Sarovic on sanctions against him	Herceg Bosna Radio, BHTV, FTV, RTRS, Oslobođenje pg. 4 'No one can ban me from dealing with politics' – SDS Presidency was to held a special session because of the decision of High Representative, Paddy Ashdown, made at initiative of US Government, by which Mirko Sarovic is to be removed from his function of SDS Vice-President. This decision was made because of alleged help of Mirko Sarovic to ICTY indicted, Radovan Karadzic. SDS Presidency is expected to decide on his possible replacement. All charges, presented by High Representative and US Ambassador in BiH, Clifford Bond, Mirko Sarovic has rejected as untrue and constructed. "This is about classic pressure on RS and pressure on SDS, especially on its most stabile part and me personally." – said Mirko Sarovic. Sarovic also said that no one can forbid him to do politics, that High Representative has no mandate for something like that and that only one who can exclude him from SDS is SDS. Nezavisne Novine, cover and pg. 3, 'Sarovic says: Kalinic is the leader of parade – he should decide what we should do'; Glas Srpske, pg. 5, 'Fears shuts the mouth up', Vecernje Novosti p 6 'On the black list with Sarovic', Blic front page and p 13 'I accept only judgment of my party'- Mirko Sarovic, SDS Vice President, yesterday denied all allegations presented by the High Representative to BiH, Paddy Ashdown, and US Ambassador to BiH, Clifford Bond. SDS Presidency held extraordinary session in Serb Sarajevo last night, in order to discuss new developments and SDS conduct at the political scene of Republika Srpska and BiH in the future. No SDS official wanted to give any comment on this session, noting press release will be issued afterwards, most probably late during the night. Only Sarovic briefly said that "Kalinic is the leader of parade, so he should decide what we should do." Sarovic yesterday said that the accusations are false and orchestrated to meet other needs. Sarovic said: "The truth is they have failed to present any concrete evidence proving such allegations. This represents a classical example of pressure against Republika Srpska and SDS, especially its most stable part and me personally. You are aware of the fact I was on their way while I assumed the position of Serb member to BiH Presidency, when they fabricated and exaggerated the Orao affair. However, I am bothered with this decision, because I have been fighting for the interests of Republika Srpska, which I think is the biggest sin of mine." On Bond, he said it is a right of each state to make up the list of persons banned from entering it, however, he firmly opposed that an ambassador of such a state defines and sets internal relations in BiH. His statement went on to stress that: "Everybody is clear with the fact that he is in charge of these things. Normally, everybody is keeping quiet about it – parliamentarians, political parties.... Nobody wants to say anything. Ant those talking about democracy, legal state and rule of law have violated it a long time ago and placed themselves above those laws. For example SFOR – it has overstepped its mandate a long time ago... no human rights and laws can be violated in the name of justice." On HiRep's announcement he would demand from SDS to exclude Sarovic from its membership, Sarovic said: "Nobody can deprive me of my right to engage in political activities. Only SDS can exclude me from SDS membership."
Dodik, Serbian DSS on Sarovic	According to NN inset, Milorad Dodik, SNSD President, said that the inclusion of Sarovic on US black list is an internal matter for SDS. (Glas Srpske carries this report as separate article on pg. 5, 'Different dioptré'). Both RS dailies as well as Vecernje Novosti p 6 'DSS requests for an explanation' contain insets in which DSS (Democratic Party of Serbia) yesterday commented on this by saying that this has raised concern of Serb people from both sides of Drina river. DSS further stressed that "the policy of placing conditions can only deteriorate currently fragile political relations in Dayton BiH". Vecernje Novosti pg. 6 'Conflicts within SDS' reads that the President of the SNSD, Milorad Dodik, and the Ambassador of Serbia and Montenegro to BiH, Stanimir Vukicevic, agreed yesterday in Banja Luka that the issue of putting the name of Mirko Sarovic to the list was an internal matter of SDS party. According to Dodik, it was more important what was behind this decision, because it was obvious there were some misunderstandings within SDS party.

