Donor conference for BiH War Crimes Chamber raises 15.7 million Euros	BHTV 1, FTV, CRHB, Oslobodjenje pg 4 '15.7 million Euros raised' – At a Conference in The Hague held on Thursday, the International Community pledged 15.7 million Euros towards the setting up of a specialized War Crimes Chamber in the Court of Bosnia and Herzegovina. BH Ambassador in the Hague Zeljko Jerkic represented BH at the donor conference, organised by OHR and hosted by the Hague Tribunal. Members of the Steering Board of the Peace Implementation Council, other participating states of the EU, as well as some non-member states attended. In November 2002 the High Representative Paddy Ashdown and the former President of the ICTY Judge Claude Jorda began discussions on developing BiH's capacity to try war crimes in its own courts, as they agreed this was essential. The total cost was estimated at 38 million Euros for the first five years of operation. Successful operation of the Chamber would enable ICTY to complete its works by 2008 or 2010. Dnevni Avaz cover, pg 3 '16 million Euros for BiH Chamber for War Crimes' – OHR spokesman Oleg Milisic explained that 'these funds will be sufficient for 2 years... the Council should be operative by end of next year... Donors showed big generosity and they committed to assist the work of this Chamber in the future. The majority of them emphasized their readiness to assist the work of judges, firstly in next two years.' Nezavisne Novine cover and pg. 3 'EURO 16 million for War Crimes Chamber in BiH', Glas Srpske pg. 2 'Amount of EURO 15 million collected' – Theodor Meron, ICTY President, stated that the establishment of War Crimes Chamber in Sarajevo would be of great significance for a successful completion of ICTY strategy and work and establishment of rule of law in BiH.

Judge Sator on the Chamber	Oslobodjenje pgs 4&5 '13 Hague's cases ready' by Edina Kamenica – Judge of the BiH State Court Mehmed Sator claims that BH Chamber for processing war crimes should start working as of 1 January 2004, and added that following several negotiations in this regard this has been agreed during the latest visit of ICTY Chief Prosecutor Carla Del Ponte to BiH. According to Sator, fifteen current local and five international judges should immediately start to process 13 cases from the Hague Tribunal. 'Those cases are coming straight from the Tribunal' stresses Sator and also stressed that he believed Chamber will need much more than 38 million Euros for five years of its operations.
Mikerevic: IC may impose sanctions against RS	Vecernje Novosti pg. 3 'Srpska faces sanctions' – The RS Prime Minister Dragan Mikerevic says there is a possibility that the IC applies sanctions against the RS due to inadequate co-operation with the Hague Tribunal. SB: ICTY investigates Delic, Alispahic, Mahmuljin	Slobodna Bosna cover, pg 10 'Investigation against Izetbegovic halted, but continued against Delic, Alispahic and Mahmuljin' by Suzana Andjelic – Following the statement by ICTY officials on the investigation against late Alija Izetbegovic, SB writes that the Tribunal not only said that there was a suspicion that BH Army committed war crimes, but also that those crimes might have been tolerated by the Army Command and political leadership. According to 'confidential sources in ICTY', SB reads that investigations are being conducted against BiH Army Commander Rasim Delic, former Defence Minister Sakib Mahmuljin and former Police Minister Bakir Alispahic, and that probably indictments will be raised. Investigations will include murder of Serbs and other non-Bosniaks in Kazani region, killing of PoWs in Sarajevo's park, work of police unit Seve, and some events that occurred in several Sarajevo settlements. He stressed that RS cannot allow itself to be responsible for the failure to be admitted into Partnership for Peace. He reiterated that following defence reform standards, the proposals regarding the eventual change of the RS Constitution would be defined. He further noted that any rejection of these proposals would result in grand consequences for RS. James Locher, Chairperson of the Defence Reform Commission, stated that defence reforms are of historic importance, and also that reforms are part of BiH future and its admission into PfP and NATO. No discussion was opened on this point of agenda after the presentations of Cavic and Locher.

