

Close cooperation key to addressing evolving security challenges

PDHR Louis Crishock met with Admiral George Wikoff, Commander of Allied Joint Force Command Naples.

The discussion focused on the security and stability of Bosnia and Herzegovina and the wider region. Both sides underscored that close cooperation and coordination are essential to addressing evolving challenges and contributing responsibly to shared security objectives.

