FBiH Government shortens regular military service	Croat Radio Herceg Bosna, BHTV, FTV, Oslobodjenje pg. 3 'Military service 30 days shorter', Dnevni Avaz pg. 2 – Federation Government at the session held in Mostar on Thursday has decided to reduce the military service for 30 days for the recruits that joined the service in April 2003. The Government has also decided to make these kinds of decisions for every next generation of recruits. One of the basic reasons for this decision is reducing the military costs. "Four months of military training is quite enough," stated Federal Minister of Defence Miroslav Nikolic
Fire set at "Barbara" range	Nezavisne Novine, pg. 3, ' A fire planted at SFOR military range' – According to information received from the Livno Canton Interior Ministry, the member of Canadian SFOR stationed in Glamoc reported that one person, while leaving the military range of "Barbara" set the grass on fire. Shortly afterwards, the police arrested J.B (20) from Travnik.
Dani Pecanin's editorial on security, crime in BiH	DANI pg. 3 'Seventh Day' editorial by Senad Pecanin – presents his proposal for the first and most important Article of the BiH Constitution. It is based on a line from a one of the first patriotic songs from the beginning of the war and it goes ' This is Bosnia, you should finally understand that! ' Pecanin thinks the main benefit of the Article would be the final acceptance of the state and social reality in today's BiH. " This way, for example, heads of police and prosecution would not keep passing on as a hot potato the decision on investigation bodies finally questioning Fahrudin Radoncic , respectable Bosniak businessman, at least for one of many affairs where he was being mentioned as a main actor ." He also points out that the recent detonations in Sarajevo could be reduced to small things compared to detonations that could take place if an investigation of Radoncic's business and those who allowed him to get wealthy following the example of Russian tycoons. " if the OHR Anti-Corruption Team really cares about establishing which public (the emphasis on public) companies of respectable Bosniak businessmen did racketeering – it would be enough to address the Federation government and inquire about directors who came to them requesting protection from racketeering by this respectable Bosniak businessman. "

Failed SFOR	BHTV, RTRS, Oslobodjenje pg. 3 'SFOR: We shall surely catch (war) criminals', Dnevni operation to arrest	Avaz pg. 4 'SFOR cannot confirm Mladic was in BiH', Blic pg. 5 – Recent SFOR operation Mladic	to arrest Ratko Mladic is only one in the series of unsuccessful operations. No war crime suspect has been arrested during the commander Word mandate in SFOR.
	However, SFOR still spectacularly expresses its readiness/promptness to arrest Karadzic and Mladic anytime. After the recent unsuccessful mission in Kasindol, it seems that no SFOR official has any sense of responsibility or shame. In street polls in Sarajevo, people expressed a great disappointment regarding the operation, while the people of Banja Luka evaluated it as vandalism. Recent actions raise a question of credibility of SFOR mission in BiH. BiH Minister of Security Barisa Colak stated that he 'cannot get into the nature and sources of information that SFOR has.' SFOR rejects any claims regarding their insufficiency by noting the number of war crime suspects that have been arrested so far. "We have been successful in our actions on arresting 29 individuals indicted for the war crimes," said SFOR spokesman Dale Maceachern. All international magazines evaluated the SFOR action as big miscalculation.
	Dnevni List (page 10, "SFOR remains dedicated to future of BiH peoples", not signed) also carries the Dale MacEachern's statement. The newspaper also on page 5 "Negative mark for SFOR's operation") says that Daily Telegraph negatively judged the SFOR's operation and the daily underlines that SFOR was wrong when it believed that Mladic will consider as his moral obligation to come to his mother's house before the funeral.
RS Army on media	Glas Srpske, pg. 3, 'Avaz missed the target' - GS received a confirmation from the reports about Mladic	Republika Srpska Army General Staff that the training camp of the Republika Srpska whereabouts	Army special units at Bileca Lake, where, according to reports of "Dnevni Avaz", Ratko Mladic has been resting with his three bodyguards and a cook, does not exist at all.
	According to General Staff, SFOR has the list of all Republika Srpska Army facilities, including training camps. What "Dnevni Avaz" is just an incorrect critic against SFOR and we expect from SFOR to react, said Stamenko Novakovic, Deputy Head of Republika Srpska Army General Staff.

Vecernje Novosti on	Vecernje Novosti pg. 25 - 'Mladic is not in Serbia' - reports that, according to the SFOR
Mladic	information, General Ratko Mladic is now most probably in BiH territory.
	Representatives of the Hague Tribunal in Sarajevo and OHR still do not want to confirm this information. Explaining the last attempt to arrest Mladic, SFOR said that according to intelligence information Mladic was in BiH and it had been expected he would show up at the funeral of his mother. Spokesman of the Hague Tribunal Office in Sarajevo, Refik Hodzic, says he does not have approval to speak about Mladic's whereabouts, adding that the ICTY Prosecution should have right information. Mario Brkic, OHR spokesman, said that OHR never comments on intelligence and security sensitive information.
	"However, we fully support SFOR action since apprehending of war criminals and suspects for the war crimes is a clear and binding obligation," Brkic said.

