

OHR BiH Media Round-up, 10/12/2002

CROAT RADIO HERCEG-BOSNA (18,00 hrs)	BH TV 1 (19,00 hrs)	FED TV (19,30 hrs)
Talks between Croatia and BiH heads	Meeting of BiH and Croatian presidents	Dzaferovic HoR chairman, Paravac and Colak deputies
Dzaferovic chairman, Borislav Paravac and Barisa Colak HoR vice-chairmen	BiH CoM adopted proposal of the Law on import and export of weapons	Talks between the Croatian and BiH presidents
Archbishop Puljic's Xmas message	2 nd presidential elections in Serbia failed	Bank owns 19 millions, total demand around 20 millions
Kostunica and Djindjic accuse each other for another failure of Serbian presidential elections	Day before the Human Rights Day- no one cares about Gypsies in Mostar

Oslobodjenje	Ante Gotovina is hiding in Western Herzegovina?; Division of BiH dismissed; Hadzipasic - FBiH government PM; Are charges against Dudakovic justified? FELIX in Sarajevo
Dnevni Avaz	Request that Silajdzic participates in government; BiH Presidency with Mesic - Many agreement waiting to be signed; Unions believe in SDU BiH; FELIX is a toy for son Anur
Dnevni List	BiH Presidency members with Croatian President Mesic: Soon it will be possible to pass border without passport
Vecernji List	BiH Presidency members with Croatian President Mesic: Zagreb is not changing policy towards BiH
Slobodna Dalmacija	BiH Presidency members talked with Croatian President Mesic in Kostajnica: Croatia rejects any division of BiH
Glas Srpski	RS Tax Administration comments on VAT - one tax, two cash-desks; Banja Luka: Basic released
Nezavisne Novine	National parties to form government at the state level - PDP with SDS, SDA and HDZ; BiH Presidency meets Croatian President - BiH and Croatia should open borders
Vecernje Novosti	Natasa Minic soon to be Acting Serbian President; Kostunica: No one to the Hague
Blic	BiH and Croatia close to an agreement on Una border; Ivanic: Mikerevic will provide support; Dodik: Ivanic does not believe in the success of authority

