, judges of the Cantonal Court may observe and have direct insight into the work of Municipal Courts in its territory.

Article 18

Courts shall be obliged to offer legal assistance to each other.

Government organs, organizations, enterprises and other organizations and communities shall be obliged to offer assistance to the Courts in performing their official duties.

Article 19

Only the competent court may render a decision on an appeal or other legal remedy against a court decision.

Article 20

The decisions of courts rendered in other Cantons of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina are valid and enforceable on the territories of all other cantons.

Article 21

Decisions, documents and other individual enactment issued by government organs and competent organizations in all Cantons of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina shall have the same validity before the courts of all Cantons.

Article 22

The official languages of the court shall be the Bosnian and the Croatian languages, and the official alphabet shall be Latin.

In the exercise of the judicial function, the courts shall ensure equal use of the official languages of the Federation, including other languages which may be used as an instrument of communication.

When a court rules in the first instance, the certified transcription of the decision shall be submitted to the authorized organ or party in the official language in which the decision has been rendered, whereby the party may be furnished with the decision in the other language from the submission by which the party instituted the procedure, or provided the response related to the institution of the procedure, or another language used during the procedure.

The certified transcription of the decision rendered by the court in the ordinary or extraordinary legal remedy procedure shall be submitted to the court, or another organ, whose decision was reviewed in the official language in which the decision reviewed was rendered and the transcription of the decision intended for the party, that is, another participant in the procedure in that official language, and may also be furnished in another language which was used in the procedure.

Complaints, appeals and other submissions may also be filed with courts in another language which is not in official use at the court.

The provisions of paragraphs 3 and 4 of this article shall be suitably applied in delivering summons and other court writs to the parties and other participants in the procedure.

Article 23

The internal organization in the Cantonal and Municipal courts shall be determined in the Book of Rules on the internal organization of the particular court.

The Book of Rules from paragraph 1 of this article shall be brought by the presiding judge of the Cantonal or Municipal courts, upon the prior approval of the Ministry of Justice and the Cantonal Administration.

Article 24

The labor regulations for the employees of the administration organs are fairly and equally applied to the employees of the Cantonal and Municipal courts, unless otherwise provided in this Law.

The provisions on the responsibility caused by violation of official duty, as determined in the Book of Rules on the internal organization of the court, are not applicable to judges.

Article 25

The judge shall wear a special outfit in the performance of his/her duty.

The Ministry of Justice and the Cantonal Administrations shall issue separate books of rules to prescribe the appearance and the terms under which the outfit is to be worn.

Article 26

The judges of the Municipal and Cantonal courts shall be issued official identity cards.

The Ministry of Justice and Administration of the Canton shall regulate forms and procedures of the issuing of the official identity cards by a separate Book of Rules.

The regulations of this law which refer to judges apply also to the President of the Court unless regulated otherwise by this law.

II – ORGANIZATION OF COURTS

Article 27

The courts of the Canton include the Municipal courts and the Cantonal Court.

Taking into account the specificity of the City of Mostar, a Court for the Central Zone of the City of Mostar shall be established by a separate law.

The organization and the proceedings before all the petty offense courts shall be prescribed in a separate law.

Article 28

The Municipal court shall be established for the territory of one Municipality.

For the territory of two or more Municipalities, one Municipal court can be established.

Article 29

The Cantonal Court shall be established with jurisdiction over the entire territory of the Canton.

Article 30

The courts shall have seals in accordance with the Law on Seals of the Herzegovina-Neretva Canton.

The building of the court must have the name of the court and the coat-of-arms of the Herzegovina-Neretva Canton visibly placed on it.

Article 31

Municipal courts may, on an exceptional basis, within the territory for which they have territorial jurisdiction, exercise judicial power outside of the seat of the court.

Municipal courts may offer legal assistance to citizens, certify signatures, conduct main trials and deliberations , as well as court appearances in non-contentious matters on the days of court outside of the seat of the court.

The decision on the holding of the days of court shall contain the data on the place, area and time of the holding of the court days, which shall be published in the Official Gazette of the Canton and in other appropriate ways.
