

High Representative visits NGO “Education for All - EDUS”

The High Representative, Valentin Inzko, visited the Association for advancement of education and support for children with and without developmental delays “Education for All - EDUS” in Sarajevo. “EDUS” has become the leading advocate and education provider for children with developmental delays, such as autism, in Bosnia and Herzegovina. After a meeting with “EDUS” staff and a brief tour of their classrooms, the High Representative expressed his full support to the work of this association.