Bosnia and Herzegovina

BiH Presidency with Mesic	Avaz pg. 1 and 2, Oslobodjenje pg. 1 and 7, Nezavisne Novine pg. 2, Glas Srpski pg. 2 'Agreement draws borderline', Blic pg. 7 'Optimism of negotiators' - the BiH Presidency members met yesterday with the Croatian President Stipe Mesic to discuss relations between the two countries. Mesic said he was satisfied that members of the new presidency met first with him, which proves that BiH wishes to continue friendly relations with Croatia. As for the DPA, Mesic referred to a statement by Lord Ashdown who once described it as 'the foundation, but without completed roof'. Sarovic said at a press conference that the relations between the two countries were good and stable. He also said that members of the Inter-State Council for Co-operation between BiH and Croatia should meet in January next year. Avaz carried a separate article with a statement by Mesic regarding Bosniaks in Croatia and their participation in the Croatian Parliament. "Bosniaks are national minority in Croatia, and within the procedures of solving other issues concerning minorities we will consider the position of Bosniaks too and their participation in the Croatian Parliament," said Mesic. During the meeting they discussed the agreement on dual citizenship, Ploce Port, border traffic and cultural, scientific and technical cooperation. In that context, Slobodna Dalmacija carries Chair of BiH Presidency, Mirko Sarovic, as saying those issues would be solved soon. President Mesic concluded that the Croatian policy towards Bosnia will not change and that the Croatian authorities reject all political combinations that imply the division of BiH. Mesic also said that a status of Croats in the neighboring country is a subject of a constant interest and care of Croatia, adding that however, Croatian authorities do not forget that it is about Croats who are BiH citizens. Jutarnji List pg. 1 and 3, 'Stipe Mesic: New division of BiH is out of question', Vjesnik (pg. 1 and 2, 'Mesic rejected all political connotations related to division of BiH'), Vecernji List (pg. 1 and 8, 'BiH Presidency members with Croatian President Mesic: Zagreb is not changing policy towards BiH'), Dnevni List (pg. 1 and 3, 'BiH Presidency members with Croatian President Mesic: Soon it will be possible to pass border without passport') and Slobodna Dalmacija (pg. 1 and 15, 'BiH Presidency members talked with Croatian President Mesic in Kostajnica: Croatia rejects any division of BiH'). SD carries that asked to comment on his statement saying that many things have not been resolved in BiH yet, Dragan Covic, a Croat member of the BiH Presidency, stated that he said this in terms of equality and constituency of all peoples on the whole BiH territory and in terms of the economic recovery of the country and added that this statement did not have any other connotations. Also, Mesic was asked to comment on recent statement given by Zdravko Tomac, the Vice President of the Croatian Parliament, regarding Tudjman's policy towards BiH. Mesic said that this issue was not discussed in the Croatian Parliament and thus Tomac could not pass any judgments regarding the Croatian policy towards BiH. Mesic added that he does not want to comment on private Tomac's statements.
Gotovina hiding in Western Herzegovina?	Oslobodjenje pg. 1 and 3 - the daily claims that the Croatian Army General, Ante Gotovina, who has been indicted by The Hague for war crimes, has been hiding in the BiH territory, more precisely in Western Herzegovina. According to the daily's source (close to local intelligence services), for while Gotovina has been hiding with his escorts in an elite hotel in Siroki Brijeg. From time to time he changes location and moves to the Lake Blidinje. The daily further claims that some local officials know about Gotovina hiding in BiH, but there is no political will to arrest him. SFOR apparently informed Croatian investigative bodies on several occasions that Gotovina was in the border area of BiH.
Draft Law on Weapons Export adopted	Avaz pg. 4 'The lowest sentence for organised weapons smuggling ten years in prison', Oslobodjenje pg. 7 'The draft Law on Arms and Military Equipment adopted' - The BiH CoM adopted at yesterday's session the draft Law on Export of Arms and Military Equipment, which is to be forwarded for the Parliamentary procedure ASAP. Azra Hadziahmetovic, Minister of Foreign Trade and economic Relations, stated that the draft law outlined the ways and conditions for the issuing of licenses and organise export, import and transit of military equipment. "The Ministry will establish a database on all licenses issued in accordance with the Law, and each six months they will submit a report to the BiH Parliament on the issued licenses," said Hadziahmetovic. The Law outlines fines and prison sentences for those in the breach of the Law.
RS budget for 2003 adopted	Avaz pg. 4 'The RS budget for 2003 - 999,7 million-KM', Oslobodjenje pg. 7 'Dodik insisted on Boze pravde hymn', Glas Srpski pg. 3, Nezavisne Novine pg. 3, Blic pg. 7, Nacional pg. 11, Vecernje Novosti pg. 13 - the RS NA adopted last night the RS budget for the next year, and it some up to 999,7 million-KM. The RS NA also adopted the Law on the implementation of the same. The papers reported that 49 reps voted for the RS budget, and 23 were against. Oslobodjenje reported that representatives of the RS NA argued for two hours last night whether the 'Boze pravde hymn should be played before each session. Dodik insisted that the issue be taken up to the RS Parliament, and the SDA representatives stated that if the issue was to be taken to the Parliament they would play the card of the protection of vital national interest because the hymn was a symbol of only one people.
Letter to UN SG Annan	Avaz pg. 2 'The BiH Presidency in New York has to request Karadzic's and Mladic's arrest' - the Association of 'Mothers of Srebrenica and Zepa enclaves' wrote to the BiH Presidency requesting that during their address of the UN SC in New York forward a request by the Association for the arrest of Radovan Karadzic, Ratko Mladic and other war criminals. They further wrote that the Presidency should also pass on their request for the construction of the Potocari memorial, and that the SC should exert pressure on the governments of RS and FRY to extradite the war criminals. The Association also wrote to SG Annan asking him to influence the international foundations to speed up the construction of the Potocari memorial with donations.
Shelter for human trafficking victims	Oslobodjenje pg. 3 'Shelter for victims of human trafficking' - Kresimir Zubak, BiH Minister for human Rights and Refugees, and the Head of the IOM Mission, Nidia Cassati, on Monday signed a protocol of understanding between the two institution on the implementation of a temporary instruction for dealing with the human trafficking victims. The protocol contains plans about construction of a shelter for the human trafficking victim.

