Acting High Representative Crishock meets Mostar Bishop of Mostar-Duvno Palić

Acting High Representative Louis Crishock met today in Mostar with the Bishop of Mostar-Duvno, Petar Palić, continuing a series of dialogues with religious leaders from across Bosnia and Herzegovina. Their discussion focused on the vital role of interreligious engagement and dialogue in strengthening social cohesion and fostering mutual understanding within society.

"Interreligious dialogue creates space for communities to listen to one another, build trust, and work together on issues that affect society as a whole," said Acting High Representative Crishock. "By promoting respect, tolerance, and cooperation, religious communities can make a valuable contribution to building more inclusive Bosnia and Herzegovina."
