

Ambassador Butler Briefs SACEUR General Craddock on Situation in BiH

Principal Deputy High Representative Lawrence Butler briefed Supreme Allied Commander, Europe, General Bantz J. Craddock, on the situation in Bosnia and Herzegovina in Sarajevo today.

Ambassador Butler gave General Craddock his assessment of how Bosnia and Herzegovina's institutions were functioning and of the country's economic and political prospects.

It was General Craddock's first visit to Bosnia and Herzegovina since becoming Supreme Allied Commander, Europe – NATO's most senior military commander – in December.