New government/coalition building

SBiH wants Silajdzic in the government	Avaz pg. 1 and 4 – all cantonal SBiH organisations declared in the past few days that Haris Silajdzic, the party founder, should nominate for the BiH CoM Chair. Sadik Bahtic, President of the SBiH cantonal Council in Una-Sana Canton (USK), stated that Silajdzic won over 160,000 votes at the last presidential elections, which means that he enjoys a great support of the people. The daily informs that in the past few days many meetings of the leading party officials at the cantonal and municipality level were organised and even those who failed to attend the meetings sent a letter of support to Silajdzic.
BiH HoR constituted	Avaz pg. 4 'Dzaferovic Chairman, Paravac and Colak deputies', Oslobođenje pg. 8 Sefik Dzaferovic took over the Chairing post', Vecernji List, pg. 1, 2 and 15, Blic pg. 7, Vecernji List pg. 1, 2 and 15, Dnevni List pg. 1 and 5 and Slobodna Dalmacija (back page) – Sefik Dzaferovic from the SDA was elected the BiH HoR Chairman, and Borislav Paravac (SDS) and Barisa Colak (HDZ) were elected for the new deputies. Twenty-three representatives yesterday voted for the new HoR heads (from the SDA, SDS, HDZ, PDP and Party for Pensioners), while representatives from the SBiH, SDP, SNSD, SPRS, HDU - for Progress voted against, and BOSS and DNZ abstained. Colak stated that his party has not given up on his nomination for the CoM Chair. VL notes that the three were elected by votes from SDA, SDS, HDZ, PDP and Party of Pensioners and goes on to say that a similar scenario could repeat during the voting for the new BiH Council of Ministers. The same papers on page 15, under title "Confirmed coalition HDZ-SDS-SDA", says that appointment of Colak comes as a surprise considering the fact that he is an HDZ candidate for the Chair of CoM, however there is comment by Rade Bosnjak, HDZ Secretary General, who says: "It does not mean that HDZ has given up Barisa Colak's candidacy for Chair of CoM. He is still our candidate for the office and we shall stay determined in that." DL carries that Barisa Colak stated that he would not give up candidacy for the position of the Chair of the BiH Council of Ministers. Slobodna Dalmacija pg. 1 and 17, 'I am afraid, tensions are rising again' - carries an interview with Mijo Anic, the current Federation Defense Minister and Vice President of NHI, in which he says that a coalition between HDZ, SDA and SDS is a classic example of treason and a very dangerous and not well-thought move that could have far-reaching consequences. "We will be rejected by the IC and it is unbelievable that representatives of HDZ and SDS bought tricks of SDS leaders", says Anic. Anic goes on to say that HDZ went into coalition with SDS on purpose because HDZ still believe in the idea of third entity without Croats of Central Bosnia in it. In a separate article Avaz on the same page entitled 'Already seen concept of authority is on the scene' reported that caucus of the SBiH representatives issued a statement following yesterday's BiH HoR session. It is obvious that a coalition of three nationalist parties is again on the scene and they are representing and implementing the well-known concept of authority," reads the statement. The party said they were against such election of the BiH HoR leadership and offered no support to the same. Glas Srpski pg. 3, Nezavisne Novine pg. 1 and 3 'PDP with SDA, HDZ and SDS'. Avaz pg. 8 'Ahmet Hadzipasic nominated for Federation PM', Oslobođenje pg. 6 'Hadzipasic Federation government PM' – the Executive Board of the SDA Zenica Canton Board nominated the Zenica 'Metalno' company Director, Ahmet Hadzipasic, for the new FBiH PM. This was confirmed yesterday by Mirsad Zaimovic, the Zenica-Doboj Canton (ZDK) SDA President.
SDA's candidate for FBiH PM	Avaz pg. 10 'Representatives will discuss the FBiH budget for the next year' – the Federation HoR will discuss today the FBiH budget for the next year that totals 1.2 billion KM, as devised by the 'technical government' (Alliance government after the elections). Muhamed Ibrahimovic, the newly elected FBiH HoR Chairman, stated that the IMF and OHR requested an immediate adoption of the next year's budget. He also added that they were informed that the IMF was soon to revise the first transaction for the stand-by arrangement that amounts to $15 million. Speaking of the election of the second FBiH HoR Deputy, Ibrahimovic stated that the election of a Serb deputy was depending on the negotiations between political parties.
