Clifford Bond visited BL	CRHB, RTRS, BH Radio 1, Vecernje Novosti pg. 4 'Every day they chase after Radovan'; Oslobodjenje pg 10 'If we knew where Karadzic was, he would arrest him', Blic pg. 13 'SFOR does not know where he is hiding' – US Ambassador in BH, Clifford Bond visited Banja Luka on Thursday, where he held talks with the members of the RS Government and opposition leaders on the issue of war crimes suspects, indirect taxation and defence and economy reforms. Following his meeting with RS Prime Minister Dragan Mikerevic, Bond said that USA and SFOR were prepared to cooperate with RS authorities in the arrest of war criminals at large, and added that there are information indicating Radovan Karadzic still hides in RS, however SFOR did not have information precise enough which would allow them to arrest him. Mikerevic commented saying RS Government did not have any new findings on this issue and emphasised that this problem has to be solved. Ambassador Bond stressed RS authorities must cooperate with The Hague. Vecernji List page 3, 'SFOR would arrest Karadzic if they knew where he is!', Dnevni List, front and page 10, 'RS authorities are protecting war criminals' – After the meeting with Mikerevic, US ambassador Bond stated: 'So far, we have not seen the evidence showing that RS officials are ready for cooperation when the arrest of war crime suspects is in question.' Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'USA and SFOR ready to help RS' – As for the joint statement signed by US Ambassador for War Crimes issue Pierre Prosper and RS President Dragan Cavic, Bond commented: 'Before signing of this statement, there was no document which would confirm the readiness of RS institutions to work towards the arrest of Karadzic. The countries in the region have been moving forward in the cooperation with the Hague Tribunal, and RS has to do that as well'. Nezavisne Novine, cover and pg. 2, 'Support to the Republika Srpska Government in the fight against crime and corruption'; Glas Srpske, pg. 3, 'On the European course' – Clifford Bond also commented on Telekom Srpske and said that: "And I call on management of Republika Srpska Telekom to co-operate and clean up the situation before the Government has to force them to do that." Mikerevic stressed that the Republika Srpska Government is determined to support the Law on indirect taxation. He also said that the text of the Law on indirect Taxation was forwarded to Republika Srpska National Assembly, which is to give its stance on this in 15 days time. Bond stressed that the new proposal of the Law on Taxes should be worked out, in order to prevent grey economy. American Ambassador yesterday also met the SNSD President, Milorad Dodik, and discussed the ongoing reforms in Republika Srpska and BiH. Regarding opposition request for convening early elections, Bond said that: "I told him it is not up to me to decide on, but on politicians and parliaments. If you want elections, you must offer a serious alternative."
Hays' speech for Stockholm conference	Dnevni List pg 3 "To move from donors' assistance to self-sustainable domestic economy", Oslobodjenje pg 7 'Defeated separatists in RS and Herzegovina', Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Hays: Significant progress has been achieved in implementation of reforms in BiH', Blic pg. 13 'Mature phase of the Dayton' – All dailies reported that Principal Deputy High Representative Donald Hays addressed the participants of the conference on Conflict Management and Conflict Prevention in Stockholm and on this occasion he stated: 'It is necessary to move from donors' assistance to self-sustainable domestic economies... We now all recognize that more should have been done earlier on to draw up 'a road map' for a faster and more focused transition to a market system that would create jobs, tackle corruption and lift the mass of the population out of poverty. BiH is now emerging from the trauma which engulfed it in the early 1990s, with the political institutions needed to sustain democracy, the beginnings of a successful market economy, and the prospect of a growing and dynamic civil society.' Dnevni List page 5, 'Inspection in order to prevent anti-Dayton activities' – OHR spokesperson Vedran Persic stated that Hays was to address the aforementioned conference yesterday, however, Hays did not travel to Stockholm due to bad weather conditions.

Ashdown addressed UN SC	Vecernji List front page, 'Ashdown: Implementation of Dayton towards the end', and page 3, 'Job on implementation of the Dayton Accord is approaching its end' by Fena - High Representative Paddy Ashdown addressed the UN Security Council and estimated that the mission of implementation of the Dayton Peace Accord is approaching its end. However, the HR also stated that the job with regard to bringing of war criminals to justice has not been completed yet. Ashdown added that war leader of Bosnian Serbs Radovan Karadzic and his general Ratko Mladic are still very influential. Blic pg. 13 'BiH cramped by crime' - Among other things, the High Representative said "BiH's elaborate, excessively decentralised governmental structure was designed to protect group political interests, not to meet citizens practical needs. We have 13 Prime Ministers, 10 Cantonal Assemblies, 5 Presidents, 4 levels of government, 3 Parliaments, 2 armies and one vast public administration that can no longer be afforded."