SDS Main Board member on Sarovic	FTV - "We have one extremely difficult situation, considering that Mr. Sarovic is very popular in RS and among Serb people, very influential person. His popularity goes from the Deputy in RSNA, then he was the RS Vice- President, than he was RS President, than Serb member of the Presidency, so we have one difficult situation and I do not know what will be the decisions of the SDS Presidency and Main Board of SDS on that issue"- said Bosko Siljegovic, member of SDS Main Board.
'Mirko Sarovic not excluded from the Party'	Oslobodjenje pg. 4 'Mirko Sarovic not excluded from the Party' - The newspaper learns from reliable sources that at its session in Lukavica late on Tuesday, the SDS Presidency did not exclude from the party the SDS Vice-president Mirko Sarovic. Dnevni Avaz pg. 4 'Sarovic: I will respect final decision by Party's leadership' - The newspaper also announced start of yesterday's SDS Presidency session in Lukavica and quoted Sarovic as saying he would respect any SDS leadership decision on his status.
US Bond on IC measures	BHTV - "I can assure you that these decisions were not made against RS, but against individuals which provide help to war criminals or have committed the crimes themselves. All individuals, including Sarovic can submit an appeal to our Court or Ministry of Finances"- said Clifford Bond, US Ambassador in BiH. Glas Srpske, pg. 5, 'Evidence remain confidential' - GS learnt at US Embassy to BiH yesterday that the USA will not publicise on basis of what information they have been placing people on US ban list. The Embassy briefly noted that several US Government Agencies have been involved in this activity. Nezavisne Novine pg. 3 'Expansion of "black list" based on facts' also carried the reaction.
OHR on measures against war criminals' supporters	Herceg Bosna Radio, Oslobodjenje pg. 2 'Ungrounded objections from RS', Dnevni Avaz pg. 4 'Ashdown made decision on the basis of concrete information', Nezavisne Novine pg. 3 'Expansion of "black list" based on facts', FENA - The High Representative, Paddy Ashdown, was very clear on Monday in stating that the decision on measures against individuals, which have been identified as supporters of Radovan Karadzic and other suspected war criminals, was issued on basis of concrete information, the spokesperson of OHR, Oleg Milisic, told FENA in regard to the comments of individuals from the RS that the mentioned measures were not supported by evidence. However, Milisic added, the international community will not further comment on this matter because of the sources. Apart from the measures against 10 individuals taken by the U.S. Government, the High Representative also issued a decision on freezing the assets of these persons and removed SDS Vice-president Mirko Sarovic from public functions, as well as police officials Veljko Borovcanin, Dragan Basevic and Ivan Sarac. RTRS, Blic pg. 13 'OHR: Decisions are well grounded' carried the same OHR statement presented by OHR Spokesman Mario Brkic, as Glas Srpske, pg. 5, 'Pressure against network' quotes OHR Spokesman Vedran Persic.
Oslobodjenje, Dnevni Avaz editorial on war criminals' supporters	Oslobodjenje pg. 2 'Republic of Karadzic' Op-ed by Antonio Prlenda - "The fact Ashdown is not presenting important evidences to the authorized RS bodies shows how much he trusts them," said Prlenda. Dnevni Avaz pg. 3 'RS foundations shaken' Commentary of the Day by Fadil Mandal - According to Mandal, it is almost unthinkable that Karadzic's favourite Dragan Kalinic will be spared in SFOR campaign against war criminals and their supporters.

