Added that the FBiH Court was truly independent they would never pay attention to Ashdown's Law on immunity. "Can you imagine, the Constitutional Court halted the case explaining the HR changed the Constituion in the meantime. The Constitutional Court had to act in accordance with the law, which clearly says that there is no retroactive change of the law. Therefore, it could not have been applied to Bicakcic, Covic, Grabovac and others."

Also reported in Vecernje Novosti pg. 4 'What was he doing with Mikelic'.
SNSD vs. Kalinic	Vecernje Novosti pg. 4 'Coup d'etat only in head' – the SNSD issued a statement in regard to RS National Assembly Speaker Dragan Kalinic's statement that Milorad Dodik prepares coup d'etat in the RS. The SNSD in its statement defends its president saying that it would be better for Kalinic to explain to the police what happened with millions of KM foreseen for the maternity ward White Angel or what happened with missing people during the war about whom he, as then-minister, had the information. "The RS Public expects the RS Interior Ministry to call Kalinic to explain a coup d'etat that happened in his head," the SNSD's statement says.

HDZ on SDA	Slobodna Dalmacija pg. 15 'SDA takes even what does not belong to it' – regarding a statement by SDA Vice President, Seada Palavric, that the SDA 'let the Croat side appoint five ministers in the government (of Central Bosnia Canton – CBK) even though Bosniaks are in majority there, so the minority (Croats) in the Canton should have a better protection', the daily carries a reaction by Secretary of the Central Bosnia Canton HDZ, Zdravko Batinic, as saying that Palavric's statement has nothing to do with reality. Batinic says the SDA never made any concessions to the HDZ stressing that both parties have an equal number of MPs in the cantonal assembly (10 each). Batinic explains that talks preceding the formation of the CBK government were very difficult and lasted for three months and in the end resulted in two 'packages' that were on offer. The first package was the position of the cantonal PM plus three ministries and the second package being four ministries plus a right to nominate a Serb Justice Minister with mandatory consent of the SDA. According to Batinic, the SDA had the first choice pick and opted for the first package.

Slobodna Dalmacija pg. 1 and 15 by Zlatko Tulic – "The whole affair shows the need for the urgent establishment of a joint Ministry of Defense at the state level. International Community Affairs
Ashdown's column in Guardian	Oslobođenje pg. 2 'We paid a high price in BiH' – an excerpt from an article HR Paddy Ashdown wrote for the British Guardian. "BiH, Kosovo and Afghanistan have demonstrated that what happens after the fighting is every bit as important as the military campaign. Arguable more important. We have become all too good at wining these wars. But far less good at winning the peace that follows them. As in Bosnia, in Iraq too everything depends on the establishment of an early establishment of that important precondition for starting the economy, creating a free and fair political structure, development of civil society and people's trust in police and judiciary." Dnevni List pg. 3 – a warning by Ashdown that the same mistake, which was made in BiH and Kosovo, must not be made again in Iraq and it must not be late with the establishment of the rule of the law. DL also says that the HR warns of corruption, which was the result of the poor distribution of the first influx of the financial assistance for the reconstruction, of unemployment and the poor economic development.

Media Affairs

Journalists react to Njegus' statement

Blic pg. 7 'Journalists angry with Njegus and SDS', Vecernje Novosti pg. 19 'Journalists' reaction' - "We are shocked with RS Police Chief Radomir Njegus's and SDS officials' statements that independent media acts unprofessionally," Director of the Independent Journalist Association Dragan Jerinic said. According to him, such statements represent a pressure on journalists' work due to which the Association asks the international organisations in BiH to undertake necessary measures in order to protect the media and citizens from pressures from the SDS and Interior Ministry. "It is obvious that for the ruling coalition journalists are not a problem, but unwillingness to fight the organised crime," Jerinic says. OHR spokesman Vedran Persic says the OHR can not accept any pressure on the media that has a duty to report professionally. "It would be better for the RS authorities to fight organised crime," Persic said. Blic pg. 7 'Fear of media' - the Helsinki Committee for Human Rights is worried because of the intolerable pressures of the RS authorities on the media. "Interior Minister, Zoran Djeric, is afraid of journalists so it is not a wonder he is afraid of criminals he should arrest. Police Chief Radomir Njegus deals with politics instead of doing his job. They blame journalists and citizens, especially opposition parties, and only criminals are not to be blamed," the SNSD said.