SCG Ambassador visited Mothers of Srebrenica	BHTV 1, Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Vukicevic: We will arrest Karadzic and Mladic if we find them in SCG', Oslobođenje pg 7 'The talk about forgiveness to be held in Srebrenica' - Association 'Mothers of Srebrenica and Žepa' met with Serbia and Montenegro Ambassador Stanimir Vukicevic, who visited them on Thursday. Representatives of the association required from Vukicevic for immediate arrest of indicted war criminals, especially of Mladic, and to reveal information on mass graves and the missing persons. Ambassador Vukicevic replied he would pass this request to Belgrade for further consideration. 'We will arrest Ratko Mladic and Radovan Karadzic if we find them in our territory. I believe that the cooperation on searching for missing persons must be improved between and I believe that there is individual guilt, instead of accusing only one people.' - said Vukicevic.
RS NA session	Nezavisne Novine, pg. 4, 'BiH Parliament should take stance on lawsuit against SCG'; Glas Srpske, pg. 2, 'Judges elected', Vecernje Novosti pg. 6 'Croat to head the RS Constitutional Court', Dnevni Avaz pg 9 'Jovo Rosic the judge of BH Constitutional Court' - Republika Srpska National Assembly yesterday concluded that the proceedings regarding discussion on BiH lawsuit for aggression and genocide against Serbia and Montenegro should be initiated at the BiH Parliamentary Assembly. Assembly asked BiH presidency to provide decision from 1993 on charge against FRY and also asked BiH parliament to suspend the lawsuit before the Court in the Hague. The MP's elected the members of Republika Srpska Constitutional Court (Dusko Medic, Milorad Ivosevic and Vojin Bojanic, Mirko Zovko, Branko Sunaric, Adem Medic and Mehmedalija Bedak) and Judge to BiH Constitutional Court from Republika Srpska (Jovo Rosic). Caucus of Bosniaks within Council of People filed vital national interest in reference the declaration passed by the Assembly. Bosniak representatives complained they were outvoted and their views neglected during discussion on the issue. Blic pg. 13 'Declaration has not helped' - Republika Srpska National Assembly passed the report on revision of the financial report on the RS Geodetic and Property Issues Administration for the year 2001. The Assembly agreed that it is necessary to investigate the Administration's business activities since 1999 and it asked RS MoI to investigate the audit claims of the illegal spending of 2 million KM before last October's general elections. The Assembly ordered the RS Government to draft a law on decentralisation of the Administration within three months.
RS NA extraordinary session postponed	BHTV1, RTRS, Nezavisne Novine, cover and pg. 4, 'Opposition leaves RS NA session' - Following the failure to adopt the opposition request (that agenda should include report of special international auditor on Telekom Srpske and information on health sector), the opposition parties yesterday left special Republika Srpska National Assembly session in Banjaluka. Session is expected to be held on 16 October.

SDP demands Ivanic's removal	Vecernji List pg 2 'SDP stands for Ivanic's removal', Dnevni List pg 6, 'BiH Presidency should remove Ivanic', FENA - SDP BiH demands from members of the BiH Presidency to stop undermining of the constitutional and legal position and pulling down of reputation of the BiH Presidency institution. They also demand that the BiH Presidency launches procedure for the removal of BiH minister of foreign affairs Mladen Ivanic due to 'latest media show - disqualification of the BiH lawsuit against Serbia and Montenegro'.
Dani editorial on changes to DPA: 'Dayton's fascists'	Dani pg. 23 'Dayton's fascists' Column by Ivan Lovrenovic - "Holbrooke is encouraging us: Dayton can and must be changed but only through a deal, and that agreement should be reached amongst 'paravacs' (all those obstructing any changes to the Dayton Agreement like is being done by SDS-nominated member of the BiH Presidency Borislav Paravac), the same ones for whom Holbrooke himself say that the Dayton made a mistake because it gave them as representatives of the constituent peoples too many authorities. But 'the paravacs' are statesmen, presidents, as Holbrooke and Kouchner are former ambassadors, ministers in a private visit (to BiH)," writes Lovrenovic.

International military presence in BiH
Ashdown supports EU taking over SFOR's mandate	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Ashdown supports EU taking over SFOR mandate' - The High Representative Paddy Ashdown will meet with a number of diplomats and politicians in London on Friday, briefing them on OHR's roles in BiH and progress made in process of reforms. In an interview given to UK-based Guardian during his visit to Brussels, Paddy Ashdown supported the idea for EU to take over NATO's mandate in BiH next year. However he stressed that 'when it comes to this idea, EU must approach it very seriously, ... expressing its will and readiness and it has to improve its credibility in BiH.