Deadline to submit applications for FBiH Civil Service Agency Director extended	Dnevni Avaz pg. 3, Dnevni List page 3, not signed . FENA – The authorized FBiH Government's service is tasked to immediately announce in the daily newspapers a 15- day extension of deadline to submit applications for the FBiH State Civil Service Agency Director and three members of the Appeal Commission. In this manner the FBiH Government acts in accordance with the OHR recommendation.
Tihic says reactions to genocide statement politicised	Dnevni Avaz pg. 5 'RS leaders have no courage to answer my questions', Dnevni List page 2, unsigned , "A Serb Willy Brandt will come along", FENA – BiH Presidency member Sulejman Tihic has described the reactions by the leaders of the RS to his invitation to the RS authorities to reveal the location of the mass graves in that entity as politicized. Tihic said that RS President Dragan Cavic 's reaction did not offer a single concrete answer, but contained general politicized comments. "In their statements the RS authorities did not respond to my claims that they know where the mass graves are. These mass graves are a result of systematic policies and the authorities in the RS must have known about them," Tihic warns, appealing again to the entity authorities in Banja Luka to say who was responsible for covering up these crimes and for creating mass graves. It is unacceptable, Tihic said, that no-one among the RS government representatives came to the exhumation of bodies from the largest mass grave in BiH. "This is a moral obligation incumbent upon all of us. I would most certainly have visited a mass grave containing Serb bodies had one existed," Tihic said. He said that revealing the truth is in the interest of all citizens of Bosnia-Hercegovina and added that only by establishing the entire truth about the war events in BiH could reconciliation and coexistence be achieved. "It is in the interest of the Sreb people to have a politician, a Serbian Willy Brandt, who would bow before the Srebrenica victims and the victims of the mass grave near Zvornik. That day will inevitably come," Tihic said.
SDS versus Tihic	Nezavisne Novine, pg. 4, ' SDS claims Tihic is falsifying facts' – According to press release issued by SDS, the most recent statement by Sulejman Tihic at Crni Vrh represents an attempt to falsify historic facts at the expense of the Serb people and Republika Srpska. SDS further stresses that the statement actually represents a continuation of political rhetoric and programme of Alija Izetbegovic and SDA from the beginning of 90's last century, that are most responsible for tragic events in BIH and tragedy of its people.

Slobodna Bosna on	Slobodna Bosna pg. 1, 5, 6 and 7 by Asim Metilievic - on the disastrous situation relations among the	within the coalition parties as well as within each party. The article reads that only six governing political	months after the parliamentary election, BiH has stepped into the hallway of
parties	parliamentary crisis that threatens with the total blockade of the political decision-making stopping of even symbolic reformist projects'. The article claims that the proof that the parliamentary crisis has arrived to Bih was last week's election of Spiric for Deputy BiH HoR Speaker. The election was followed by quarrels between party heads who proved they were not in agreement and had no political responsibility. The SDA attacked Muratovic for abstaining for the vote, Kunic from PDP found himself under the fire of his party for supporting Spiric and Halilovic from SBiH (also voted for Spiric) explained they were in coalition with the SDA, but had no obligation towards SDA's partners (meaning the SDS). As for inter-party problems, the magazine points out obvious tension between Tihic and Terzic. Also, according to the author, Federation PM Hadzipasic has also been distancing himself from Tihic. Article claims the same problems are taking place in the SBiH (no examples though) and RS parties who fail to agree on the most benign issues such as the laws stemming from Bulldozer Commission initiatives. As for HR Ashdown, the magazine says that instead of decreasing his authorities he has done the opposite. As for Ashdown's recent statement on the completion of the 'first stage of reforms' the magazine says that no one is clear what the phase included, when it began and when it ended. An insert 'Chose nationalists again and you will be ruined' – a senior diplomatic source told the magazine that only extraordinary elections next year might be a chance for BiH. If, according to the source, people elect nationalists again the IC will leave and Bih will be ruined.

Dani on Bulldozer Committee	DANI pg. 7 'Bosanski Barometar' column on the Bulldozer Commission – graded with two black dots meaning a terrible move. Opens up by saying that the Bulldozer Commission (BC) only 'ploughs' in direction that the OHR and their advisors from the WB and IMF dictate. The objection of reps from the mentioned international organizations caused for a proposal on a temporary ban on the export of logs was not included on an agenda of a session of the BC. The reason being that there is no limit to export, as BiH signed a memorandum on its foreign trade regime – one of the terms for joining the WTO. "And it's no use that the entity and state governments, as well as all regional Bulldozer commissions supported the proposal that would stop the mass export of the BiH forest riches. The higher interests, dictated by the WB and IMF, say that such move would chase away potential investors. But such moves should be no surprise, as it is well-known what kind of 'primitives' run this country and how reps of the IC treat them as their 'servants'."

NN editorial on RS Prosecutor's performance	Nezavisne Novine, editorial by D ragan Jerinic. 'Why does Amor Bukic keep silent?' – Jerinic is critical of Prosecutor's Office of Republika Srpska, especially of its Prosecutor, Amor Bukic. He questions as to how it is possible to trust Prosecutor's Office when no investigation has been launched into any case of crime and corruption on which media so extensively reported on, brining exact details into those cases. The author reiterates the general observation that there are more criminal reports in this state than university degrees. And if prosecutor's office, judiciary and police continue to do the way they have been doing or should we say failed to do anything for years, the number of criminal reports over university diplomas will rise.