FBiH HoR session	Avaz pg. 8 'Dragan Mikerevic will get Serb majority in the Parliament' – the PDP President, Mladen Ivanic, told Avaz that Mikerevic, as the new RS PM, will be in a position to get the Serb majority in the Parliament sufficient to establish the new government. He could not tell exactly how many ministerial positions PDP would get in the new government. He stated that there were two options. One, that the new government will be a minority government including the PDP and some other party. Other option was that a certain number of ministers from the SDS join the government too. He also stated that his party has not started negotiations on the establishment of the CoM, and added they would not participate in its work if it were made by the HDZ, SDA and SDS reps. His party will not nominate anyone for the CoM Chair. Glas Srpski quotes on pg. 3 RS Prime Minister Mladen Ivanic as saying that the PDP had not yet reached any agreement regarding the government formation at the state level.
Ivanic for Avaz	Blic pg. 7 – "SNS will not support the candidacy of Dragan Mikerevic for the RS Prime Minister because we have signed the Agreement with the SNSD," Jezdimir Spasojevic, a member of the SNS Main Board, told a press conference. "Proposing of Mikerevic for PM designate is yet another expression of inability of Mladen Ivanic's Government to resolve political and economic problems in the RS," claims Spasojevic. Blic also quoted Ivanic as saying that Mikerevic has a really good team of people in order to continue with the ongoing reforms. "Reactions to Mikerevic's appointment" – Ivanic recalled that Mikerevic had worked in the Council of Ministers for two years and therefore he had administrative experience, which made him a very competent candidate for the post of Prime Minister designate. Commenting on the reasons why he was not put forward as the PDP candidate for the post, Ivanic said that the PDP's position was that party leaders should not be at the helm of the government, so that the SDS, the SNSD and the PDP could jointly set up the new government. "Considering that not all talks were successful, but that we did not have a parliamentary crisis, the PDP, being aware of its responsibility, put forward Dragan Mikerevic as the prime minister designate", Ivanic said. Nacional on pg. 11 quoted the Chairman of the BiH Presidency Mirko Sarovic said he hoped that Mikerevic would secure the parliamentary majority and that he would continue with reforms. "The SDS will support him and with that support he will have the majority", Sarovic said.
Reactions to Mikerevic's appointment	Oslobođenje pg. 6 'I will be in opposition' – a statement by Milorad Dodik, the SNSD President. Yesterday stated that his party wouldn't participate in consultation for the CoM and the RS government. "We will be in opposition," said Dodik. Talking of Mikerevic's appointment, he stated that no one really thought about people, even though all parties during the pre-election campaigns announced changes. He recalled that Ivanic offered co-operation to all parties, except to the SDA who he co-operates now with. Also quoted in Nacional pg. 11 and Blic pg. 7.
Dodik in opposition	Glas Srpski quotes on pg. 3 RS PM Designate Dragan Mikerevic as saying that he expects that the RS Government will be formed by middle of January, between the regular New Year and Orthodox New Year. Mikerevic also said he expected his platform and composition of the cabinet to get support of 48 to 50 deputies in the RS NA. Glas Srpski reports on pg. 3 that British Ambassador to BiH Ian Cliff met yesterday with RS NA Speaker Dragan Kalinic and RS Prime Minister Mladen Ivanic. The paper carries a statement, issued by the Kalinic's office, which says that Cliff and Kalinic agreed that it is necessary to form governments at all levels as soon as possible so that the future authorities can continue with the ongoing reform. RS Prime Minister Mladen Ivanic said he expected the IC support in formation of RS government so that the new RS authorities can continue with the ongoing reform. Ambassador Cliff also met with RS Vice President Adil Osmanovic. After the meeting the Ambassador said that it is quite clear that SDA will support Mikerevic's government if SDA gets certain number of ministerial positions. Ambassador Cliff said that the most important thing for the new government is to continue with reforms, which means that there has to be a taxation system, which is in line with European standards. Nezavisne Novine reported on the same issue (pg. 6 'New government has to go on with reforms').