CRO Press comments on IC measures	Slobodna Dalmacija (front splash and page 15 "Sarovic hears from Karadzic?", by Aleksandar Macanovic) – carries that nobody has so far made a connection between Mirko Sarovic and Radovan Karadzic apart from an anonymous US official who told the Banja Luka-based "Nezavisne novine" that Sarovic was in contact with Karadzic after "he got removed" from the BiH Presidency, although even the anonymous officials did not back his claim up with an evidence. SD also reports that other persons on the US "black list" ended up there either because of collecting "racquet" for Karadzic's protection or by helping him in other ways. The article goes on to ask that, if Paddy Ashdown claims that Karadzic is at the helm of an organized gang that deals with organized crime, extortion, corruption and illegal trade, why these people are not arrested because it is natural that helping the most wanted war crimessuspect counts as a crime "or perhaps, at the end of the day, this is a signal to the BiH Prosecution, which has lately, under leadership of international judges, arrested a few 'big' and 'small' fry?" Dnevni List (page 2 "Sarovic goes to 'outlaws'", by Miso Relota) – argues that, superficially, the whole story is crystal clear, the IC has had enough when it comes to the soap-opera called "Karadzic the outlaw and co.", so it decided to take care of his aides from the SDS. Furthermore, the author notes that many analyst are right in asking why take the decision now, why Sarovic, because many people would believe it is Dragan Kalinic, who has contacts with Karadzic, not Sarovic. In this context, the author says some people go even further and say that Kalinic "pinned" this one on Sarovic to save his skin from an indictment from the ICTY, so Kalinic's decided to become very cooperative when it comes to cooperation with the IC led by Ashdown and Bond. Dnevni List (page 2) carries in it s "Statement of the Day", the US Ambassador to BiH, Clifford Bond, as saying: "This is the year when war criminals must be brought to justice". Slobodna Dalmacija (page 14, "We have quality information", by F) – amid accusations from the RS that there were no evidence against the persons who were put on the "black list", an OHR spokesperson, Oleg Milisic, says the High Representative was clear that the decision was based on concrete information. However, because of nature of the source, notes Milisic, the IC will not be making further comments.

CRO Press/Serbian Press/RS press: reactions of RS politicians to US/OHR sanctions	Mirko Sarovic, Vice President of SDS, rejects all accusations against him, stressing that he is against the practice of a foreign ambassador creating policy in BiH, obviously alluding to US Ambassador Bond. "Issues are being taken care of through the method of fear and of course, everyone is keeping quiet, and the same ones who declaratively advocate the rule of law, now breach the rule", says Sarovic. Sarovic also notes that he does not to be in an office or function to say that this is the year during which there will be efforts to "take away everything from the RS, justifying it with alleged reforms". (Dnevni List, page 11 "Sarovic: Nobody can ban me from being active in politics", by De. L.). Vecernji List (page 5 "Sarovic: I am in Ashdown's way", by B. S.) - carries Sarovic as saying that the High Representative does not have the mandate to remove him from the office of Vice President of the party. Mladen Ivanic, President of PDP, says Sarovic is one of key political figures in the RS and from that point of view the decision requires full argumentation: "If those arguments were not to be, it think it would feed the feeling it is about a political pressure on the RS and on key figures from the Serb people", says Ivanic. (Slobodna Dalmacija, page 15 "SDS: Where is evidence?", Dnevni List, page 11 "Decision of IC requires full argumentation" and "PDP requires full argumentation") Dragan Kalinic, President of SDS, says: "The campaign against Sarovic, which started during the so-called 'Orao' affair, during which nothing was proven, ends up in a political disqualification of Sarovic. This is a direct attack on SDS and its key stabilization and pro-reform role on the political scene of the RS and BiH, and a serious issue with far reaching qualifications, both internally and externally". Dragan Cavic, President of RS, says he expects the High Representative and the US Embassy to present him with evidence considering the offices Sarovic had executed before. "Otherwise, such a decision would be inappropriate and unprecedented in democratic world, taken with an aim to cause political crisis in the RS and pressure on political parties in the RS and BiH, with possible consequences on continuation of the democratic process", says Cavic. (Slobodna Dalmacija, page 15 "RS expects explanation", Dnevni List, page 11 "Political pressure on SDS") Petar Djokic, President of Socialist Party of RS, notes: "If they could chase Karadzic from the party, why should they have respect for somebody else". (Slobodna Dalmacija, page 15 "Irony from opposition") Blic p 13 'Arguments and evidence missing' carries reactions of Dragan Cavic, Dragan Kalinic, Mladen Ivanic and Milorad Dodik. Glas Srpske, pg. 5, 'Different dioptr' also carries reactions by Milorad Dodik, Dragan Kalinic, Mladen Ivanic and Milanko Mihajlica from Republika Srpska Serb Radical Party demand those accusations against Sarovic be substantiated with good arguments. Petar Djokic, President of Republika Srpska Socialist Party, expressed expectation that SDS would meet request of HiRep and remove Sarovic from all party positions. He also said that this decision has resulted from the fact that Republika Srpska fails to co-operate with The Hague Tribunal and also to implement certain reforms. Mirko Banjac, Vice President of DNS (Democratic People's Alliance" said international community would not have compiled a list without good arguments.

