

Banja Luka Regional Office

The current Head of the Regional Office of the High Representative in Banja Luka, Amb. Laszlo Markusz

The OHR opened the Banja Luka Regional Office on Monday, May 6, 1996 providing a point of contact to the different official and political institutions in Republika Srpska and facilitating RS participation in civilian implementation of the Dayton Peace Agreement.

The Banja Luka office implements policies to ensure that the Dayton Peace Agreement is implemented fully in Republika Srpska. It monitors the situation in the RS, gives advice to OHR headquarters and intervenes when necessary.

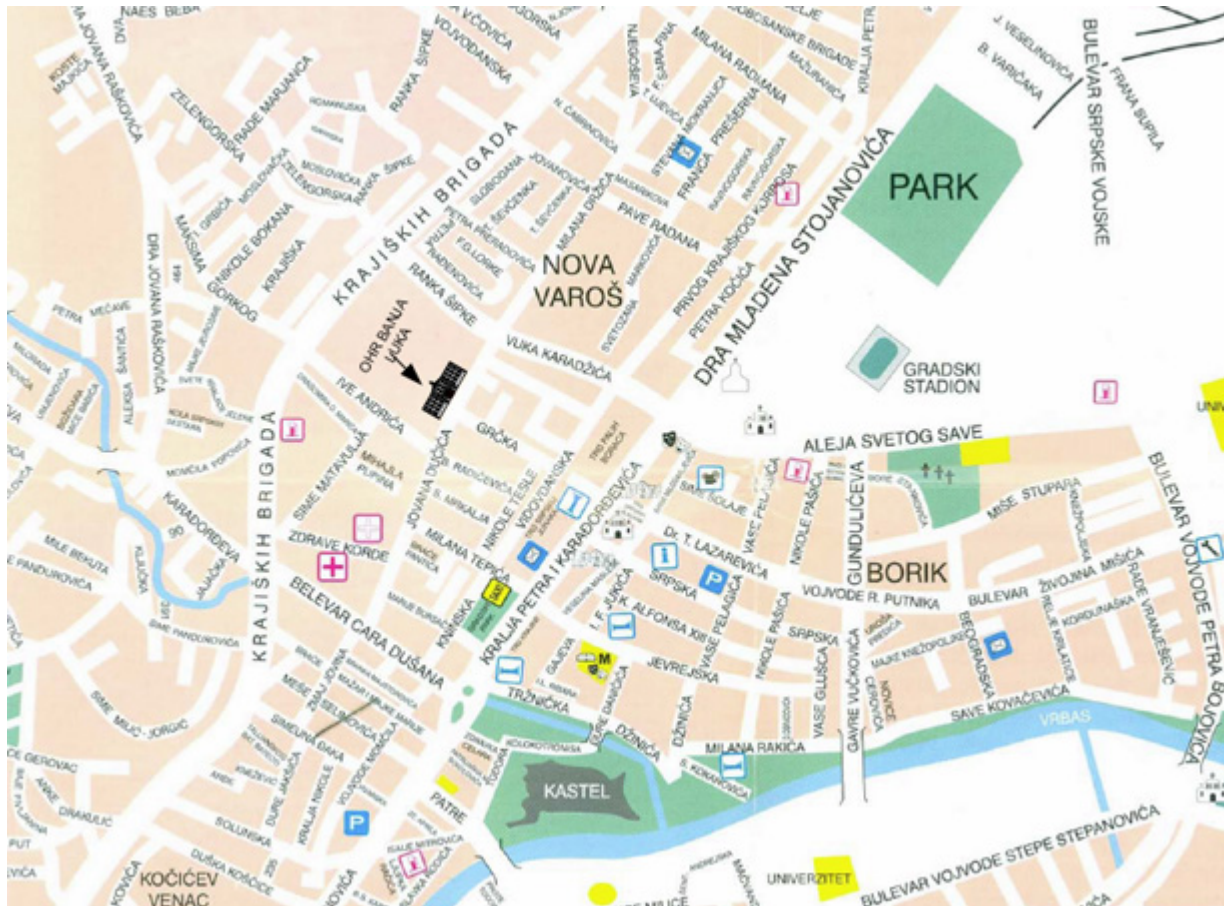

Since its inception the Banja Luka office has helped the Republika Srpska to develop its government infrastructure and participate constructively in state-level institutions.

The current Head of the Regional Office of the High Representative in Banja Luka is Amb. Laszlo Markusz. He assumed his duties as Deputy High Representative in October 2022.