Mikerevic	FENA – Croat Democratic Union (HDZ) Acting President Barisa Colak told FENA on Monday that the position of this party that a Croat should be appointed as the BiH Council of Ministers Chair has not changed. HDZ thinks that this demand is realistic and justified. During talks with the BiH Presidency, representatives of HDZ proposed Barisa Colak for the position of CoM Chair. "Nothing has changed because we still do not know if the CoM would be established in five, 10 or 15 days. We would be happy if this was done as soon as possible. I believe that the CoM Chair could be appointed by next Monday and that the CoM would be established within the period of time specified by the Constitution," said Colak and expressed confidence that this would be done by the end of the year.
Kalinic and Ivanic with Ian Cliff	Avaz pg. 3 'Comment of the Day' column by Fadil Mandal entitled 'Party on strong foundation' – thinks that Ivo Komsic, Sead Avdic, Miro Lazovic, Sejfudin Tokic and other founders of the SDU started a difficult job. For many, their undertake might seem Don Quixote like," writes Mandal. He is generally of view that this new party is a very positive thing that proves that the idea of social-democracy has not been defeated as many might have thought following SDS's fiasco at the last elections. On pg. 9 'Union happy because there is a party that will protect workers and soldiers' – on many congratulation notes that the SDU has been receiving in the past few days. Again on pg. 2 of Avaz a survey entitled 'Public trusts in SDU's potentials' shows that 69% people believe that the newly established party can represent in the right manner the idea of social-democracy. 8% people do not think the SDU is up to the challenge, and 23% abstained. Oslobođenje on pg. 2 carried two commentaries about the SDU. One by Mirko Sagolj entitled 'New divisions, and the other by Zia Dizdarevic entitled 'Social democracy'. Sagolj generally thinks that this is really not a new party, but a group of unhappy SDP members (unhappy with Lagumdžija's leadership as well as with their status in the party) who separated from the old party and changed the party name a bit. He thinks that the party should receive the support if, in the slightest, it would help the country exit the serious moral, economic, social and political crisis. However, Sagolj also points out that the act of the establishment of the new party could also represent a certain help to the forces of division. Finally, Dizdarevic's commentary is a sort of an overview of the SDU's establishment and its Statute.
Colak on CoM Chair	Blic pg. 2, Nacional pg. 11 – At Sunday's extraordinary session of the SRS, Milanko Mihajlica was elected Chairman and Ljubo Veljovic party's Secretary General. The party's new executive board was also elected with Pantelija Damjanovic as its new chairman. At yesterday's press conference, Ognjen Tadic said that Mirko Blagojevic and himself did not accept the decisions of the SRS extraordinary session, in which they did not participate. Both Blagojevic and Tadic were dismissed from their leading posts in the party at the session. Tadic accused the SDS and Dragan Kalinic for these happenings and announced criminal charges against newly elected leadership of the party. New party's president, Milanko Mihajlica said that members of the SRS did not accept "non-democratic and autocratic leading of the party by Blagojevic and his associates". He said that 90 out of 130 SRS delegates participated in the extraordinary session. Expressing his support to the extraordinary session's decisions, Nikola Poplacen said that the Radicals had not had legally elected president since his resignation. Blic quotes an SRS high official as saying that it is sad that behind these happenings is former president of the party Nikola Poplacen who could not stand the fact that Ognjen Tadic outclassed him by getting so many votes at the October elections.
Commentaries about SDU BiH
Split within SRS