Illegal activities of persons from US/OHR blacklist	FTV – Veljko Borovcanin as Chief of Police- Srpsko Sarajevo, Ivan Sarac as Chief of the Police in Pale and Dragan Basevic- former Police official have allegedly protected the business of Milovan Cicko Bjelica and helped him to communicate with ICTY indictee, Radovan Karadzic. Their mission was to provide him with latest informations about Police work and work of International Community. On these functions they were appointed by Bjelica. It is being claimed that Samojko Djorda, former Judge of Municipality’s Court in Sokolac is the Judge which protected Milovan Bjelica with his decisions. American source has stated for Nezavisne Novine that Judge Djorda was helping Bjelica to protect the group which hide Radovan Karadzic. Pointless to say that Djorda was also appointed by Bjelica. American source said that Policemen have helped Bjelica to meet with Karadzic and beside him relation with Karadzic was also maintained by Mirko Sarovic, but only after he was replaced from the function of BiH Presidency member. Same source claims that financial help was provided by Radomir Kojic (owner of de-mining Company), Milovan Marjanovic (Director of Hydroelectric station Visegrad), Predrag Kujundzic and Ljuban Ecim (former Intelligence officers of RS) and Tomislav Kovac (former RS Minister of Interior). They were all main financiers of Karadzic’s hiding. According to same source main figure in that action is Milovan Bjelica, who was replaced last year from a position of President of City Assembly- Srpsko Sarajevo. He is embittered over the activity of US and OHR, stressing that he has nothing to do with Karadzic. He is of the view this has resulted from months’ long campaign against him by “Dnevni Avaz”, on which he notes he would file a lawsuit and papers would have to prove their claims. He also objected against the fact that the accounts of Restaurant owned by his wife have been blocked as well. Glas Srpske, pg. 5, ‘Hello, here is dismissal’ – Samojka Djorda reacts on news regarding inclusion of his name on US ban list, stressing that it represents a culmination of war launched against him a long time ago. He said: “It is one of the filthiest lies I have ever heard.” Dragan Basevic, operations officer at Serb Sarajevo Public Security Centre, says that EUPM interpreter on Monday informed him he has been dismissed from duties. According to him, SIPA currently performs restricted police duties. He also said that in collaboration with OHR, EUPM will do all it can to ensure SIPA's work becomes operational during the course of this week. Dnevni List (page 2 "Karadzic does not have 'his people' in SIPA", by D. This was originally stated by the Chief ICTY Prosecutor, Carla del Ponte, for the FTV. "It is hard to co-operate with a state agency which gives information on war crimes indictees", said del Ponte. Reporting that there is an ongoing internal investigation within the SIPA, VL tried to get a comment from the SIPA Director, Sredoje Novic, and BiH Security Minister, Barisa Colak, but both were unavailable for comments.

They confirm they have filed lawsuits against SFOR at Court and demanded compensation of US $ 1 million each, for the suffering they went through that night. SFOR denies all the claims saying they have all recorded on the tape. Sarenac and Mihajlovic claim SFOR started recording the operation after their soldiers barged into the house, but failed to record when they used two of them as man-shield heading towards the house and while knocking on the door.

On SFOR Commander's decision to absolve of duty 6 Croat officers	Vecernji List (front and page 2, "SFOR first approved and then dismissed 6 HVO officers", by Z. Kresic) carries that SFOR's Commander in BiH General Virgill Packett will talk today with Chairman of the BiH Presidency Dragan Covic about the order to absolve of duty 6 Croat officers because of their relations with the Croat self-rule (see Weekend Cropress summary, Feb. 8/9, 2004). VL says that 3 months ago SFOR practically approved the return to military service to some Croat officers from a group of 'self-rulers' and then SFOR denied itself last week. According to the article, what is really scandalous is the demand for dismissal of Colonel Zeljko Ljubanic since the Chief Inspectorate for the FBiH and RS Army led by SFOR's officer Maturino gave consent for his return to the military service 3 months ago. The author also says that it is indicative that all 6 Croat officers come from the area of the Central Bosnia while none soldier or officer from the area of Herzegovina, who reported himself on time, was not forbidden to return to the military service.