The expansion of SIPA authority represents just one part of the National action plan for the fight against organised crime, which was adopted at yesterday's session of the BiH Council of Ministers. Dnevni List pg 5 'Entrance to BiH during religious holiday All Saints with identity cards only', Slobodna Dalmacija pg 7 – newspapers also covered CoM session.
SDA rejects Ashdown's accusations	Vecernji List pg 3 'Establish responsibility of police officials', Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Chief of Police were connected to previous authorities' – 'I call upon the representatives of the international community, especially of the European police to check whether police in BiH is really de-politicised, that is whether some Chief of Police still maintain relations with the representatives of former authorities' – stated Elmir Jahic, vice president of the SDA for Oslobodjenje answering to the comments made by the High Representative Paddy Ashdown and EUPM Commissioner Sven Frederiksen on the involvement of political parties [especially SDA] in police work.
SB on Ashdown's statement re political influences in police	Slobodna Bosna pgs 12&amp;13 'Ashdown finally realized what was behind SDA's request to remove Miletic, Selimovic, Dzebo, Jakupovic' – Magazine writes that one of the harshest critic made against FBiH Ahmet Hadzipasic at the session of SDA Main Board was his failure to dismiss FBiH Police Director Zlatko Miletic. Adding that Hadzipasic has been putting effort into this, SB writes: 'And just when Hadzipasic started to believe that... dismissal of Miletic was to happen any day, there was a shocking development: ... the High Representative Paddy Ashdown unexpectedly strongly attacked SDA for its permanent campaign against policemen not loyal to that party... Ashdown was clear in saying that SDA's pressure against commissioners in Una-Sana, Gorazde and Sarajevo Cantons was not acceptable.' Article concludes that Hadzipasic still waits for OHR's respond to his letter, in which he requested Miletic's removal, while Ashdown said that serious allegations made against Miletic require serious analysis and approach in writing respond.

SB on post of Director of Intelligence Agency	Slobodna Bosna pgs 30-32 'Main candidates Novic and Planovjevic: You can't tell who is worse!' by Suzana Andjelic – SB writes that as BiH joint Intelligence Agency [OSA] is to start working on 1 January 2004, coalition partners still negotiate on the candidates for senior position in the agency. 'Even though it was agreed for the OSA Director to be Bosniak... Serb side now tries to gain something for themselves.' Magazine explains that SDA offered Bosniaks to take over leading position in the State Information and Protection Agency [currently headed by Sredoje Novic], and it return to have a Serb on the position of OSA Director. 'To understand this ... it is enough to know that SIPA's annual budget is 5 million KM, while the budget foreseen for new joint intelligence service is 30 million KM... It is also planned for SIPA to be transformed into state Interior Ministry, while OSA would unify intelligence services of both entities [FOSS and OBS], therefore it is more important for SDS to control entire intelligence system in BiH.' Author further claims that Coalition partners unofficially accepted this, and that two candidates for OSA Director are Sredoje Novic and Dobrivoja Planojevic, proven SDS disciple and OBS' Chief Inspector. 'Both Novic and Planojevic are catastrophically bad choice, as it is absolutely clear that they will not make this service into professional intelligence, but they will make it service of their political mentors, as it was case with OBS in RS.' Author further describes in details political connections of two candidates.
Update on US black list	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'BiH Prosecutor's Office made the list of persons referring to US President's decree', Dnevni List pg 3 'Additional information on persons from the US list were demanded' – After FBIH Prosecution and RS Prosecution handed over demanded information to the BiH Prosecution, the BiH Prosecution made a list of the persons that the executive decree of US President George W. SB on ITA Director	Slobodna Bosna pgs 5&6 'Kasumovic has been turned down because OHR believes Hasan Cengic to stand behind him' by Mirsad Fazlic – Article refers to the appointment of the Director of the BiH Indirect Taxation Administration, in which the international community and Council of Minister have different stands caused by the misunderstanding between Chairman Adnan Terzic and PDHR Donald Hays. After Commission for Indirect Taxation proposed two candidates for the post, Fuad Kasumovic and Mile Kudic, the statement made by Hays showed that both candidates could be problematic. Hays stated that 'he was not sure whether during the selection of the candidates their professionals overruled, or was it done for political interests. He added that OHR would do its part of the job in fair manner. Later, Hays proved to be right and OHR ... did its part of the job in fair manner. So, regardless to official remarks that Kasumovic was the best and most appropriate personnel solution, OHR could not ignore the fact that there was a criminal charge filed against this 'expert' just recently, which was justified and sufficient reason for his elimination.' However the article claims that the main problem to be ' instead of public statement... OHR suggested to Ambassador Hays to solve the problem silently and ... to agree with... Terzic on eliminating Kasumovic.' According to the source 'close to the IC, SB reads that Hays held meeting with Terzic on this issue, in which he offered CoM Chairman for Kasumovic to withdraw its nomination, while OHR in return would not dismiss him publicly which would also mean ban of performing duty in some other public institution. Magazine goes on saying that both Terzic and Sulejman Tihic accepted Hays' offer, however Kasumovic [whose is said to be supported by Hasan Cengic, 'man who had deciding impact for selection of Adnan Terzic as Chairman of CoM'] did not act as it was agreed. However, SB concludes that Kasumovic will never be chosen as Paddy Ashdown sent a letter to Terzic informing him that he extended the mandate of Commission for Indirect Taxation, and that he supported new competition for the Director post.