OHR/International Community

Reactions to HR Initiative	Glas Srpski quotes on its front-page the RS Tax Administration Chief Milica Bisic as saying that it is pointless to set up the third customs administration at the state level, which would only collect VAT. Glas Srpski reiterates that Paddy Ashdown insists on the introduction of VAT at the state level due to massive tax evasion in the country. Bisic said that, when it comes to organising the VAT collection, there are two possible scenarios. The first one is that tax administrations of both entities collect VAT and the second one is to set up the third tax administration at the state level, which would collect only VAT. "Judging by the talks we have had so far with the OHR, it is quite clear that their proposal, which they call 'at the state level', implies that revenues collected from VAT belong to the RS and the Federation. In that case, it is completely pointless and too expensive to set up a state level tax administration, which would only collect VAT and then distribute it further to the RS and Federation budgets", said Bisic. She said that this solution could lead to fruitless debates on criteria that would be used in distribution of collected revenues. Bisic said that, according to RS's proposal, tax rates, tax bases, tax exemption and the whole tax structure had to be the same in both the RS and Federation, which was in line with the RS's proposal, that is, the VAT should not be introduced at the state level.
1,700 returnees complains to HR Ashdown	Avaz pg. 9 '1,700 returnees complained to Ashdown' - Besim Cirkin, President of the Islamic Community Board in Prijedor, stated that after the explosive devices were planted in Mujkanovic and Donja Puharska, a letter was sent to HR Ashdown signed by 1,700 returnees.
Statement by PDHR Hays	Avaz pg. 7 'VAT will be manipulated by citizens' - an excerpt from a statement that PDHR Donald Hays gave to Blic. "The introduction of VAT is in no way connected to state building. That is an initiative that concerns only two things. The first, to ensure the revenues from taxes for all authority levels, and the second concerns the insurance of structure that would be open for businesses from abroad."
Statement by Benes	Oslobodjenje pg. 2 'Rotation of Mostar heads is not obligatory' - a statement by Avis Benes, Mostar OHR Spokesperson. She stated that after the abolishment of the cantons with special regime, there was no legal reason for the rotation of Mostar heads.
LJILJAN magazine on Pajic	Immediately after assuming powerful duties of the High Representative to BiH, Paddy Ashdown brought from Great Britain Zoran Pajic, a former Professors at the Sarajevo University School of Law and a low-ranking pre-war communist party official, Enes Jakupovic wrote in this week's Ljiljan (Zoran Pajic - an Englishman from Bosnia or a Bosnian from England: "Legal Governor of BiH"). According to Jakupovic, Ashdown put the entire legal reform in the hands of the legal expert with questionable legal qualities, who had several times "washed his hands from this country (BiH)." Although he spent the most of the wartime in London, Pajic had never totally broken his links with BiH. As a well-paid international legal consultant/advisor, he was coming on several occasions. The best evidence of how big damage his legal advises had made to BiH was his expensive engagement by the BiH Federation Government in case of the Mostar Aluminum. In that case he was supposed to act as an expert for finding international legal foundations that would support the idea of international arbitration as the mean to determine the company's ownership structure. However, it was always quite clear that the Mostar Aluminum ownership was the internal issue of the BiH Federation and should have nothing to do with any international proceedings, Jakupovic concluded.
SDHR Schroembgens' visit	FENA - Senior Deputy High Representative Gerhard Enver Schrömbgens will visit Gornji Vakuf-Uskoplje and Travnik Tuesday where he will meet local officials and returnees, visit three factories and a business association. OHR announced that Ambassador Schrömbgens would present new steps in High Representative's program entitled 'Work and Justice'. He will also explain activities of the Bulldozer Commission, which was formed to promote an environment for developing business in BiH.

Trials

Kostunica's statement	Avaz 3 'Kostunica suggested that war criminals Mladic be tried in Belgrade', Oslobodjenje pg. 5 'FRY will no longer extradite Hague indictees', Vecernje Novosti pg. 1, Blic pg. 2 - an interview that FRY President Vojislav Kostunica gave to the London 'Times' saying that Belgrade will no longer extradite war criminals to The Hague because The Hague failed to keep the promises it made to those who voluntarily surrendered. He added that he thought the Tribunal was working one way, and the co-operation with the same should not be one way. The paper also carried a statement by Diplomatic Advisor of Del Ponte, Jean Jacques Joris who stated that Kostunica's statement might be the result of him not being well informed.
RS brings charges against five Bosniaks	Avaz pg. 10 'Hague forwarded indictment against five Bosniaks from Visegrad', Oslobodjenje pg. 5 'The Hague forwarded new charges against five Bosniaks', Blic pg. 7 - that the RS Bureau forwarded yesterday to the Hague Office in Banja Luka criminal charges against five Bosniaks who committed war crimes during the war in the area of Visegrad.
'Cegar' trial	Avaz pg. 5 'Cegar's trial in the process' - the daily informs that the Zagreb municipality Court started a trial in absentia against Zoran Cegar, the current Federation Mol Inspector and a member of the Independent Board for the Election of Police officers. The information was yesterday confirmed for Avaz at the Zagreb Court.
Trnopolje survivor testifies	Avaz on pg. 12 reported that Emsud Garibovic, one of the survivors from Trnopolje camp, testified at The Hague. The article was entitled 'The crime at Koricani rocks still haunting Lord Ashdown'. Again, the name of HR Ashdown is mentioned in the article as the daily recalls a statement by Ashdown that 'he was still haunted by the thought that on August 11, 1992 in Trnopolje camp, near Prijedor, he could have done more to save the lives of prisoners whose bodies ended up a few days later in an abyss on the Vlasic mountain'.
Arms smuggling to Kosovo trial	Oslobodjenje pg. 9 'The secret of a black set', Avaz pg. 28 'Sabanovic, Jamakovic and Babic know the origin of arms confiscated in Kosovo' - Vlado Adamovic, the Chairman of the FBiH Supreme Court Council, concluded that Sabanovic, Babic and Jamakovic knew where 314 automatic guns found in Kosovo came from. The three, together with Hamid Bahto, Faris Lakovic, Nijaz Zivojevic and Velid Hajdarevic are being tried for arms smuggling to Kosovo.