BHTV1 on possible EU peacekeeping mission to BiH	BHTV 1 by Laura Bosnjak - Issue of credibility of EU has arisen in the discussions on the future of military missions in BiH. There are different views on EU ability to command over the international peacekeeping mission in BiH. BiH Security Minister of Barisa Colak stated: "BiH needs to join EU as soon as possible and in light of that it should accept all EU requests and guidelines." SDP leader Zlatko Lagumdžija commented: "It is not advisable to use BiH as polygon for testing new multilateral structures...EU forces can not act outside of NATO framework." Military analyst Antonio Prlenda: "Such new forces should be tested somewhere else, not in BiH, because it would be risky."
Holbrooke warns against US withdrawal from BiH	FENA, Dnevni List last page, Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'Washington should not withdraw 1700 troops from BiH' - In an article that appear on Thursday in Wall Street Journal, Richard Holbrooke and Bernard Kouchner called on the United States not to withdraw its troops from BiH. 'We hear worrying rumours about the wish of official Washington to withdraw another 1.700 soldiers from BiH', reads the Journal. 'Regardless of the urgent requirements for American troops in Iraq and Afghanistan, these modest but very significant troops must not be withdrawn before their time', requested the two officials.

Vc corridor update	Oslobodjenje, cover page, pgs 4 &amp; 7 'Tender for consulting companies soon/Russians sent offer for building 5c corridor' – BH Minister of Transport and Communications Branko Dokic is expected to present the proposal for publishing public tender for employment of the consulting companies for Vc corridor project. 'This is the first round in which we would publish tender. Afterwards, we would shortlist few out of the the total number of consulting companies that apply and they would compete in the second run. After that we would choose the best bidder.' – stated Dokic. According to Oslobodjenje, Vnjestorg Bank from Moscow sent its offer for building Vc corridor to the council of Ministers about 10 days ago. Bank proposed to finance the project through payment in kind. Nezavisne Novine, cover and pg. 3, 'State should finance the study of feasibility' – At today's session in Sarajevo, BiH Council of Ministers is expected to pass decision according to which the state of BiH will be obligated to finance the preparation of study on feasibility of the highway construction 5C.
SFOR on BH Telecom raid	CRHB, FENA, BH Radio 1, Oslobodjenje pg 6 'SFOR keeps quite about the raid to BH Telecom', Dnevni Avaz pg 9 'Raid in BH Telecom's main office' – SFOR confirmed that its troops carried out an unannounced routine inspection of the 'BH Telecom' head office in Sarajevo on Wednesday. SFOR spokesperson Dave Sullivan told a press conference in Sarajevo on Thursday that SFOR carried out this operation to make sure that all activities are in accordance with the Dayton Agreement. Sullivan was unable to provide other details about the inspection and said that SFOR does not comment on the nature of materials and information for security reasons, as well as that all findings would be based on facts.
Hadzipasic on telecoms	Dnevni Avaz cover pg, pg 5 'Government will not submit to interests of lobbies / Telecoms are entirely out of Law' – In an interview to Sarajevo daily, FBiH Prime Minister Ahmet Hadzipasic said that this government was the first one with detailed insight in the work of BH Telecom. He also added both Federation telecom operators were previously 'untouchable', hence working out of law boundaries which was unacceptable. Prime Minister also confirmed that new Supervisory Boards members will be appointed by 16 October.
Prlic sends letter to OHR special auditors	Oslobodjenje pg 6 'Just before his removal, Gilja paid 60.000 KM to non-existent company' – Director of HT Mostar Stipe Prlic sent the letter to OHR's special auditor following publishing of their report on this telecom provider. In the letter Prlic discloses in details findings into illegal business by former Director of HPT Mostar Marinko Gilja. He also informed him of the two dismissal which followed the report. In regard to the auditors' comment on unnecessary increase of personnel in the company and the fact that about 50% of employees were surplus, Prlic agreed and added he reemployed 10 Bosniaks who were fired before the war on the base of their ethnicity.
Lozancic meets USAID, US Embassy and OHR on power supply	CRHB, Dnevni List pg 5 'Transparent managing production processes', FENA – FBiH President Niko Lozancic met on Thursday with representatives of USAID, the American Embassy in BiH and the OHR. They exchanged stands with regard to the Action Plan for re-structuring of the power-supply system in BiH. The press release issued from the Press Office of the FBiH president says that protection of interests of BiH producers, distributors and consumers of power-supply must be an obligation of all participants in the process of reconstruction of power-supply. Vecernji List pg 5 'CIGRA is author of plan', by S. Novakovic – carries on the same issue that re-directing of considerable amounts of money to Sarajevo might slow down or completely make impossible the economic development of Croat areas. According to VL, although the USAID and FBiH Ministry of Energy, Mining and Industry signed the Action Plan, the document is actually the product of the Sarajevo and Tuzla lobbies that are trying by all means to move the centers in charge of power-supply and decision-making on this issue as far as possible from the areas with the Croat majority. VL also says that most probably this plan was devised by people who act around president of BiH Committee CIGRA Rusmir Mahmutcehajic.
