

Crishock: “Interreligious dialogue strengthens social harmony”

Acting High Representative Louis Crishock met today with Sarajevo Mufti Nedžad ef. Grabus as part of his outreach to leaders from all of Bosnia and Herzegovina’s religious communities underscoring the importance of interreligious dialogue and the vital role religious communities play in fostering social cohesion and progress.

“The importance of interreligious dialogue lies in its ability to strengthen social harmony, promote tolerance, and address shared challenges through respectful communication and collaboration,” said Acting High Representative Crishock.
